FIELD DAY CELEBRATION.

In spite of the cold, raw weather Monday afternoon, April 18, the Undergraduate Association celebrated the first anniversary of the giving of Milbank Quadrangle, by events of an athletic nature.

The members of the four classes in caps and gowns, led by their respective presidents and carrying numerous flags and banners, marched from the college to the Quadrangle, where seats were provided for them. After all were assembled, Cecil Dorrian, '05, presented the Undergraduate Association with a large Barnard banner, a gift from the Junior Class. The Field Day contests then began with a basket ball game between the Junior Class team, and the Varsity Scrub team, made up of Sophomores and Freshmen.

The teams lined up as follows:—

Cecil Dorrian.....	} Forwards.
Helen Cooley.....
Annie Fisher.....	Centre
Anna Reiley.....	} Guards.
Margie Hoffman.....

In the second half Abigail Talbot took the place of Helen Cooley, SCRUB.

Mabel Boote, '07.....	} Forwards.
Helen Tracy, '07.....
Elizabeth Post, '06.....	Centre
Irma Seeligman, '06.....	} Guards.
Clara Smith, '07.....

The Juniors won the game by a score of 4-2. Goals were made by Elizabeth Post in the first half, Abigail Talbot, in the second half, at the end of which the score was 2-2. It was then decided to play until one of the teams should make a goal, and Annie Fisher soon scored for the Juniors. The game was badly played owing chiefly to unfamiliarity with the outdoor field and lack of systematic practice in preparation. There was a great deal of bunching, and little good team work. The Juniors had the ball near their goal most of the time, but failed repeatedly to make goals when good opportunities offered themselves. Ten points were awarded the winning team.

The other events were base-ball throw, quoits, basket-ball throw, and a tennis match. These contests were won as follows.

Base-ball throw.—Agnes Ernst, '07, first place; Cecil Dorrian, '05, second place; Helen Palliser, '05, third place.

Quoits.—Annie Fisher, '05, first place; Caroline Hall, '06, second place; Margaret Bailey, '07, third place.

Basket-ball throw.—Fanny McLean, '07, first place; Annie Fisher, '05, second place; Elsie Stichritz, '06, third place;

First, second, and third places were awarded 5, 3, and 1 points respectively.

The tennis match consisted in one set of doubles, the four class champions of the fall tournament of 1903 making up the two teams, with the exception of Edith Somborn, who took the place of Nina Price, '06.

Jean Egleston, '04, and Edith Somborn, '06 played against Edith Handy, '05, and Louise Rapp, '07. The odd classes won by a score of 6-2. The playing was scarcely worthy of the players, for the early date giving little opportunity for previous practice, and the cold weather, were both drawbacks. The winning team won ten points, five for each player.

The entire number of points, as awarded for all the events, were 27 to the class of 1905, 16 to 1907, and 4 to 1906. The Juniors are thus the winners of the Field Day Trophy Cup, which they hold until Field Day, 1905.

After the games were over, the members of the four classes marched around Milbank Quadrangle singing college and class songs, then adjourned to the college halls, which resounded with cheers for some time.

The Juniors were presented with the trophy cup the next day by Helen Elting, '04, chairman of the Field Day Committee, who congratulated the class on their success and enthusiasm for athletics. A member of 1905 at the same time presented the class with twenty-seven white carnations, the carnation being the class flower, to stand for the twenty-seven points won. During the noon hour on Tuesday, the victorious class paraded in triumph to the Quadrangle, where songs written for the occasion were sung, and a general rejoicing took place.

UNDERGRADUATE TEA.

The last tea of the year was given on Friday, April 22, and, as usual, there was a large attendance. Miss Gill, Mrs. Lord, Mrs. Seager, and Miss Loomis received with the members of the committee. The latter was composed of the following students: Minnie M. Beifeld, '04, chairman, Bessie L. Swan, '04, Helen N. Cohen, '05, Louise Johnston, '05, Bessie L. Lewis, '06, Belle Russell, '06, Agnes Ernst, '07, Barbara Walker, '07. Among the members of the faculty present were: Miss Hirst, Dr. Crampton, Dr. Jones, Dr. Knapp, Dr. Lord, Dr. Tombo and Mr. Jordan.

"ADVANCE SHEETS."

On Saturday, April 16, the Class of 1903 gave a reading, "Advance Sheets," for the benefit of the Reading Room. The affair took place at Sherry's, and was attended by a large number of people interested in Barnard and attracted by the novelty of hearing magazine articles read by their writers some time before their publication.

The Chairman of the occasion was Mr. Walter S. Page, editor of World's Work, who introduced each of the authors. One of the most interesting numbers of the program was "Imported Americans," from Ladies' Monthly, by Mr. Brandenberg. Mr. Brandenberg did not confine himself to reading from his manuscript, but spoke vividly of his experiences among Italian peasants in the slums of New York, in Italy, and in the steerage of an immigrant steamer. Miss Myra Kelly's "The Prince of Hester Street," from McClure's Magazine, was received with enthusiasm, as was also "Wild Animals," from the Century, by Miss Carolyn Wells. Miss Agnes Repplier's essay "Marriage in Fiction," from Harper's Bazar, proved to be extremely witty and clever. Owing to the undue length of some of the earlier articles on the program, Mr. Herman Knickerbocker Vielé and Mr. Seumas McManus were unable to read.

The financial result of the entertainment has not yet been announced, but it is believed that the proceeds will approximate $1,800.

The committee in charge of the affair included Anna Ware, chairman, Alice Bamberger, Anita Cohn, Gertrude Clark, May Johnson, Ethel Pool, and Jean Miller, ex-officio.

SUMMER WORK.

