The Bulletin of the Associate Alumnae of Barnard College

PUBLISHED BY THE ASSOCIATE ALUMNAE
NEW YORK CITY

Well, did I hear you say the A. A. of B. C. never did anything? What do you think now? Are you curious as to how this pamphlet could be issued (at about $150 all told)? Yes, your dues and mine, that's all. There are about 1,100 members you know. But unless you induce all your best friends to pay up there will be no BULLETIN in June!

BARNARD REPRESENTATIVE ON COMMITTEE TO ASSIST NEW YORK COLLEGE SETTLEMENT

Adaline C. Wheelock, '97

BARNARD REPRESENTATIVE ON THE A. C. A. COM- MITTEE FOR THE WASHINGTON CLUB HOUSE

Sarah S. Butler, '15

NOTICES OF TEAS

The Alumnae are cordially and earnestly invited to the college teas every Wednesday afternoon from four to six in the College Parlor, Students' Hall, and to the teas on the first and third Tuesdays from four to five-thirty at the Alumnae Coöperative Dormitory, 606 West 116th Street.

ALUMNAE DAY

As the Bulletin goes to press there is room for only a brief report. The undergraduates greeted the alumnae by singing on the steps of Students Hall. The alumnae gathering met in the Gymnasium. Dean Gildersleeve presided. Mrs. Achilles spoke of the campaign for $500,000 to increase the endowment of the College. Mrs. George Haven Putnam told of "Early Days at Barnard". Mr. John Drinkwater spoke on "An English Dramatist's View of Lincoln".

A gift from Mrs. Helen Hartley Jenkins and Grace Hartley Jenkins in memory of Helen Hartley Jenkins Geer was announced. A gateway to Students Hall is to be given.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON OF THE ASSOCIATE ALUMNAE OF BARNARD COLLEGE

The annual luncheon of the Associate Alumnae of Barnard College was held Saturday, January 3rd, 1920, in Students Hall, Barnard College.

The President of the Association, Mrs. Paul S. Achilles (Edith Mulhall, '14) presided, and speeches were made by Madame Yvette Guilbert and Miss Virginia C. Gildersleeve, Dean of Barnard College. Other guests at the speakers' table were Mrs. Annie Nathan Meyer, Provost and Mrs. William T. Brewster, and Mrs. Alfred Hess. The chairman of the Reunion Committee in charge of the luncheon was Miss Estelle O'Brien, '16.

SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of the Associate Alumnae of Barnard College was held January 3, 1920 at 12:30 in the Gymnasium of Students Hall. Two amendments were presented and voted upon. The first one changing the time of the annual meeting to a Tuesday evening in October was not accepted. The second amendment, (Article IX, Section 1a) raising the annual dues of active members to two dollars was passed.

It was moved that the annual meeting in 1920 be held at 2 p.m. on the last Saturday in October—i.e., on Oct. 30, 1920.

CONCERNING COLLEGE SETTLEMENT CONTRIBUTIONS

The Barnard representative on the college woman's committee of the College Settlement reports with great pleasure that, thanks to the generous coöperation of the Alumnae, Barnard again went "over the top" in November and subscribed $207.50 for the work of the Settlement that year. Twelve colleges coöperated on the committee and raised about $1400.00.

Adaline C. Wheelock,
Barnard representative.

The Intercollegiate Alumnae Athletic Association announce that classes in riding are now forming. Those interested should address Miss Jean Earl Mochle, 490 Riverside Drive.

BARNARD COLLEGE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY ENDOWMENT FUND

Barnard College is asking for $500,000 to complete its Twenty-fifth Anniversary million dollar endowment fund, and provide for some of its most pressing needs. It must have this endowment in order to pay more adequate salaries to its teaching staff.

The College appeals to the people of New York City for aid on the ground that its graduates are of very great value to the community. During the War the Barnard alumnae served the nation in more than two hundred and sixty varieties of organizations, government departments, and types of work. In time of peace these trained women are no less necessary to the city and the country at large. They serve as teachers in our schools, as physicians, as research scientists in laboratories, as business women, as social workers, as public spirited and intelligent citizens.

The College has graduated 2094 women. The total enrollment of students at present is 801. The number of officers of various grades giving instruction in Barnard College is 95, of whom 60 give full time and 35 part time.

