

Vol. XI, No. 2

APRIL, 1922

The Bulletin
of the Associate Alumnae of
Barnard College

PUBLISHED BY THE ASSOCIATE ALUMNAE
NEW YORK CITY

OFFICERS OF THE ASSOCIATE ALUMNAE

1921-22

President	Ruth Guernsey, '14
Vice-President and Chairman of Finance Committee	Sarah Butler, '15
Vice-President and Chairman of Reunion Committee	Amy Jennings, '20
Secretary	Estelle O'Brien, '16
Treasurer	Christine McKim Gillespie (Mrs. James), '01
	Mabel Parsons, '95
	Marjorie Jacobi McAneny (Mrs. George), '99
	Hilda Newborg Strauss (Mrs. Israel), '00
	Harriet Burton Laidlaw (Mrs. James Lees), '02
	Florence Gordon, '07
	Margaret Yates, '08
	Eleanor Gay Van de Water, (Mrs. Frederick, Jr.), '09
	Edith Mulhall Achilles (Mrs. Paul), '14
	Beatrice Lowndes Earle (Mrs. Edward), '17
	Mildred Blout, '18
	Gertrude Geer, '19
	Helen Jones, '21
Alumnae Trustee	Sarah Straus Hess (Mrs. Alfred), '00

OTHER OFFICERS

Assistant Treasurer and Chairman of Membership Committee	Theodora Baldwin, '00
Clerk	Elsa Mehler, '12
Executive Secretary	Anna Reiley, '05

ALUMNAE COUNCIL

Chairman	Ellinor Reiley Endicott (Mrs. George), '00
----------------	--

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Chairman	First Vice-President
----------------	----------------------

MEMBERSHIP AND STATISTICS COMMITTEE

Chairman	Assistant Treasurer
----------------	---------------------

STUDENTS AID COMMITTEE

Chairman	Mabel Parsons, '95
----------------	--------------------

REUNION COMMITTEE

Chairman	Second Vice-President
----------------	-----------------------

BY-LAWS AND LEGISLATION COMMITTEE

Chairman	Edith Striker, '99
----------------	--------------------

BOARD OF EDITORS OF ALUMNAE BULLETIN

Editor-in-Chief	Sophie Woodman, '07
-----------------------	---------------------

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Chairman	Adaline Wheelock, '97
----------------	-----------------------

JOHN JAY AND BROOKS HALL ALUMNAE COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Chairman	Mabel Parsons, '95
----------------	--------------------

ALUMNAE DAY COMMITTEE

Chairman	Dorothy Herod, '14
----------------	--------------------

BARNARD REPRESENTATIVE ON COMMITTEE TO ASSIST NEW YORK COLLEGE SETTLEMENT

Adaline Wheelock, '97

A. A. U. W. COUNCILLOR

Marjorie Jacobi McAneny (Mrs. George), '99

ALUMNAE FUND COMMITTEE

Chairman	Hilda Newborg Strauss (Mrs. Israel), '00
----------------	--

ASSOCIATE ALUMNAE
OF
BARNARD COLLEGE
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

May 1, 1922

The Bulletin is two weeks late owing to a fire in the establishment of Mr. Bartram, the printer. The Editors express their thanks to him for his interest in the Bulletin during this trying time.

TIFFANY & Co.

JEWELRY AND SILVERWARE

NOTED FOR DESIGN
QUALITY AND WORKMANSHIP

MAIL INQUIRIES GIVEN PROMPT ATTENTION

FIFTH AVENUE & 37TH STREET
NEW YORK

THE BULLETIN

Of the Associate Alumnae

VOLUME XI.

APRIL, 1922

NUMBER 2

SOPHIE P. WOODMAN, Editor-in-Chief

MARGARET N. MEYER, Business Manager

EDITH MULHALL ACHILLES

EDITH A. DIETZ

JOSEPHINE S. PRATT

ANNIE S. VAN BUSKIRK

LILLIAN S. WALTON

ANNA C. REILEY, ex-officio

THE NEED OF RECEPTION ROOMS

We who remember the little brown reception room at the entrance of Milbank Hall miss it. Where in all Barnard can one wait for a friend and yet not feel that one is intruding? There are no more class studies, nor undergrad studies in Milbank, Fiske or Brinckerhoff Halls. "The hall" is the only place where one may linger—there one can find a few benches and stiff chairs. We are told that the college is crowded for lack of space for offices. Even in our newest building, Students Hall, those in power during Dean Gildersleeve's absence, turned Little Parlor, which had been furnished by one of the alumnae classes, into an office. Dean Gildersleeve has assured the alumnae that it will be restored as soon as possible. The Dean's long illness has delayed the return of the gray and pink furniture so that in Students Hall, we, too, must sit on benches in the hall. The benches are more attractive than those in Milbank and recently they have acquired upholstered seats!

The little brown room known to all as the "Reception Room" with its half-worn furniture served a purpose for Milbank, Fiske and Brinckerhoff Halls—the Little Parlor was a room of charm and comfort welcoming us to Students Hall. May the restoration of both these rooms soon be accomplished!

COLLEGE RETRENCHMENT

As the Bulletin goes to print we hear of many changes contemplated in the college next year. The cause, we are told, is due to the financial condition of the college. Barnard needs increased endowment to keep up the work it is doing. We sympathize with those whose task it is to run the college on a limited income; we appreciate the desirability of the budget system. We do, however, regret that living conditions in Brooks Hall must be changed. We dislike the idea of the girls living there being obliged to eat in another building. Editorially this Bulletin has already expressed the view, which it repeats, that through the abolition of the Brooks Hall dining room, we have lost something which can not be replaced by dollars and cents.

SEX DISCRIMINATION

Everyone who has studied on Morningside Heights knows the little red building on the corner of 116 Street and Broadway—the Faculty Club. This building soon must go. Provision has been made by the erection of a new building on 117 Street and Morningside Drive adjoining the President's residence for a home for the club.

For years the women of the faculties of Columbia have not been eligible to the Faculty Club of Columbia University. "The quarters are too small" or some such excuse was offered. Rather than admit the women, the club has recently changed its name to Men's Faculty Club! The women of the Barnard College faculty will not be admitted to this club house built on university property. If there are advantages in having a club house on the campus where the teaching staff may meet socially, and we grant there are, are there not disadvantages in limiting membership to one group of that teaching staff?

We believe that the women on the Barnard faculty should have the same rights in the University as the men.

THE ALUMNÆ FUND

Nearly one year has elapsed since the Alumnæ Fund was officially established. The results to date are perhaps not spectacular. As compared with those attained by other colleges they might at the first glance appear discouraging. But they are not.

We must remember above all that among many college alumnæ bodies the raising and investing of an alumnæ fund has become an established fact. For the Barnard Associate Alumnæ it is still a new idea. We wish, therefore to extend an expression of hearty thanks to those alumnæ who have already supported the Fund by contributions and pledges. The promptness of their interest and their understanding of the new need of the association has been by no means lightly appreciated.

It will take time to arouse and spread among the alumnæ, an active interest in the Fund. Efforts have been made by letter and pamphlet to scatter information broadcast among the members of the association. We have tried to crystallize the idea of placing the Fund for discussion before the meeting of the Association of Class Presidents and Secretaries. It was hoped that by using the medium of the class group, the matter could be brought into closer personal contact with the individual. We should have splendid results when the classes have become aware of the urgency of the situation.

The need of the Alumnae Fund cannot be too emphatically stated. Until we are able to raise one, our association will be running on the same financial basis—the income from dues alone—that was deemed sufficient a quarter of a century ago. Some twenty years back, the Associate Alumnae of Barnard College was a small intimate group. Today it is an organization of between fourteen and fifteen hundred members. It can no longer function in a small and compact way.