A position is open to a Barnard student who wishes to work during the coming summer. For further information apply by letter to the Exchange—address "Summer Work."

UNDERGRADUATE MEETING.

There will be an important meeting of the Undergraduate Association on Thursday, April 28, at 12:20, in room 139.

BARNARD BULLETIN,

BARNARD COLLEGE,

Broadway & 119th Street. COLUMBIA UNIV., N. Y.

MONDAY, APRIL 25, 1904.

Though the general interest in the Field Day celebration and the large attendance at the games last Monday indicate that the success of the anniversary festivities is assured, there were several things about the arrangements of this year which, with future celebrations in mind, call for comment. In the first place the games lagged. While basketball was going on there was nothing of interest to those who could not follow the game. This difficulty is one that may easily be avoided another year by having several events going on at the same time.

Then, too, the singing made one regret that the directions of the committee in regard to massing the classes had not been carried out, for though a creditable attempt was made, one cannot help feeling that the disadvantage of singing out of doors might have been better overcome by a more compact grouping of the singers. More practice and regular leaders would also have done much to make our songs ring out with greater harmony and spirit.

Another point which has occurred to us to mention as a possible innovation for another year is that there should be a regular presentation ceremony at the close of the games, in which the cup be given to the victorious class.

It might be well hereafter if the undergraduate body should put the arrangements for Field Day into the hands of the Athletic Association, otherwise that organization has no right to assume responsibilities necessary in training students for the events. Moreover, more systematic practice and arrangements, begun early in the year, would produce results of greater merit, and of a less amateurish nature, than those of Field Day 1904.

There is no doubt, however, that this new day in Barnard's calendar is significant. In the first place it gives a stimulus for effort in other branches of athletics than those heretofore existing, thus affording exercise in some form for a large percentage of students; it gives increased interest in athletics, since the Field Day games will be an incentive to practice from the beginning of the academic year; and furthermore, it will give greater prominence to the Athletic Association and go far toward raising it to a position occupied by similar organizations in other women's colleges.

We wish to extend our most hearty congratulations to the Class of 1903 on the success of the entertainment given by them for the benefit of the Reading Room. The kind of entertainment was in itself a novel and happy idea, and quite enough out of the ordinary to attract a large audience, but the committee was especially fortunate in having the active interest and aid of Mrs. Annie Nathan Meyer in carrying out its plans. The success of the affair has made it possible not only to undertake the enlargement of the Reading Room but also to furnish the college library with many much needed books. These changes will be gladly welcomed and appreciated by all the students who have felt the need of increased library facilities at Barnard.

- Cor. Secy.: Elizabeth Evans, '06.

It was voted, also, to amend the Constitution so that one-half instead of two-thirds of the active members shall hereafter constitute a quorum for the election of officers.

SPRING TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

At a meeting of the Athletic Association on Wednesday, April 20, arrangements were made for the spring tennis tournament. It was decided that the tournament should be an inter-class contest in singles, as heretofore, the college championship to be contested for by the four players who have won the championships of their respective classes. The Athletic Association offers a silver cup to be held as a perpetual challenge trophy, the numerals of the victorious class in each tournament together with the date, to be engraved upon the cup.

It was further decided that balls for all tournament matches should be provided by the Association, but in all other cases, players must provide themselves with balls.

Tournament matches are to take precedence over all others, and matches not played at the appointed times shall be defaulted, unless due notice is given to the tennis executive committee, in which case an effort will be made to change the time for playing.

Notices of the tournament were posted in the class studies last week, and entries closed on Thursday, April 21. It is earnestly hoped that preliminary matches may be begun on Monday, April 25, and played off promptly, so that the tournament will be entirely finished before finals.

DEBATE WITH NORMAL COLLEGE.

The Barnard Debating Society has arranged to have a contest with the Alpha Beta Gamma Debating Society of Normal College. Our girls, who had the choice of subject, have decided on the following Resolved, that the Hon. Joseph Chamberlain's tariff policy would benefit Great Britain. They have chosen the negative side.

The names of those who are to represent Barnard will be announced next week. The debate is to be held in the chapel at Normal College, on Saturday, May 7, at 2:30. No charge is to be made for admission, and is hoped that a large number of Barnard students will attend.

DEUTSCHER KREIS.

On April 20 Dr. Tombo addressed the Deutscher Kreis. After congratulating the members on their work so far, and encouraging them for the future, he proceeded to give a most interesting account of the "Kommers" of the Columbia Deutscher Verein, on the occasion of the visit of Baron Speck von Sternberg, particularly emphasizing President Butler's speech and the personality of the Baron. Dr. Tombo presented the Kreis with a copy of the program, containing the songs sung at the "Kommers," two of which he himself wrote.

DEAN GILL AT VASSAR.

On Friday evening, April 22, Dean Gill was the guest of a reception given at Vassar to the delegates of the Naples Table Association. This Association supports a table at Naples to enable American women to do research work there in biology. It is supported by women's colleges in America and by private individuals who are interested in the opportunities for research work. This association also gives from time to time $1,000 as a prize for the best piece of original work done by a woman in science. Last year this prize was won by Miss Florence Sabin, '91, graduate of Smith, and of Johns Hopkins Medical School, for her researches in regard to the origin of the system of lymphatics.

On Saturday morning, the Association met to award the fellowship, and after the meeting they were entertained at luncheon by President and Mrs. Taylor.

ENGLISH 9 DEBATE.

On Wednesday, April 27, at 3:30 in room 310, there will be a debate in the English 9 Course. The subject is: Resolved, that Great Britain should adopt Mr. Chamberlain's tariff policy. Those who are to take part are: Edith Handy and Mary Frothingham on the affirmative side; Mary Harriman and Charlotte Morgan on the negative.

1905 NEWS.