The total endowment of the College, including amounts due but not yet paid from the Carpentier and Sage estates, is about $3,700,000. This is, however, subject to annuities of $12,700.

For some years the salary schedule has been as follows:

Assistants, $600
Instructors, $1,200 to $1,600, with a few receiving a higher figure Assistant Professors, $2,000 and upward
Associate Professors, $3,000 and upward
Professors, no fixed amounts. They have ranged from $4,000 to $6,000, with the majority receiving $5,000

It is now proposed to attempt to put into effect a new salary schedule, which, although not rigidly fixed, will be in general as follows:

Assistants, $1,000 to $1,200
Instructors, $2,000 to $2,400
Assistant Professors, $3,000 to $3,600
Associate Professors, $4,500 to $5,000
Professors, $6,000 to $8,000, and some higher

In order to pay these new rates, which are certainly very moderate in view of the cost of living in New York City, it will be necessary not only to increase the tuition fee from $200 to $250 a year, but also to add to our resources by completing the million dollar endowment fund which the College began to raise several years ago in commemoration of its Twenty-fifth Anniversary.

Towards this million dollars the General Education Board pledged $200,000, on condition that the entire sum be completed and the College freed from debt. To meet these conditions and to provide for some immediate needs $500,000 is now required. The raising of this sum will result in the payment of about $300,000 provisionally pledged, the wiping out of the accumulated indebtedness, and altogether an increase of about $40,000 in the annual income of the College.

In future years Barnard will of course require additional endowment for its expanding needs, and additional buildings to house its students. In the present emergency, however, this sum of $500,000 will be of immense help in meeting pressing difficulties and enabling the College to continue effectively its service to the city and the nation.

MORE DORMITORIES FOR WOMEN

Columbia University has recently purchased three of the apartment houses on the west side of Claremont Avenue, opposite the Barnard campus, to be used as dormitories. Eventually, the Eton and the Rugby will be used by the women of the University outside of Barnard and Teachers College—that is, the women students in the Graduate Faculties, the professional schools and the Department of Extension Teaching. For the next two years, however, until through the expiration of existing leases all the apartments become available, it is probable that these women will continue to live at Furnald, as they have for the last two years, and that the men graduate and professional students will use the rooms available in the new houses. The third building, the Campus, which is to be renamed the Harrow, will be used by Barnard students. This coming winter we shall have such apartments as are to be vacated by the present tenants. Our Coöperative Dormitory will probably be moved to it, and it will be possible for us to accommodate there the Barnard students who have been living at Furnald Hall, in our temporary quarters at the Flying Fame, and in various other houses in the neighborhood. A resident director will be in charge of the hall, and a trained nurse will live there. Meals will be served under a special arrangement in Students Hall.

REPORT OF THE WAR SERVICE COMMITTEE

The War Service Committee beg to report that they sent across to France two Barnard Alumnae Units, one for Red Cross Relief Work with the Repatriates and one for Y. M. C. A. Canteen work with the American Expeditionary Forces. There were nine in the Red Cross Unit and ten in the Y. M. C. A. Unit. The money to finance these units was raised as follows: $20,000. through the Alumnae and their friends for the Y. M. C. A. Unit and $60,000. for two Red Cross Units through the Red Cross Drive. The War Service Committee managed the equipment of these Units but the Y. M. C. A. and the Red Cross handled all further disbursements to them. The detailed Treasurer's Account is attached to this report. On account of the Armistice the second Red Cross Unit was not sent so the $40,000. which was given for the second unit was transferred early in July, 1919 by the Red Cross to the four members of our first Unit who are still at Marcoing-sur-Nord, France.

The account in brief of the work of our Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross Units is as follows:

Agen, chief city of Lot-et-Garonne, American Red Cross Delegate for entire Department and working mainly in civilian relief work with the refugees. 2. On detached service from Red Cross. Hostess with two other women at Officer's Club in Embarkation Center at Le Mans under Mrs. Sharp, wife of the American Ambassador at Paris, and General Glenn of the Embarkation Camp. Loaned by Red Cross and went officially out of uniform but under army orders. Aim was to give men of these clubs a normal home atmosphere. Hostess at Senior Officer's Club where General Pershing was entertained several times and the French Chateau people exchanged hospitalities with the Club.
3. Helen Davies, '16—Assignments
Sailed November 23, 1918 and still abroad. Paris Red Cross Headquarters working in the Home Service Department for several months. June, went to Geneva to work in a sort of Red Cross Press Clipping Bureau and from latest accounts was still there.