Each year new classes will add their percentage of new members. It is, therefore, a growing organization with a correspondingly expanding program.

It calls for the attention of a full-time executive secretary. Its wider scope of activity should find outlet in a quarterly publication. Its influence should be extended to the organization of clubs in other cities.

These needs cannot be met on an annual income from $2.00 dues. There should be some other sort of revenue. This can be supplied if we can successfully raise a fund, sufficiently large so that it may be invested yearly to help defray the running expenses of the association.

To amass such a fund it will be necessary to have the wholehearted support of each alumna. There is an urgent need for small contributions as well as large ones.

A group of Founders would give the Fund its much needed impetus; their subscriptions would provide a nucleus for immediate investment. It may be well to repeat that anyone who gives $100 in any one year and not less than $10 for four years may become a Founder. A block of such subscriptions would make a good foundation upon which to build with the smaller ones.

SPECIAL HONORS COURSE AT SMITH AND BARNARD

(This article is written at the request of many Barnard alumnae who are very much interested in this course.)

In the January issue of "What the Colleges Are Doing" (Ginn & Co.) there appeared an interesting notice of the Special Honors Course which Barnard started last year and also a paragraph on the honor group scheme that Smith College has just started and which resembles the Barnard plan very closely.

In both colleges the aim is identical, that of affording the exceptionally equipped student an opportunity to specialize along the line of work for which she is best adapted. Both colleges also place each one of these students under the personal supervision of the department in which her work is to be done, giving that department power to relieve the student of the necessity of attending recitations and taking examinations as the department sees fit. At the end of the senior year the students are examined in what might be called a "comprehensive examination" on the subject in which they may have elected to specialize but which might better be compared to the type of examination taken for a Ph. D. which is on the range of the subject rather than on the content of courses.

Barnard and Smith differ in the method of selecting their groups. At Smith any student at the end of her sophomore year with "an average of B or better" may make application to join the honor group. If this application be approved by the committee in charge and the department under which the student wishes to study, she is permitted to join the honor group.

At Barnard a student may qualify for this group, in rare cases, through excellence in entrance examinations. She may also be nominated for this group at the end of her freshman year by the department under which she would elect to study. At Barnard, however, she must pass a qualifying examination the following September before she is permitted to join the honor group.

It must not be thought that the only subjects that these students study are those of the department in which they specialize. This is not the case. Certain subjects are required of all candidates, notably a fluent knowledge of French and German, and the candidate is permitted to add other subjects to her program with the permission of the department that is supervising her work.

It would seem that the guidance of these students must put an enormous amount of work on the different departments in which they are studying. We should think that the prayer of the faculty might well be "deliver us from geniuses."

Knowing the interest of the alumnae in this subject we are printing the list of the students who are now taking the Special Honors Course at Barnard.

BOTANY	Nelly Jacob
CLASSICS	Dorothy Scholze
ECONOMICS	Marie Bloomfield
	Anna Lincoln
ENGLISH	Margaret Trusler
	Marguerite Loud
ENGLISH AND HISTORY	Helen Matzke

	Phyllis Haig
FRENCH	Valentine Janicke
	Lois Strong
MATHEMATICS	Helen Ginsberg
PHYSICS	Katherine Shea
PSYCHOLOGY	Georgene Hoffman

ANNUAL LUNCHEON

The annual luncheon held on January 28 brought out 170 alumnæ and guests in the teeth of a blinding snow storm to a temperature in the gymnasium well below the sociability point. The little tea tables decorated with flowers and the chairs grouped around them—several contemporaneous classes together—looked very nice. The committee are to be congratulated on the daintiness of the preparations; it was not their fault that the room was so abominably cold. Mrs. Jameson's wizardry in serving food hot was a matter of general comment.

The speaker of the occasion was to have been Dr. Wellington Koo, chairman of the Chinese Delegation to the Arms Conference and Columbia, '09. Since he was detained in Washington, Dr. Tsao, Secretary General to the Delegation, a Yale graduate, gave a sincere and very worth-while talk on China and her relation to the Conference. He dwelt especially on the great influence for good in China which has been exercised by American men and institutions of learning. Out of courtesy, Dr. Tsao removed his overcoat while speaking and it is hoped he did not take cold.

It seems too bad that with such an efficient committee and over a thousand alumnæ in or near the city, less than 200 came out to a mid-winter social gathering. Would the alumnæ prefer a down town hotel—a luncheon or a dinner?

ALUMNÆ DAY, 1922

The tradition surrounding Alumnæ Day at Barnard is rather a young thing yet, but it is growing and flourishing in the way it should go, and this year it seemed healthy and "established" as a tradition should be.

For instance, Alumnæ Day at Barnard should be on Lincoln's Birthday, as it has been throughout the university for many years, and this year it was, (February 13, if one must be literal). Then on Alumnæ Day the alumnæ should come back and be collegiate for the day, go to classes, eat lunch in the Barnard cafeteria, and mingle with the undergraduates. On this point we have no statistics, but the lecture rooms were open to alumnae visitors, and the ordinary college life was in normal progress for any alumna curious to try it. The alumnae seem still a bit shy of the lecture and lunch rooms. But the tea, which took place in the College Parlor from four to six, gave every opportunity that could be desired for the undergraduates and alumnae to get together. They all like tea. It was very well attended, alumnae from the whole range of classes were there, and many undergraduates, and all were beautifully taken care of by a committee of hostesses, composed of seniors and alumnae.

There were two special features of the day, one dramatic and the other athletic. The New York Barnard Club gave a play, in which many of the dramatic stars of former college plays took part. The play was "Helena's Husband," very amusing in itself, and acted as it was by an all-star cast, in which appeared such names as Straiton, Lowther and Levi, it proved a great drawing card and a big hit. Later in the afternoon there was a basketball game between the undergraduates and an alumnae team, captained by Lil Schoedler. We think the undergraduates won, but the game was thrilling and the alumnae came in second.

Alumnae Day is one of the pleasantest things we have at Barnard. The idea underlying it is a happy one, to bring undergraduates and alumnae closer together—to make the alumnae feel at home at college—and so the interested co-operation which it met with in the undergraduates and the evidences of response and enjoyment from the alumnae gave the committee a reassuring feeling that perhaps they and the others who helped form the plans for Alumnae Day this year were able to put the idea across with some success.

VOCATIONAL CONFERENCE

The Vocational Advisory Committee which has succeeded the Employment Committee of the Associate Alumnae held a conference for the undergraduates on Thursday evening, February 16 in the College Parlor. Each speaker was given eight minutes in which to outline the work that she was doing. Miss Hilborn, chairman of the committee, presided. Great praise is due to her and to Miss Doty and Miss Kerner of the college office and to Miss Cohn, the undergraduate representative for the good selection of topics and speakers.

