Earl Hall to Be Opened

Earl Hall is now almost completed. The woodwork and the decorations are so nearly finished that it is hoped the furniture may be in place and the building, therefore, ready to be opened by the middle of next month.

The interior of the building is very tastefully decorated; the walls are tinted in delicate shades. The hall and reception-room floors are of mosaic. The larger rooms are provided with attractive brick fire-places. The large lecture room, that has the appearance of a theater, is finished in yellow; over the stage is a reproduction of the University seal.

On the first floor, is a large reception-room, the office of the Secretary of Earl Hall, and reading and writing rooms for the students.

The ground floor, which may be entered directly from Broadway, consists of a suite of rooms to be the living apartments of the Secretary; a pantry and kitchen, and a number of rooms to be used chiefly by women students. The rooms on the first floor will be chiefly for the use of the men. A seminary on the second floor will be devoted to missionary study.

For the Y. M. C. A. lectures, all public lectures, debates, concerts, and student meetings, the large lecture hall, which has a seating capacity of about three hundred, will be used.

The following is a list of the organizations which are to make use of Earl Hall:

The Y. M. C. A., the Barnard College Settlement, Barnard College Students' Missionary Society, Barnard Y. W. C. A., Barnard Literary Society, Women's Graduate Club, Churchmen's Association, the Young Men's Hebrew Association (not yet organized), the Phillips Brooks Guild of Teachers' College, Philolexian Literary Society, and the college musical, dramatic and debating unions. Incidentally, the building will be used for meetings of directors, teachers, class organizations, etc. The chaplain of the University will have his office in the building. No rooms, however, will be given up for the exclusive use of these organizations. Rooms will be assigned on a day and hour schedule.

Dates of Columbia Basketball Games

The basketball team of Columbia University will play three home games with Harvard, Yale, and Princeton in the intercollegiate championship series during February.

The game with Harvard, the opening game of the season, will be played in the Columbia Gymnasium on Friday evening, February 7th.

On the same evening there will be a game between the Freshman teams of Harvard and Columbia. The matches are all followed by a college dance.

Mr. Rockefeller's Offer to Vassar

In chapel at Vassar College it was announced recently that John D. Rockefeller had promised to duplicate every gift made to the college before commencement day, the sum not to exceed $200,000.

Vassar has already received her recitation hall and a residence hall, besides lesser gifts, from Mr. Rockefeller.

New Woman's College Founded

John Simmons, an old Boston merchant who died about twenty years ago, left a will which provided that the income from his property, after certain conditions had been fulfilled, should be applied to the founding of a college for the practical education of women in such industries as would enable them to earn their own living. The $500,000 necessary for the purpose have now accumulated and will be applied to the establishment of such a college.

The trustees have already incorporated the Simmons' Female College, and have elected Dr. Henry Lefavour, formerly at Williams College, president of the institution.

German Lectures

There will be nine more in a series of ten lectures in the German language. These lectures will be given on Wednesdays in January, February, and March, at 4.30 o'clock, in 309 Havemeyer (116th street, between Amsterdam avenue and the Boulevard).

January 22nd.—Arthur F. J. Remy, Ph.D., Germanic Department, Columbia University: "Germanische Sagen in den Wagnerschen Opern."

January 29th.—Henry Zick, Ph.D.: "Berlin," illustrated.

February 5th.—Rudolf Tombo, Jr., Ph.D., Germanic Department, Columbia University: "Ossian und sein Verhältnis zur deutschen Litteratur."

February 19th.—Mr. Udo Brachvogel: "Grillparzer als Lyriker."

February 26th.—Mr. Heinrich Conried, Director of the Irving Place Theater: "Das deutsche Theater in New York."

March 5th.—Emil A. C. Keppler, A.M., Germanic Department, Columbia University: "Amerika in der deutschen Dichtung."

March 12th.—Rev. August Ulmann, S.T.D., Rector of Trinity School: "Das Harzgebirge," illustrated.

March 19th.—Wilhelm A. Brawn, A.B., Germanic Department, Columbia University: "Zwei Dichter des Weltschmerzes—Hölderlin und Lenau."

March 26.—Mr. Georg von Skal, Editor of the "New Yorker Staats-Zeitung": "Friedrich der Grosse und die Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika."

All are cordially invited to be present. No tickets are required.