4. Edith Balmford, '13, Mildred Hodges, '12, Leslie Gardiner, '07 and Eugenia Ingerman, '11, M.D., all sailed together on August 17, 1918. Mildred Hodges returned September 14, 1919 and the other three are still in France. Leslie Gardiner acted as Head of our whole Red Cross Unit. From September to the end of December, 1918, they were established at Bordeaux doing relief work, running a shop and Dr. Ingerman working in a dispensary. Their first assignment was a sanitary survey of Bordeaux. During their stay at Bordeaux they occupied a little white house where they kept house together. At the end of January, 1919, all the Red Cross workers having been asked to resign and re-enlist under the French Government, our "Quartet" established a Barnard Unit at Marcoing-sur-Nord near Cambrai with the privilege of drawing on the Red Cross Warehouse for supplies. Here they opened a shop and have purveyed for months the refugees of the neighborhood with all necessary supplies and Dr. Ingerman has practiced among the civil population. When the second $40,000. was transferred to them in July, 1919, they also opened a shop in Metz en Coture, a village near Marcoing and so extended their usefulness. Dr. Ingerman is engaged to be married to Lieut. Nicols of the British Army stationed at Cambrai. When Mildred Hodges left Marcoing Jessie Nottingham, '10, took her place early in August, 1919. Jessie Nottingham's previous assignments were at St. Nazaire and Bordeaux in canteen work from the time she arrived in France where she joined the Marcoing Group.
5. Margaret Peck, '14—Assignments with Georgia Cerow Sailed Aug. 7, 1918 and still abroad. Mende (Lozere) Department of General Relief American Red Cross Refugee Delegate for the Lozere. Dec. 22, 1918-Jan. 7, 1919. Hospital Hut American Convalescent Hospital, Hyeres (Var). End of January, 1919, loaned to French Red Cross Committee at St. Quentin for relief work. June 2, 1919 married Lieut. Rene Mascret, Civil Engineer at St. Quentin, where she is now settled in her own home. Aug. 1, 1919 stopped working with the Red Cross as all personnel in Department were then called in. Plans to begin relief work again this Winter.

The former Chairman of the Personnel Work of our War Service Committee, Virginia Newcomb, '00, sailed for France early in December, 1918, and was made Regional Director of the Y. M. C. A. of the section of Bordeaux where she remained until July, 1919. On July 6, 1919 she took charge of the women's personnel at St. Malo and early in August she went to Coblenz where she has charge of all women "Y" workers in the A. E. F. in Germany.

At the time of the Armistice a second Red Cross Barnard Unit was being selected, six of whom then transferred to the "Y" and sailed for France before February, 1919. The names of these six are as follows: Anne Brown, '14; Dorothy Herod, '14; Anne Reiley, '05; Ruth Salom, '16; Dorothy Skinker, '15; Ethel Webb, '13.

These six went to France as Barnard representatives but they were financed by the "Y" and not by the Barnard Alumnae. The War Service Committee, however, distributed $600.00 among those girls who did not have the Emergency money required by the Y. M. C. A.

All representatives of Barnard wore the Barnard insignia on their uniforms and many of the Unit members have testified that the insignia meant much to them.

The Committee are much gratified with the splendid record which each member of the Unit has made for herself in the service of her Country and think that the Alumnae Association, encouraged by the result of their efforts in sending these Units abroad, should be stimulated to combine in other projects.

Respectfully submitted,

Sara Straus Hess, Chairman.

Mabel Parsons, Chairman, Personnel Committee.

Sarah S. Butler, Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE ALUMNAE COOPERATIVE DORMITORY COMMITTEE

The Alumnae Coöperative Dormitory Committee are pleased to report that during the past year, October 1, 1918—October 1, 1919, the Dormitory has covered all expenses including the salary of a Director for which the Trustees made themselves responsible. The detailed Treasurer's account is attached to this report. Rooms were rented to the Summer School students and also to the Eastern State Entrance Board Readers which helped towards the payment of the rent.

During the past year there have been 43 girls in the Dormitory. Mrs. Blanche Faithful was the successful Director during the first part of the year until she sailed for France to join her husband, Captain Faithful of the British Army. During the last half of the year Miss Helen Abbott was Director. She is a Vassar graduate and has been extremely successful with the girls. We are particularly pleased to report that she is heading the Dormitory again this year as Mrs. Florence Lowther, is on a leave of absence from the college and we are missing her valuable aid as Chairman of our Committee.