Mrs. Endicott, '00, head of the English department of the Veltin School, opened the conference with an excellent survey of the teaching field, especially in the private schools. She told about the Private School Teachers Association founded by Barnard women, of which Mrs. Endicott was the first president, which was attempting to standardize salaries, create pension funds, and which was conducting an employment bureau. Among the rewards of teaching Mrs. Endicott mentioned summer vacations and holidays, small classes, the safety to be secured by pension funds, the comparative ease in returning to the profession after an absence of years, the opportunity for study and travel. Miss Carita Crosby, '10, of the National City Company, described bond selling and Miss Helen Carroll, '21, of the National City Bank, described the varied duties of one in charge of the ladies' department of a bank. Miss Elizabeth Allen, '08, outlined the study and training needed for Psychiatric Research. Miss Margaret Kelly, '13, spoke in behalf of research laboratory workers—the need for those who loved their work for long hours and low salaries prevailed. Miss Marion Travis, '20, urged those planning to enter the library field to take at least the elementary courses in the sciences in order to be familiar with the terminology of the sciences. Miss Sally Pero, '13, who is with the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, showed how those specializing in mathematics could use calculus and theory of equations in commercial positions. Miss Corrine Reinheimer, '14, described the great diversity of products that the copy writer must "sell" when writing advertisements for an advertising agency. Mrs. Edith Mulhall Achilles, '14, in the absence of Miss Leila Martin, outlined the requirements for a clinical psychologist, urging those who intend to enter the field to do graduate work toward the Ph. D. degree and to avail themselves of opportunities to volunteer in mental clinics for experience in mental testing. With the Ph. D. degree or its equivalent and two years' experience in giving mental tests, one may qualify as certified psychologist in New York State. Mrs. Freda Kirchwey Clark, '15, discussed editorial work and reporting. She emphasized the need of being able to read with ease French, German, and other modern languages. She urged the undergraduates who want to enter the field to take literature courses. A branch of reporting which she considers promising is that pertaining to labor problems, a foundation for this being the courses offered in labor problems.

The audience was a large one, especially for such a cold winter night. The array of occupations described by the alumnae showed again the many activities in which Barnard women are engaged. The alumnae were glad to welcome Miss Weeks and Miss Abbott, the heads of Brooks and John Jay Halls, respectively. Invitations had been sent to all members of the faculty through the heads of each department and it was greatly regretted that no other members were present.

OUR SECOND ALUMNÆ TRUSTEE

Mrs. George V. Mullan is one of the busiest women in New York, as anyone who has tried to get in touch with her will testify. From her college years when she got up in the night to play the violin because the days were too busy, she has been interested in all sorts of educational, philanthropic and civic affairs. After graduating from Barnard with honors, Mrs. Mullan entered New York University Law School on a competitive scholarship and finished her course by winning a prize over the heads of more than a hundred men competitors. She practiced law for some time, and during the war substituted for a prominent lawyer who was doing duty in Washington, successfully conducting one of the large law offices of the city. Her civic activities comprise membership on the Advisory Board of Mayor Mitchell's Market Committee, on the Bronx Liberty Loan Committee and the Bronx Council of Girl Scouts. She has been secretary and chairman of district school boards in New York City, and from 1915 to 1918 was a member of the Board of Education, serving as chairman of its Building and Sites Committee. Her services to the alumnae association are well known. She has been vice-president, treasurer and president of the Associate Alumnae as well as chairman of the Alumnae Council and member of the Charter and By-Laws Revision Committee and the Faculty Committee on Student Organizations. The association is to be congratulated on the acquisition of a representative on the Board of Trustees whose experience and interests are so wide.

In the death of Mrs. James Talcott on December 14, 1921, one of the founders and original trustees of Barnard College, students and alumnae alike have lost a very good friend. In the early days of the college it was she who provided the funds with which the first home of the college was furnished. Her keen and constant interest was felt in all its activities but especially in those of the Young Women's Christian Association, and it was through her assistance that many a girl was enabled to attend the Silver Bay conferences. A few years ago Mrs. Talcott with her husband gave one hundred thousand dollars to establish the Talcott Foundation for Religious Instruction.

Her broad interests and philanthropy extended beyond the college and we find her to have been one of the founders of the Young Women's Christian Association and a member of the board of directors up to a few years ago. One of her latest gifts was a camp for young boys to the Young Men's Christian Association. This camp is at Port Jervis, New York, and is known as Camp Talcott.

BARNARD'S GRANDDAUGHTERS

Children of Barnard alumnae are beginning to grow up and come to college in larger numbers. While the full tide of alumnae children will not reach Barnard for several years to come, the college records show that "granddaughters" have been registered for the following years: '24, '26, '29, '30, '31, '32, '33, '35, '38.

Some of these future Barnardites may have been seen in the tank in Students Hall on Saturdays mornings in the swimming class for children of alumnae. "Among those present" are the two children of Mrs. George Mullan, alumnae trustee, and a casual observer from the gallery predicts that in a few years Barnard will win swimming meets with even greater ease than now.

Three of the advance guard are already in college now:

Ruth Strauss, (Hilda Newborg Strauss, '00), junior, New York City, chairman Class Endowment Drive, freshman year; chairman, Mt. Ivy Drive, sophomore year; advertising manager, Mortarboard, junior year, New York City.

Dorothy Marvin, (Adelaide Hoffman Marvin, '99), sophomore, New Brunswick, N. J.

Josephine Sperry, (Rosalie Bloomingdale Sperry, '99), freshman, New York City.

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATES

Six eastern colleges for women—Vassar, Wellesley, Radcliffe, Smith, Mt. Holyoke and Barnard—debate with one another each year. This year one triangle debate was held with Barnard, Smith and Vassar and another with Wellesley, Mt. Holyoke and Radcliffe. The six colleges agree upon the same subject and certain rules—this year they even agreed to wear the same costume! The subject was RESOLVED: That the United States should grant immediate independence to the Philippines. The debate took place in all six colleges on the evening of March 18. The Barnard team debating on the negative side went to Smith while the team debating on the affirmative met the Vassar team in the Barnard College Theater. Professor David S. Mussey of the History Department presided and the judges were Justice Philip Cook, a Smith graduate, and an undergraduate from Wellesley. The Barnard affirmative team won by a vote of two to one.

We welcome at Barnard activities such loyal friends and benefactors as Mrs. Willard Straight. Our faithful members of the administration, Miss Weeks of Brooks Hall, Miss Abbott of John Jay Hall, and Miss Myrick, the assistant to the Dean in charge of social activities were present. Our gratitude for their hearty interest in Barnard is mingled with the regret that members of the teaching staff do not frequent such functions oftener. Among the alumnae there was Lillian Schroedler, who led the Barnard singing and made the other alumnae present think of the college days of a decade ago.

BARNARD ENTERTAINS EUROPEAN PROFESSOR

Miss L. P. de Castelvechio, professor at Birmingham University, England and representative of the Italian Federation, is now touring the United States visiting the colleges and universities. She was the guest of Barnard College on Wednesday, March 29. She was present at a small luncheon arranged by Miss Myerick, assistant to the Dean in charge of social affairs, and then was shown points of interest at Columbia University. She was the guest at the regular college tea in the afternoon, where faculty, students and alumnae had the opportunity of meeting her.

"BARNARD COLLEGE DORMITORY DRUG STORE SHOT UP!"

Of course, those who read this heading in the newspaper one morning in March knew, if they were Barnard people, that no Barnard dormitory had a drug store, but to have the cashier in Friedgen's killed was quite near enough. This time-honored institution in Whittier Hall was doing business on Sunday evening when a man entered, ostensibly to have a prescription filled. He attacked the clerk, the cashier ran to the rescue, another man entered from the street and shot the cashier, killing him. This young man was a Columbia student, working his way through college. Two women who sipped chocolate through it all are thought to be decoys. The many Barnard girls who have done business and pleasure in Mr. Friedgen's establishment express their sympathy for him and through him to the murdered man's family. The assassin did not get the cash.

Alumnae will be glad to know that Dean Gildersleeve, who has been recuperating at Lake Placid from her severe illness and operation of last November, sailed on March 21. When one of the editors saw her she was looking much improved but said she must accumulate some stored-up energy before resuming her duties.

The annual convention of the American Association of University Women was held in Kansas City, April 4 to 8.