Teachers' College Notes

At Teachers' College, Dr. Julius Sachs has been appointed as Professor of Secondary Education. Dr. Sachs is a graduate of Columbia in the Class of 1867. He has studied abroad in several universities and at Bostock, Germany, took the degree of Ph.D. in 1871. He is probably best known to New Yorkers as the founder and principal of the preparatory schools for boys and girls on Fifty-ninth street. He has been president of many educational associations in the United States, and was active in the establishment of the "College Entrance Examination Board." The course which Dr. Sachs will now conduct is new, and is the outgrowth of a general course in Secondary Education which has been offered by Dean Russell and Prof. Monroe. This new department will include a general course in Secondary Education, a course on the curriculum of the secondary school, and a Seminar on Secondary Education. The last two are for graduate students only.

Among the appointments made at Teachers' College this week is that of Dr. Paul Monroe to the full Professorship of the course known as the History of Education.

Phi Beta Kappa

At a meeting of Phi Beta Kappa, Mrs. Parsons, '96, Mrs. Parker, '93, and Miss Goodale, '99, were formally admitted to the fraternity. Last spring the Barnard College sub-Chapter of the Columbia Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa elected the above College graduates to be charter members. But since they could not be present at the initiation last spring, they were not then admitted to the society.

Lectures at Columbia

Among the series of lectures now being prepared, important ones will be delivered in February and March. M. Mabileau, of the Collège de France, a critic and sociologist, will deliver a series of four addresses on the afternoons of February 27th and 28th, and March 3rd, at 3.30, and at 11 o'clock on the morning of March 1st.

The first series of lectures under the Dean Lung foundation will be given by Professor Herbert A. Giles during the first two weeks of March.

Dr. Jacques Loeb will deliver a third series of lectures in physiological chemistry, in March.

M. Hugues de Roux will probably lecture at Columbia in March.

Assistant Secretary of Earl Hall

Mr. William B. Pultus has been engaged as assistant secretary of Earl Hall. For three years he studied at the University of Missouri, where he was secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

BARNARD BULLETIN,
BARNARD COLLEGE,
COLUMBIA UNIV., N. Y.

MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 1902.

In the last issue of the "Bulletin" we commented on the fact that the College has a very active social life which has expressed itself in the organization of college clubs in practically all fields except the literary.

Since then we have found that there is much interest in the movement for the formation of a college literary society, to be conducted, perhaps, on the lines of King's Crown at Columbia. Lately, too, we have found that Professor Trent is deeply interested in the project and promises the students his personal support, especially in bringing them in social contact with many prominent literary men and women of his acquaintance.

One of the upper-class students who is active in literary affairs in College, has signified her willingness to start the proposed literary society. There is little need of saying more as regards the advisability of organizing such a club. We can only urge that the student who is ready to start the organization will call a mass-meeting for the purpose as soon as the second term begins.

The Play Committee has chosen "The Rivals" for production by the College. Needless to say that the play, so well known to all, offers excellent opportunities for the exercise of individual talent. And to get the best talent it is necessary for each student to make an effort to compete for a part.

Not only should such students as have acted before try for a rôle, but every one who can possibly give up the time to the play should compete, so as to let Mr. Sanger know of the existence of any talent not now available. We urge that all who decide to compete, put their applications in the boxes supplied for that purpose at once. Last year much time was unnecessarily lost in getting the names of all the competitors.

Notice

On account of the examinations which are to be held this week, there will be no issue of the "Bulletin" next Monday, February 3rd.

Play Committee Notice

At the last undergraduate meeting the following amendment was passed: "That every undergraduate be permitted to attend two performances of the play for one ticket."

The Play Committee is anxious to have this amendment reconsidered at the next meeting, and would like to present to the undergraduates the following facts, before this is done.

Last year it was deemed advisable to tax each member of the Undergraduate Association, instead of requiring her to buy a ticket to the play. In this way the play paid for itself. But it permitted several unfortunate things to happen. Many of the girls went to both performances. This would have been all right except for the fact that both days the theater was crowded for the most part with College girls. In consequence, many of the guests, who had paid to attend, were unable to get comfortable seats, nor could they see the performance with any degree of pleasure.

The committee wishes to avoid such a thing this year. It considers that it is much more dignified and more acceptable to pay for a ticket than to pay a tax. The theater is small, and we desire to have as many persons as possible attend the play. It seems only fair that every girl should pay full price (fifty cents) for each performance that she attends, especially as space is so limited. The chief reason for giving three performances of the play is that all the outsiders who care to come may do so, and may be accommodated.

Edna Cara Chapin, '02,
Chairman.

Report of Undergraduate Play Committee, January 16, 1902

I. The play has not been selected.
II. The committee advises that three performances of the play be given on the afternoons of Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, April 24th, 25th, and 26th.
III. The probable cost of the play will be something over three hundred dollars ($300).
IV. The price of tickets for undergraduate and special students shall be fifty cents ($0.50).

V. The price of tickets for all other persons shall be one dollar ($1.00).

VI. No person shall be admitted to the play except upon presentation of ticket.

VII. The committee recommends that Mr. Eugene Sanger, who coached last year's play, be engaged to coach this year's play.