The Dormitory has 43 girls this year as follows: New Jersey, 10; Vermont, 1; Massachusetts, 1; Connecticut, 1; Pennsylvania, 1; Maryland, 2; South Carolina, 3; Georgia, 3; Nebraska, 1.

Eighteen of the students are scholarship girls. The Dormitory is being run on the same coöperative plan as in former years and the girls seem very happy.

After the first week in November every Tuesday afternoon, tea is to be served by Miss Abbott and the students and it is hoped that the Alumnæ will come any Tuesday afternoon after four o'clock and see the Dormitory life for themselves.

The future development of the Dormitory has yet to be solved. It will be impossible to remain in the present building after our lease expires next fall. The agents have already given notice to that effect as they desire to sell the building and would like to sell it to Barnard. Last Spring the Committee presented a scheme of enlargement but the College authorities deemed it not wise to buy the present building. The question now is where they shall move next Fall. A building arranged on the small apartment plan with a central kitchen is most to be desired for the Coöperative Dormitory scheme.

After a three years' trial the Committee has now proved that a dormitory of this kind can be self-supporting. They feel that they have established a place of residence which not only meets the needs of students of moderate means but cultivates a sense of social responsibility. Each girl is required to contribute only one half hour a day for housework and none of the Students find this work a burden.

The Committee cordially invite all the Alumnae to visit the Dormitory any Tuesday afternoon after the first week in November so that they may see for themselves what a charming atmosphere of home and what a splendid spirit of coöperation there prevails.

Respectfully submitted,
Mabel Parsons,
Chairman.

Against the above balance there are bills payable amounting to $336.54, and other bills not yet received which are estimated at a little less than $100.00. It is likely, therefore, that there will be a small balance (about $50.00) for the replenishment of the equipment.

REPORT OF THE CAMP UPTON ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE

In January, 1918, an appeal was made to the Associate Alumnae of Barnard College to co-operate with a committee representing six other colleges in providing entertainments on Saturday afternoon for the soldiers who were training at Camp Upton.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Barnard Alumnae, a motion was made and carried that a chairman be appointed to arrange an entertainment one Saturday a month at Camp Upton. An appropriation of seventy-five dollars was made to provide for the expenses of transportation and refreshments.

On Saturday, February 2d, 1918 a party of ten representing the Barnard Entertainment Committee went to Camp Upton and gave a short program followed by refreshments, in one of the attractive Y. M. C. A. huts. The entertainment consisted of monologues, songs, dances and music furnished by the Junior League Band.

The cakes and hot chocolate which we served were greeted with loud cheers as more than a thousand soldiers filed by us to receive their portions. The applause which attended every number on the program and the hearty thanks and expressions of appreciation from every soldier who had enjoyed our hospitality made us feel that our efforts were more than justified.

On March 15th, 1918 a second entertainment was given at Camp Upton. On this occasion a kind member of the Alumnae Association obtained the entire program and provided the transportation. The soldiers were entertained by an opera singer, a well known actress and comedienne and a well known singer and composer. Our program was highly complimented by the camp authorities, who witnessed it, and we were asked to repeat it in one of the other huts.

It had been planned to give an entertainment every Saturday until June at Camp Upton but the military authorities deemed it wiser to have open air recreations for the soldiers during the spring months. Our committee was asked to equip one hut with baseball outfit.

At a spring meeting of the Board of Directors, a motion was made and carried to spend fifty dollars on a baseball outfit for Y. M. C. A. Hut 34. This gift was deeply appreciated and no doubt it accomplished as much as our entertainments in brightening the monotony of camp life and cheering the soldiers on the eve of their departure for France.

During the fall months, the confused conditions at Camp Upton rendered it difficult to renew our entertainments. As soon as the camp was adjusted on a demobilization basis, we received a very urgent appeal to return and provide recreation for convalescents and returned soldiers who were chafing under delays in their discharges.

The chairman of the Bryn Mawr Committee, who was likewise chairman of the Intercollegiate Committee, resigned that position and the Barnard chairman was unanimously elected to succeed her. The duties of the chairman of the Intercollegiate Committee was to keep in communication with the camp and make the necessary arrangements and plans for the different colleges who sent entertainments to Camp Upton.