CONCERNING THE ALUMNÆ FUND

The Alumnae Fund Committee wishes to thank the Founders and other donors whose names appear below. It wishes also to state that it regrets that second appeals were sent to alumnae who subscribed to the Fund last spring. It was necessary to use the Columbia addressograph when mailing appeals for the Fund. The envelopes were sent over packed in boxes of of 500 each and it was not possible to pick out from so many the names of those who had already subscribed.

The committee submits the following statistics for the Alumnae Fund to date:

FOUNDERS OF ALUMNÆ FUND

Mrs. Adam L. Jones (Lily Murray, '05)
Mrs. John White (Luisa Ros, '14)

163 DONORS TO ALUMNÆ FUND

No. donors in class	% of class		Am't. in cash	Am't. pledged
1893
2	28	Estella Demarest
		Eliza Jones	$ 6.00	$ 4.00
1895
4	50	Mabel Parsons
		Mrs. S. G. Stacey.....
		Alice Seligsberg
		Antonie Junge	7.00	35.00
1896
1	5½	Anna Mellick	2.00	10.00
1897
1	4½	Adaline Wheelock	5.00	25.00
1898
3	14¼	Jessie Hughan
		Susanna Myers
		Mrs. E. R. Sperry.....	8.00	15.00
1899
6	29	Agnes Dickson
		Grace Goodale
		Mrs. Ida Llera.....
		Mrs. George McAneny.....
		Edith Striker
		Amelia Wohlfarth	37.00	69.00

No. donors in class	% of class		Am't. in cash	Am't. pledged
		1900
7	20	Theodora Baldwin
		Mrs. George Endicott.....
		Valentine Chandor
		Virginia Newcomb
		Esther Keagey
		Mrs. Israel Strauss.....
		Julia Watkins	$29.00	$160.00
		1901
5	10	Pauline Dederer
		Euphemia Johnson
		Mrs. James Gillespie
		Mrs. Paul Sachs.....
		Sarah Schuyler	39.00	25.00
		1902
6	13	Mrs. John Bates.....
		Mrs. James L. Laidlaw.....
		Susan La Monte.....
		Ada Neiswender
		Mrs. William Fain.....
		Mrs. Karl Young.....	29.00	35.00
		1903
3	6¼	Mrs. Arthur Lehman.....
		Mrs. Thayer McLaren.....
		Mrs. Bernard Naumberg.....	16.00	5.00
		1904
2	2	Mrs. George Falk.....
		Mrs. Egbert Thomas.....	17.00	60.00
		1905
14	17	Mrs. George Bernheim.....
		Mrs. Oswald Brown.....
		Edith Dietz
		Mrs. Frederick Gentleman....
		Edith Handy
		Ethel Hendricks
		Sallie Fletcher
		Mrs. Adam L. Jones.....
		Florence Meyer
		Mrs. Edgar Pretzfeld.....
		Anna C. Reiley.....
		Charlotte Solomon
		Mrs. Simon Weil.....
		Mrs. Frederick Wolff.....	135.00	85.00
		1906
5	6⅞	Elizabeth Bradford
		Mrs. Ulrich Phillips.....
		Mrs. Louis Dublin.....
		Mrs. Hartley Sherwood.....
		Elizabeth Post	13.00	60.00

No. donors in class	% of class		Am't. in cash	Am't. pledged
1907
15	20	Amalie Althaus
		Josephine Brand
		Beatrice Bernkopf
		Mrs. S. R. Dayhoff.....
		Mrs. Philip Dalsimer.....
		Florence Gordon
		Helene Harvitt
		Lucetta Johnson
		Elsa McKee
		Mrs. Eugene Meyer.....
		Louise Odenrantz
		Mrs. Kelsey Posner.....
		Josephine Pratt
		Grace Turnbull
		Sophie Woodman	$41.50	$60.00
1908
6	6	Clairette Armstrong
		Marjorie Eastman
		Mrs. Franklin Grady.....
		Marie Hufeland
		Mrs. I. A. Rosenbaum.....
		Margaret Yates	14.00	265.00
1909
6	6½	Lois Kerr
		Myra McLean
		Mrs. Walter Schloss.....
		Mrs. Leo Wallerstein.....
		Mrs. F. F. Van de Water.....
		Mrs. A. D. Welch.....	27.00	100.00
1910
10	10⅞	Harriet Bishop
		Lilian Egleston
		Mrs. George Friend.....
		Nannette Harlo
		Mrs. Ely Kahn.....
		Mrs. H. P. Molloy.....
		Elizabeth Nitchie
		Grace Reeder
		Mrs. Henry Stetler
		Etta Waite	27.00	98.00
1911
4	4	Mary Polhemus
		Helen Runyon
		Myrtle Shwitzer
		Mrs. A. A. Zucker.....	28.00	10.00
1912
3	2½	Elsa Mehler
		Elizabeth Jones
		Mrs Norman Potter.....	14.00	35.00

No. donors in class	% of class		Am't. in cash	Am't. pledged
1913
6	4½	Edith Barnett
		Mrs. Joseph Blum
		Mrs. Mary Coutant.....
		Harriet Goldman
		Rebecca Goldstein
		Mrs. Lois Levison.....	$27.00	$30.00
1914
12	10	Mrs. Paul Achilles.....
		Mrs. R. R. Allen.....
		Caroline Burgevin
		Dorothy Herod
		Ruth Guernsey
		Florence Harris
		Mrs Harold Lehman.....
		Sarah Sturges
		Jean Moehle
		Mary E. Walker.....
		Mrs. John White
		Mrs. Ira Younker.....	167.00	290.00
1915
18	12½	Linnea Bauhan
		Marion Borden
		Alice Brett
		Sarah Butler
		Mrs. Bennett Epstein
		Mrs. Alfred Jaretski.....
		Henrietta Krinsky
		Margaret N. Meyer.....
		Svea Nelson
		Elizabeth Palmer
		Mildred Fitz Randolph.....
		Dorothy Skinker
		Elise Tobin
		Isabel Totten
		Mrs. William Weiss.....
		Beulah Weldon
		Katherine Williams
		Helen Zagat	74.50	195.00
1916
6	5	Dorothy Hall
		Evelyn Haring
		Ruth McKelvey
		Estelle OBrien
		Mrs. N. L. Tibbets.....
		Mrs. Charles Whitney.....	27.00	60.00
1917
6	3¾	Olive Dunn
		Charlotte Martens
		Ethel Gray
		Mrs. James A. Miller.....
		Mrs. Percy Milburn.....
		Mrs. S. J. Smythe.....	44.00	84.00

No. donors in class	% of class		Am't. in cash	Am't. pledged
1918
7	4¾	Mildred Blout
		Edmere Cabana
		Mrs. Otto Friend.....
		Hedwig Koenig..
		Helen Goldstein
		Mrs. Jacob Stone
		Ethel Mott	$19.00	$59.00

1919
2	1¾	Mrs. Edwin Markham.....
		Eleanor Tournoff	3.00	5.00

1920
3	2	Winifred Bostwick
		Paule More
		Amy Raynor	4.00	15.00

1921
163			$860	$1,899.00

Total amount in cash to date.....	$860.00
Total amount in cash from first appeal.....	312.00
Total amount in cash from second appeal.....	$548.00
Total amount pledges due in May.....	$154.00
Total amount pledges due in June.....	57.00
Total amount pledges due in July.....	11.00
Total amount pledges due in August.....	13.00
Total amount pledges due before Fall.....	$235.00

HONOR ROLL of CLASSES

For amount subscribed		For amount pledged
1st place—1914.....	$169.00	1st place—1914.....	$290.00
2nd place—1905.....	135.00	2nd place—1908.....	265.00
3rd place—1915.....	74.50	3rd place—1915.....	195.00
4th place—1917.....	44.00	4th place—1900.....	160.00

For number of subscribers
1st place—1915.....	18
2nd place—1907.....	15
3rd place—1905.....	14
4th place—1914.....	12

States represented—New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, Mississippi, Maryland, Washington, Texas, Pennsylvania.