Amendment I. Students shall be allowed to attend two performances of the play for one ticket.

Freshman Basketball Game

The Freshman basketball team will play the Emanon team of Mount Vernon on Saturday afternoon, February 22nd, in the Mount Vernon Armory.

College Play Selected

The Play Committee has selected "The Rivals" as the Undergraduate Play to be presented in April. The committee desires to know as soon as possible what girls are going to try for parts in the play. For that purpose boxes have been placed on the tables in the studies. Every one wishing to take part is requested to put into a box before Wednesday, January 29th, a slip of paper bearing:

1. Name.
2. What part she prefers to try for.
3. What afternoons and what hours of the week, February 2-8, she can attend rehearsal.

Mr. Sanger will make all decisions.
Edna Cara Chapin, '02,
Chairman.

Y. W. C. A.

At the regular cabinet meeting on January 22nd, it was voted that the president be empowered to appoint delegates to the World Student Volunteer Convention, Toronto. This method of appointment was deemed most expedient owing to the fact that the names of all delegates must be submitted to the General Committee by February 1st. Miss Peters will be very glad to receive suggestions as to possible delegates.

Notice

All members of the Y. W. C. A. are requested to pay their dues at once. Dues 50 cts. per year.

Mary F. Harrison, 1903,
Treasurer.

C. S. A. Notice

All members of the College Settlement Association are urged to pay their annual dues ($1.15) to the sub-elect of their class at once.

Columbia Athletic Meets

The following is a list of athletic meets in which Columbia will participate:

January 15th.—Novice track games in Columbia Gymnasium; 22nd—Scratch games in Columbia Gymnasium; 23rd—Relay race at Forty-seventh Regiment games; 29th—Handicap games in the Gymnasium.

February 2nd—Relay races at Knickerbocker Athletic Club carnival; 5th—Novice track games in Gymnasium; 8th—Relay race at Boston Athletic Club; 12th and 19th—Final indoor track games in Columbia Gymnasium; 22nd—Relay races at games of Georgetown University, at Washington, D. C.

March 1st—Intercollegiate games, under Columbia auspices, at Madison Square Garden; 10th—Dual meet with Syracuse, at Syracuse.

May 3rd—Dual meet with Pennsylvania at New York; 17th—Dual meet with Princeton at New York; 24th—Intercollegiate championships at New York.

The hockey games will be held as follows:

February 7th—Columbia vs. Princeton.
February 25th—Brown vs. Columbia.

March 6th—Columbia vs. Yale.

On February 21st Columbia and Yale will hold a joint basketball and fencing meet in the Columbia Gymnasium. These events will be followed by a dance.

Athletic Association

The members of the Athletic Association met on Tuesday, January 21st, in the theater, to adopt a permanent constitution. The name of this body is to be the Barnard College Athletic Association, and its purpose is to promote interest in athletics at College. Miss Ware, '03, conducted the meeting, while Miss Budd, '02, president and also chairman of the Executive Committee, read the constitution. Only one amendment was made to this constitution, otherwise it was accepted as read. The constitution which the association had provisionally adopted was little changed in the form finally presented. The chief change was in the method of electing officers so as to permit Freshmen to hold office; therefore some of the officers will be elected in the fall, the rest in the spring.

The amendment of the constitution as presented for adoption, provides that the chairman of the Finance Committee shall approve all expenditures and that she shall be responsible to that committee for any such approval. Formerly the article read so that the sanction of the whole Finance Committee was necessary for any expenditure.

Basketball Notice

As Mr. Cook will probably not be able to coach the basketball players on Tuesdays next term, it will be necessary to set another day. For this reason it is requested that all students who intend to play next term will hand their time cards to Miss Alsberg as soon as possible.

Sophomore-Freshman Debating Society

A special meeting of the Sophomore-Freshman Debating Society was held Tuesday, January 21st, to consider the report of the Committee on Constitution. This committee was appointed to revise the old constitution in order to meet the needs of the growing society. The revised constitution was read and accepted.

C. S. M. A.

The regular Thursday morning meeting of the C. S. M. A. will be omitted during examination week. Thursday, February 7th, the members of the C. S. M. A. will meet at St. Luke's Hospital at 8.45 a. m.

Smith Alumnae Play Normal College

The basketball team of the Smith College Alumnae of New York will play a game with the Normal College team at Normal College on Monday afternoon, January 27th.

New Books

The Reading Room has just been presented with a copy of Professor Thomas' newly completed book on "The Life and Works of Schiller." There are also several new books on oratory, which will doubtless be of use to members of the Debating Club.