February 1st, 1919, March 15th, 1919 and May 17th, 1919 were the dates on which the Barnard Committee went to Camp Upton. Our entertainments were very successful and more than two thousand soldiers attended them.

The Directors of the Alumnae Association voted a sufficient sum for carrying on our work at Camp Upton. The expenses averaged about twenty-five dollars a trip. They would have been greater were it not for the generous donations of cake which were made by members of the Association.

The difficulty of obtaining volunteer entertainments to go to Camp Upton, and the fact that several of the Colleges had been obliged to dissolve their committees has caused the Chairman to terminate the work of the Intercollegiate Committee for Entertainment at Camp Upton.

In closing her report, the Chairman wishes to quote a few lines from one of the many letters of thanks and appreciation received from Camp Upton. The Secretary of the hut in which we gave our entertainments writes:

"The work of the Barnard Committee in giving entertainments to the soldiers at Camp Upton has been a greater service than you can realize and a wonderful treat for the boys.

"Will you be kind enough to thank your committee and all the ladies who have been so kind and generous to the boys and convey to them my personal appreciation?"

Respectfully submitted,

Estelle F. O'Brien,

Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EMPLOYMENT

The Committee has bent its efforts to keeping informed on vocational matters and to bringing this information before the undergraduates.

On March 6 in coöperation with the undergraduates the Committee held its annual vocational meeting. An informal supper was served at six o'clock to the speakers, undergraduates and members of the Employment Committee. At seven the vocational meeting was held in the college parlor.

The principal speaker was Miss Emma Hirth, present head of the new Bureau of Vocational Information at 3 West 43d Street and formerly head of the information department and at various times manager of the I. B. L. and later manager of the professional division of the United States Employment Service in New York. She gave a brief outline of the more important fields of work open to college women at the present time and told of the preparation to be obtained in College for this work, the outside preparation necessary, and the average remuneration.

Eight of our recent graduates then spoke. Among the fields represented were: advertising, varieties of work in the Museum of Natural History, selling, statistics, vocational guidance in public schools, chemical research, U. S. employment service, psychologist in life insurance company.

The meeting was well attended and the audience seemed most enthusiastic. The faculty, directors of the Associate Alumnae as well as the undergraduates were invited.

All the appointment work of this Committee has been done by the College Secretary, Miss Doty, who reports:

Appointment Work of Committee on Employment Associate Alumnae of Barnard College October 16, 1918—October 15, 1919.

Applications from employers made to the Committee and placements resulting, so far as reported, have been as follows:

Estimate of Earnings Represented.... $101,844 $139,446

Our last report was made a few weeks before the armistice. It is therefore probably natural that the number of calls should have decreased since the war emergency is over. The applications show a decrease of 9.2% since 1917-18 but an encouraging increase of 23.4% since 1916-17. The total placements show a decrease in comparison with the figures of the last two war years. But the placements in permanent positions, while fewer than they were last year, are more by 11% than they were in 1916-17. Probably a large part of the decrease in placements is due to the fact that students who made a special effort to be of service by taking positions during the war have now returned to their normal habits.

The only women workers who seem to be in as much demand as they were a year ago are the teachers, the secretary-stenographers, and the student mother's helpers. The decrease has been greatest in those fields in which there was the most marked increase last year and the year before—that is, in science, especially industrial chemistry, and in mathematical office work. We still have, however, about enough mathematical calls to take care of our candidates and some calls for laboratory assistants. The demand for responsible employment managers has also dropped. One of the most difficult types of candidate to place properly has been the graduate of a year or two ago who has been doing more or less executive work with a war organization and to whom the positions now available seem rather flat. There are not nearly so many openings as there were for office workers without stenography, but an unlimited number of calls for stenographers.

On the whole, salaries seem to have dropped a little, although not noticeably. The earnings represented by this year's appointments, as nearly as we can estimate, have decreased a little more than the number of placements. Among the members of the class of 1919 placed through this office, the lowest salary is $780 and the highest—earned by three people—$1300.

The least successful part of the appointment office's work is probably the filling of the occasional highly-paid positions which come our way. We wish that more of the older alumnae would leave their names with us, in case something worth their while should turn up.

Respectfully submitted,
Agnes L. Dickson, Chairman.