Editor's Note—As the Bulletin goes to print, subscriptions to the Fund are coming in on every mail. These will be acknowledged in the next issue.

ONE OF THE ATTRACTIONS OF STUDENTS HALL

SWIMMING CLASS FOR CHILDREN OF ALUMNÆ

Through the co-operation of the Department of Physical Education a swimming class for the children of Barnard alumnae was organized this winter. The fee for this class which met on Saturday mornings was $5.00 for ten lessons.

The class will be organized, if possible, again next winter. Will any Barnard women who wish to enter their children in this class communicate with the Alumnae Secretary, Students Hall? Also please give age and sex of the children.

It is very important that the Alumnae office know how many children might possibly be entered in this class next winter.

ALUMNÆ OFFICE

Room 105 Students Hall

Telephone, Morningside 1400, Ex. 417

Open daily: September 15—June 15

Tuesday evenings: October 1—May 1

Secretary: Nan Reiley, '05.

- If you haven't time to come up to college and arrange that class party. . . .
- If you don't know when to put a class reunion
- If you didn't like something at the last reunion.
- If you wish to suggest something for the next reunion.
- If you have not been getting your mail.
- If you wish to know the address of an alumna
- If you have read something in the paper about Barnard and wish to know whether it is true.
- If you wish to bring your husband to something and don't know whether he would be "let in".
- If you don't remember the name of someone at the last reunion (attendance 1,000) but "could describe her very accurately"
- If you wish to know "what the alumnae are doing".
- etc., etc., etc.

RING UP THE ALUMNÆ OFFICE

That is what the office is for

BENEFIT FOR THE ALUMNÆ FUND
CARDS IN COLLEGE PARLOR, SATURDAY,
APRIL 22,
1914

cordially invite all the alumnæ and their friends to come and join their good time and help swell the Alumnæ Fund.

CARDS AT 2:30; MUSIC AT 5:00; TEA AT 6:00

Subscription $1.25. Address Lillian S. Walton, 83 State Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

BOOKS AND ARTICLES PUBLISHED RECENTLY BY BARNARD WOMEN

Psychological Examinations of College Students—F. EDITH CAROTHERS.
Archives of Psychology No. 46, December 1921. $1.25.

The first chapter is devoted to an historical survey of freshmen tests. In 1896 the first report of the results of mental and physical tests made on freshmen only appeared. It concerned the work done by Professor Cattell and Dr. Farrand on one hundred Columbia University students.

The present investigation was begun by Dr. Carothers in 1915 at Barnard College, about two years before the Army Alpha and the Thorndike Tests were originated, and was carried on during the years 1915-16, 1916-17, the fall of 1917 and the spring of 1919. The aim was first, to establish norms and standards of performance in mental tests for Barnard freshmen, and second, to give students a clear conception of their abilities and aptitudes along various lines. Nineteen tests were selected. Each is carefully described so that the reader who is not a professional psychologist may easily understand the tasks required of each freshman tested. Besides the scores in the psychological tests the university grades and records taken in the gymnasium were added to the information. The college subjects were grouped as 1) language, 2) mathematics, 3) science, 4) philosophy, 5) history. Psychgraphic charts showing a student, her relative rank in the tests, academic grades and physical measurements, are included for several individuals.

The author concludes that the lack of uniformity in standards of grading among instructors, causing skewed distribution curves of marks, the personal equation in marking, the role played by such factors as lack of incentive, interest in outside or college activities, economic pressure, etc., make college marks inadequate measures of the students' ability. There is evidence that the psychological tests give a true estimate of each freshman's mental capacity. To predict her performance in school or in a future vocation both her capacity and such other factors as interest, incentive, will power, environmental conditions, etc., must be considered.

Dr. Carothers has offered tentative suggestions to college administrators who desire to institute a system of student guidance. Her monograph should be of interest to all Barnard women because it is a piece of research conducted by a Barnard woman in a Barnard laboratory on Barnard undergraduates and because it gives an interesting, readable account of psychological tests as applied to college students with suggestions for the practical use of the tests.

- The Dalton Laboratory Plan* (E. P. Dutton) EVELYN DEWEY, '11.
Modern Russian Poetry (Harcourt Brace and Co.) BABETTE DEUTSCH, '17,
 AND AVRAM YARMOLINSKY.
One-Act Plays by Modern Authors (Harcourt Brace and Co.) HELEN
 COHEN, '03.
The Modern Girl—Pictorial Review. NELLE WEATHERS, '23.
Parenthood and the College—Journal of the American Association of University Women, January. EVA VOM BAUER HANSL, '09.
The Fisher Act, Secondary Schools in London and Some Recent English Books on Education.—Bulletin of High Points, published by the Board of Education, New York City January. HELEN LOUISE
 COHEN, '03.
The Purpose of Social Studies in High School—Bulletin of High Points
 January. RUTH G. HARDY, '09.

LETTER-BOX

To the Editor of the Bulletin:

May I raise for discussion the question of the Alumnae Trustees' relation to the body of the Alumnae Association? At present this relationship seems to me to be very vague and ill defined; for the Alumnae Trustees, though elected by the Alumnae Association, are not responsible in any way to the association as a whole. The members of the Alumnae Association are in a sense the "constituents" of the Alumnae Trustees; yet no attempt is made to obtain the "constituents'" opinion on policies affecting the college.

Many "constituents" feel that this state should be changed as is evidenced by the fact that the American Association of University Women intends to discuss this question at its next conference.

Our Alumnae Trustees are of the alumnae, but are they representative of alumnae opinion? Might not some scheme be devised whereby the Alumnae Trustees could consult the opinion of the alumnae as a whole on important questions relating to the college, so that they would be not merely elected by but representative of the alumnae?

Sincerely,

DOROTHY BURNE, 1920.

BARNARD CLUBS AND OTHER GROUPS

MT. VERNON BARNARD CLUB

President, Mrs. John E. Bates, '02, 24 Summit Ave., Mt. Vernon.
 Secretary, Mrs. L. Brewster Smith, '06, 97 Vista Place, Mt. Vernon

The Mt. Vernon Club held its spring meeting at the home of Mrs. Alexander W. Dreyfoos, '99, 460 Prospect Ave., Mt. Vernon, on Friday evening, March 24. Plans were discussed for making permanent the Barnard Club prize which is awarded yearly to the girl in the graduating class of the high school who excels in extemporaneous speaking. The awarding of this prize which has been won several times by Barnard sub-freshmen is one of the most interesting activities of the club.

NEW YORK BARNARD CLUB

President, Dorothy Graffe, '18, 45 Barrow St., New York City.
Secretary, Elicia Carr, '19, 831 Carroll St., Brooklyn.

The Barnard Club has kept the Conference Room, Students Hall, open every Tuesday evening as an informal meeting place for alumnæ. Tuesday was chosen as the best evening to make "club-night" as it is athletic evening at college and the Alumnæ Office is open. On several of these evenings alumnæ groups served as hostesses, among them the Newman Club, 343 Club and the Class of 1919. These "get together parties" have been most interesting and many alumnæ met and exchanged ideas for the first time. On March 7, Dr. Crampton gave the group a wonderful evening in the form of an illustrated lecture on his last trip to the Islands of the Pacific.

The greatest effort of the club this year, however, was put in the play it gave on Alumnæ Day and the officers of the club wish to thank not only its members but the non-members among the alumnæ to whose efforts the success of that play was due.

BARNARD NEWMAN CLUB ALUMNÆ

President, Catherine McEntegart, '16, 368 West 51 St.
Secretary, Grace McLaughlin, '14, 951 Morris Ave.

So much interest and spirit was displayed at several parties which were given by the Barnard Newman alumnæ during the year 1921 for the benefit of Newman Hall that a business meeting was called on the evening of January 4, 1922, when the Barnard Newman Club Alumnæ was officially organized. The object of this organization as stated in its constitution "shall be to unite the Catholic alumnæ of Barnard College and by interest and co-operation to further the work of the Newman Club and of the Associate Alumnæ of Barnard College."

Part of the program which has been planned for the club includes a Silver Tea on the afternoon of March 25, to be held at Newman Hall, 635 West 115 Street, a dance on the evening of April 18, to be held in Brinckerhoff Theatre, a business meeting on the evening of May 2, and a party at the City Island home of Marie and Helen Mulfeld some Saturday afternoon in June.

The Barnard Newman Club is also cooperating with other college Newman Clubs in supporting a lecture on evolution to be given by Sir Bertram Wendel of Toronto University at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel on the evening of April 28.

MONTCLAIR ALUMNÆ MEET

Early in the winter Mrs. Adam Leroy Jones, '05 gave a delightful tea at her home, 71 South Mountain Ave., to the Barnard graduates living in Montclair. Mrs. Jones also asked the executive secretary of the alumnæ association to meet the Montclair alumnæ and discuss with them the latest college and alumnæ news. Although it was regretted that so few Barnard people lived in Montclair, it was agreed that the group made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers.

NORTH SHORE BARNARD CLUB

Temporary Chairman, Lillian Walton, '14, Bayville, L. I.
Temporary Secretary, Lilian Wardell, '07, Bayville, L. I.

The officers of the North Shore Barnard Club would be very glad to know the names of any Barnard graduates who "summer" on the north shore of Long Island.

ASSOCIATION OF CLASS PRESIDENTS AND SECRETARIES

Presiding Officer: President of the Associate Alumnae.

On February 7, the Association of Class Presidents and Secretaries was formally organized as a permanent group. The purpose of this group is to meet at the call of the President of the Associate Alumnae and discuss college and alumnae policies.

In addition to this objective the class groups in the association are endeavoring to raise money in support of the Alumnae Fund in order that the work of the alumnae association may not be hampered for a lack of funds.

As this new Association of Class Presidents and Secretaries is the most representative group in the alumnae, a great deal of valuable advice and help may be expected from it.

PERSONALS

1902

Ethel Newman is secretary to Mr. Pindar, Registrar of the American Museum of Natural History.

1903

May Ammerman Johnson married Samuel Platt Sessions Newton, on December 7, 1921. Mr. and Mrs. Newton are living at 25 Walton Place East, Chicago.

Laura Van Cise has married Dean Albert Miller.

1905

Laura Parker is Field Secretary for Junior Work of the American McAll Association.

1908

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marburg (Gertrude Wells), have a daughter, born December 1921.

To Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wilcock, a son, Richard Carrington, on September 30, 1921.

Dora Askowith, in addition to her work as instructor in History at Hunter College, is giving some courses in Comparative Religion at the Free Synagogue House and doing research work.

Laura Armstrong Lovejoy has entered her three daughters, 4, 6 and 8, as future students of Barnard. She hopes to take them to France next summer to start their education in French.

Marguerite Strauss Matthias played in productions of Oscar Wilde's plays in Switzerland and Germany during the war. She now has the leading part in a play of Carl Sternheim's at the Lessing Theatre, Berlin, and her acting has been favorably noticed by the local critics. Her address is Oranienstrasse 18, Berlin, Charlottenberg, Germany.

Lillian Rosanoff is instructor in Mathematics in the Commercial High School, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Louise Tattershall is doing employment work at the Central Branch of the Y. W. C. A.

1909

Helen McPherson is teaching in the Bovee School in New York and studying at Teachers College.

Ruth Stowell, who has been doing research work on questions connected with the Far East for the Guaranty Trust Company, has gone to Washington as a research assistant in the U. S. Department of Commerce.

1911

Eleanor Burne is married to William Dunphy.

Mary Conroy is married to Charles B. Dullea.

Mr. and Mrs. Dullea are living at 26 Townsend Avenue, Stapleton, N. Y.

Marie Maschmedt married Otto Fuhrmann, June 25, 1921.

Evelyn Dewey has written "Dalton Psychological Plan" published by Dutton & Co.

Mary Pohemus has left for an extended European trip after several years work as head of the Social Service Department of the Reconstruction Hospital, 395 Central Park West.

1912

Kathleen Gray married James Augustine McGovern on February 11, 1922.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cist (Gladys Segee) announce the birth of a daughter.

Irene Glenn gave courses in mental measurement at the Cleveland School of Education last summer.

Ruth Guy is instructor in pediatrics at the Yale Medical School.

Virginia Smith is research assistant with the United States Steel Products Company.

1913

Helen Dana, who has recently been in Brittany, has decided to travel for a year or more.

Sarah Gottlieb is secretary to the American editor of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Mary Sistrunk is secretary to Mrs. James C. Rogerson, of the Arden Studios.

1914

Frances Mills is married to James Gwilym Anwill. She is doing editorial work at the American Institute of Medicine. She is living at 19 East 33rd Street.

Grace Coffin is at the head of the Occupational Therapy Department of the Reconstruction Hospital at 395 Central Park West.

Isabel Randolph is in the Physical Education Department at Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga.

Corinne Reinheimer is doing advertising copy writing for the Federal Advertising Agency.

1915

Grace Derby Banker married Eugene Hiram Paddock.

Dorothy Dean is working in the Alumni Federation Office at Columbia.

Emily Lambert who is with Castle and Cooke, commission brokers, in Honolulu, expects to return in the spring.

Juliette Rosenthal is with the T. R. Harris Company, an advertising firm.

Elise Tobin is doing chemical work for Merck and Company, Rahway, N. J.

1916

Madeleine Batta married Nelson Barlow.

Isabel Dean married Alexander Kadison on November 23, 1921.

Amy Burtenshaw is an assistant in the Detroit Public Library.

Edith Carothers has recently published "Psychological Examinations of College Students."

Margaret Fries has received her M.D. degree from Cornell Medical College and completed her one-year internship at the New York Infirmary for Women and Children. She will serve a six months' internship at Bellevue Hospital, in the Children's Ward.

Imogen Neer is teaching English in the College of New Rochelle.
Amanda Schulte is studying at the University of Virginia.
Emma Seipp is head of the Analysis Department of the American Vocational Agency, New York City.
Ruth Washburn is secretary at the Warwick Hospital, Warwick, N. Y.
Harriet Wishnieff is editor of "Foreign Fiction," published by the Houston Publishing Company, New York City.

1917

Mrs. Leonard Oppenheimer (Leonore Gunzendorfer) gave birth to a daughter, Virginia Cecile, on October 15, 1921.
Dorothea Curnow is an interne at Newark Memorial Hospital.
Ruth Jensen is teaching Latin in Bushwick High School, Brooklyn.
Gladys Kennard is assistant in pathology at City Hospital, Blackwell's Island.
Lillian Schaeffer is doing laboratory work at the Lutheran Hospital.
Freda Wobber is teaching history in the Bernardsville, N. J. High School.

1918

Margaret Darrow was married to Ray H. Kempton on December 28, 1921. Mr. and Mrs. Kempton are living at Chapel Hill, North Carolina.
Ethel Dawbarn sailed on October 11 for a winter of travel in Europe.
Fannie Rubenstein is teaching in Public School 79.
Margaret Snyder is an investigator in the Research Department of the Butterick Publishing Company.
Dorothy Dirkes Turnquist is office manager with the Batavia Rubber Co.

1919

Dorothy Morgenthau was married to Edgar Patek Ettenheim on February 4, 1922.
Marion Benedict is studying at Teachers College and Union Theological Seminary for a Ph.D. in religious education.
Dorothy Blake is doing graduate work in English at Columbia.
Eleanor Curnow is studying at Brooklyn Law School while continuing her secretarial work in a lawyer's office.
Marion Warren Fry is doing research work with Lazard Freres, bankers.
Gertrude Geer is doing editorial work in the art department of the "Woman's Home Companion."
Helen Hennessy is manager of the Collection Department of James McCreery & Company
Constance Lambert who has been in Honolulu for a year expects to return in the spring.
Otilie Puerschner is a statistical clerk with the A.I.C.P., Newark, N. J.
Frances Rule has been added to the cast of Madras House at the Neighborhood Playhouse.

1920

Mrs. Samuel Parkins (Eleanor Curry) gave birth to a son, Charles Curry, on May 21, 1921, at Staunton, Va.
Helen Hicks is married to Edward M. Healy.
Hortense Barten is doing graduate work in English at Columbia.
Ruth Chalmers is teaching in Hamilton Institute for Girls, New York City.
Edna Colucci and Edith Silver are agents for the American Educational Association.

Elizabeth Hobe is associate society editor of the "Pittsburg Times-Democrat."

Julia Lesser is teaching a group of unemployed office workers at the Young Women's Hebrew Association and taking graduate courses at Columbia.

Maude Lane and Helen Krigsman are clerks at the Cornell Medical Clinic.

Agnes Marsh is teaching physical education in extension classes at Teachers College and in some outside classes.

Jean Macfarlane is teaching in the Public School at Croton Falls, N. Y.

Juliette Meylan has sailed for France to study at the Sorbonne.

Ethel Mitchell is teaching French and Spanish in the Lakewood, N. J. High School.

Florida Omeis is substituting in biology at Evander Childs High School.

Helen Seidman is a psychologist in the psychological clinic of the Newark public schools.

Edith Silver has begun a training course in the Brooklyn Public Library.

Lillian Sternberg is studying scientific illustrating at Johns Hopkins University.

1921

Agatha Gilbert was married to Samuel B. Roberts on June 4, 1921.

Estelle Abrahams is studying law at New York University.

Leonora Andrews is doing publicity work for Tamblyn and Brown.

Alice Brady is substituting in the city public schools.

Lillian Brower is studying at Columbia.

Mary Crookall is laboratory technician in the pathological department of New York Hospital.

Gertrude Dana has sailed for a year of travel in Europe.

Mathilde Drachman is teaching English to foreigners in evening classes at the Jacob Riis Neighborhood House.

Edna Fox is substitute psychologist in the New York public schools.

Rhoda Hessburg is doing psychological work at the Post Graduate Hospital.

Helen Jones, Undergraduate President of last year, is now one of the directors of the Alumnae Association. 1921 is the first class to have one of its members elected to the governing board of the Associate Alumnae the first year after graduation.

Beatrice Kafka is doing statistical work with the Committee on Social and Religious Survey.

Jean Lambert is teaching in the state of Washington.

Ruth Lazar is a clerk for the Columbia Graphophone Company.

Gertrude Mannis is teaching English in Honesdale, Pa.

Pauline Marion is teaching English at a Washington high school, D. C.

Margaret Montgomery is teaching in Syracuse, N. Y.

Gladys Vanbrunt is teacher-in-training in French and history at Girls High School, Brooklyn.

Bertha Wittlinger is teacher-in-training in biology in the Theodore Roosevelt High School.

Adelaide Von Holten is chemist in the H. A. Metz Laboratories.

OBITUARY

1907

Alice Margaret Bushong Ellesworth died December 5, 1921. During her undergraduate years she took part in college activities and was a member of the Y. W. C. A. Classical Club, Deutscher Kreis and Athletic Association. After graduation she taught for several years in the Far Rockaway High School and on September 10, 1921 she married Sanford J. Ellesworth, principal of the school. She was much interested in dentistry and had already completed a year's work at the College of Dental and Oral Surgery on Thirty-fifth street, New York. Although unable to keep in close personal contact with it, Mrs. Ellesworth was a member of the alumnae association and retained her interest in its work.

1911

Agnes Denike Murray died January 1, 1922. Not only her class but the alumnae association has suffered a great loss in the death of Mrs. Murray. As an undergraduate she always had a keen interest in college affairs, was a member of the Y. W. C. A., the Barnard chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was chairman of the Junior Prom Committee and a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity. After her marriage in 1914 she continued her interest in college activities as an active member of the alumnae association. At the time of her death she was working on the reunion committee. Mrs. Murray is survived by two sons and her husband Joseph Norris Murray a graduate of Columbia.

1913

Sarah Voorhis Anderson died February 3, 1922. While in college Mrs. Anderson took part in many college activities. As a very enthusiastic worker in the Christian Association she was chairman one year of the Silver Bay Committee and herself attended the conference there two years. She gave much time to the Glee Club, in which she was soprano soloist, and dramatics too, taking part in Freshman Show, Sophomore and Senior Plays and in Undergrad Play in 1910. She was a member of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity. After her marriage in 1918 to William J. Anderson she continued her active membership in the Associate Alumnae. At the time of her death she was living in Harrisburg, Pa., where Mr. Anderson is representative for a Philadelphia investment company. She leaves two little daughters, one two years old, the other less than a year.

"THERE IS A COLLEGE ON BROADWAY"

BROOKS HALL STUDENTS HALL THE OLD BARNARD

COLUMBIA

THESE APARTMENTS ON CLAREMONT HAVE BEEN BOUGHT BY COLUMBIA FOR DORMITORIES; ONE IS JOHN JAY HALL.

DON'T MISS THE COMMENCEMENT REUNION

June 7, 1922.

"Something doing every hour"

- 1:00 P. M. Trustees' Luncheon to the Alumnae in the Gymnasium.
- 3:30 P. M. The New York Barnard Club will give a play in the Theatre.
- 4:30 P. M. Annual Meeting of the Associate Alumnae of Barnard College.
- 5:00 P. M. Class of 1917 will entertain the Alumnae at tea
on the North Terrace.
- 6:00 P. M. Class Suppers.
- 8:15 P. M. Class of 1912 will entertain the Alumnae in the Theatre.

Tickets required for Class Suppers only.

A First Nighter from Cadiz

WHERE is Cadiz? Of course you'll say, "In Spain." But there is another Cadiz, a little town of 3,000 people tucked away in the hills of Eastern Ohio, on a spur of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Its hills are filled with mines and covered with sheep. It has $3,000,000 in bank deposits, and an "Opera" House. Tiring at an early age of Cadiz drama, Percy Hammond left his home town to become, as Harry Leon Wilson says, the World's Sanest Dramatic Critic.

The New Play

By Percy Hammond

Mr. Cohan Returns to the Theater, Presenting His Daughter and a New Melodrama

THE CAST

Garrison Paige.....	James Rennie
Harvey	Frank Hollins
Madeleine	Georgette Cohan
Aggie	Ruth Donnelly
Madigan	Edward Nannery
Tony Burgess.....	Harry Mestayer
Andrew	Thomas Jackson
Violet	Louise Orth
Bella	Jean Robertson
Goldberg	Charles Halton
Callahan	Frank Sheridan
Policeman	Martin Malloy

The change in Mr. Cohan's mind regarding his withdrawal forever from the theater was marked last evening at the Gaiety by a modest little melodramatic farce of his own ingenious composition called "Madeleine and the Movies." Neither mediocre nor a masterpiece the entertainment was somewhere between the two, and it was good enough to serve as a hopeful signal of Mr. Cohan's slackened resolution. The effect of his past has been so popular his audiences have become, it is to be bettered in his out- "Madeleine," perhaps, than it seemed (an imprint), al- it was high-

The Second Stage in "Back to Methuselah" Is Reached at the Garrick

Further complaints against the plentiful imperfections were given out day night by Mr. Shaw and the theater Guild in the second stretch of relay performance of "Back to Methuselah" at the Garrick. The proceedings were much more ruthless in a casual way than those which attended the contest, and they were considered by many to be baffling. There were, however, frequent opportunities in the less profound of the sport for merriment, and hearty laughter was often to be heard from 7 11:45. Mr. Shaw's long jibes at statesmanship, the English, the the Americans, religion, war, the of travel, adolescence or mischief seldom failed to win a large portion. There was something on the end of his tongue to please the present, now and then, as he said of the vicar:

His talk was like a stream
With rapid change
It slipped from point to point
It passed from Beginning
The play
And

You esteem his judgement and find his style fascinating; enjoy PERCY HAMMOND'S delightful theatrical and book critiques and comments in The Tribune.

Buy It To-morrow

New York Tribune

One of the very individual embroidered frocks which are a specialty of the MARY WALLS SHOP

May be had in various materials and with any desired flower or fruit embroidery. Also lovely evening frocks for young girls or matrons, interestingly priced. Your visit will be appreciated at

Telephone, Murray Hill 5760

MARY WALLS SHOP

2 East 46th Street

COMING UNDERGRADUATE EVENTS THAT WILL INTEREST ALUMNAE

April 28, 29, 8:00 P. M. in the Theatre

Wigs & Cues Play—"Great Catherine," by George Bernard Shaw; "Aria da Capo" (Curtain Raiser), by Edna St. Vincent Millay.

(Tickets $1.00)

May 5, 6, 8:15 P. M. in the Theatre

Junior Show.

(Tickets 50c may be obtained from Junior Show Committee)

This space contributed

by

A Friend of

THE COLLEGE SETTLEMENT

84 First Street

New York City

Miss Lake's School
for Girls

Regular Classes
and
Special Tutoring

47 West 55th Street

LOWTHORPE

A School of Landscape Architecture for Women

40 miles from Boston.

Intensive training for a delightful and profitable profession for women

Courses in Landscape Architecture, Horticulture and Planting Design.

AMY L. COGSWELL, Principal Groton, Mass.

The Veltin School
for Girls

College Preparatory
and
General Course

160-162 West 74th St.

The Jacobi School
for Girls

College Preparatory
and
General Course

158-160 West 80th St.

Current History Magazine

Published Monthly by THE NEW YORK TIMES CO.

192 Pages—Profusely Illustrated—25c. per Copy

Any alumna of Barnard College who wishes to keep informed on the important events now occurring in all the countries of the world will find this magazine indispensable.

It enjoys the facilities of the news-gathering agencies of The New York Times at all the capitals of the world; each issue contains 30 days' happenings in 50 different nations—the authentic FACTS.

The Magazine does not comment on events; it has no editorials. Its mission is to present the FACTS of what is going on all over the world in economics, politics, and sociology, in an impartial manner.

It has in each issue also contributions from the most eminent men and women writers of two continents.

The distinguishing feature of the magazine is the fact that it gives important official documents in TEXTUAL FORM. It printed 30,000 words of the full proceedings of the Arms Conference in each of three successive issues, and is the only publication in the world in which the full proceedings can be found.

It has been adopted for class work in leading colleges of America; the U. S. government has installed it at the army posts, the late Lord Bryce in August last declared the magazine one of the most useful publications for any one wishing to understand current affairs that he knew of.

The Magazine occupies a distinct, a unique position. It is the ONLY periodical published in America that carefully prints in full important documents and gives the current FACTS pertaining to the chief events in all the nations in the thirty days preceding publication—all without editorial comments.

The price has been reduced to the pre-war figure of $3.00 a year. It is a handsome, easily read, convenient magazine, just suitable to a woman of education, who wishes to keep informed.

Cut this out and mail:

CURRENT HISTORY MAGAZINE,
New York Times, New York City.

Please send me the CURRENT HISTORY at the rate of $3.00 a year and I will remit on receipt of bill.

Name.....

Address.....

When writing advertisers, please mention the Barnard Alumnæ Bulletin.

You can give a motion picture show any where and any time if you have a film, electric current and a

BEACON Portable Projector

TELEPHONE MURRAY HILL 1674

WITHINGTON-HUNTING, INC.

Beacon Standard Projector
Beacon Safety Projector

Executive and Sales Offices 501 Fifth Ave. at 42nd Street
Factory 521 West 57th Street
New York City

MILLER SCHOOL BROADWAY AT 112TH ST.

A DISTINCTLY SPECIAL SCHOOL IN A NEW AND MODERN HOME. FOR TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS IT HAS BEEN PREPARING SECRETARIES, ACCOUNTANTS, STENOGRAPHERS, TYPISTS, CORRESPONDENTS AND OTHER OFFICE WORKERS.

HIGH SCHOOL ^{AND} COLLEGE GRADES
CATALOGUE FREE

ALUMNAE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY

Information may be obtained by those desiring to insert cards from the Business Manager, Alumnæ Bulletin, Students Hall.

INSTRUCTORS

New York City

ADALINE WHEELOCK, '97

PRIVATE TUTOR

412 West 115th Street

Cathedral 7584

New York City

LUCETTA JOHNSON, '07

PRIVATE TUTOR

400 West 118th Street

Morningside 6857

New York City

Vanderbilt 5545

THE DANCE-AS-AN-ART

HELEN ZAGAT, '15

24 East 40th Street

Miss Zagat, after her second European concert tour, will reopen her New York Studio for classes in the Fall.

ACCOUNTANTS

New York City

Cost Methods

LILIAN M. WARDELL, '07

LILLIAN S. WALTON, '14

MANAGING ACCOUNTANTS

18 East 41st Street
Room 705

Main 2272
Murray Hill 3935

PUBLIC STENOGRAPHER

Greater New York

ROSE ADELAIDE LEVY, '09

(Mrs. Frank G. Schneider)

PUBLIC STENOGRAPHER

(Formerly at Hotel Newton)

All kinds of manuscripts, stories, plays, poems, theses, etc. copied. Finished work returned promptly.

Rates furnished upon application.

8019 Seventh Avenue
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Bensonhurst 8115

INSURANCE BROKER

New York City

MRS. GEORGE ENDICOTT

(Ellinor T. B. Reiley, '00)

INSURANCE BROKER

80 Maiden Lane

Care of Joseph Lynch

John 3554

PRINTER

New York City

ALICE P. N. WALLER, '14

Associated with

GEORGE S. MESSING & Co.

243 WEST 39TH STREET

Bryant 8084-8085

Printing of character, direct mail campaigns.
Layout, copy design, typography.

AUTHOR'S AGENT

New York City

JEAN WICK, Inc.

(Jeannette Wick, '04)

AUTHORS' AGENT

Agent for books, short stories, plays, articles.
59 Washington Square

Author of "The Stories Editors Buy and Why"
Small, Maynard & Co. $2 net.

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT

Newark, N. J.

ELSA REHMANN, '08

Miss Rehmann offers her services as Landscape Architect in the designing and planting of grounds and gardens for suburban and country places.

LAWYERS

Mt. Kisco, N. Y.

IRENE BENNETT ADAMS, '07

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW

New York City

CATHARINE FRIES, '15

ATTORNEY AT LAW

141 Broadway

Rector 5460

When writing advertisers, please mention the Barnard Alumnæ Bulletin.

2