President Butler's Address

President Butler made his first address at Barnard, in Chapel, on Tuesday, February 11. He spoke of President Barnard as one of the greatest educators this country has produced, describing his wonderful personal influence and his vigorous efforts to establish the higher education of women in New York. The latter part of the speech recommended as one of the best qualities of the student, diligence, not in the ordinary sense of the word, but with the twofold meaning of choosing an ideal and then making all one's work lead to its realization.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Entertains

At the ninth annual open meeting of the Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, in the Theater on the afternoon of February 11th, a musical program was the feature of the afternoon.

Mr. Hobart Smock, the well-known tenor, sang four or five excellent selections. Miss Catherine Dinsmore rendered two songs, and Mr. Frank Lincoln gave some very entertaining sketches. Mr. C. E. Reynolds was the accompanist of the afternoon.

A reception and informal dancing followed.

Students' Aid Tea

The third in the series of Students' Aid Teas will be given on Thursday, February 20th, from 4 until 6 o'clock, in the theater, Brinkerhoff Hall. Prominent women in civic and philanthropic organizations of the city have been invited. Addresses will be made by Mrs. Charles R. Lowell, of the League for Political Education; Miss Lilian Wald, head worker of the Nurses Settlement; and Mrs. Frederick Nathan, of the Consumers' League.

Undergraduates are cordially invited to be present and are requested to wear caps and gowns.

Play Cast

Mr. Sanger has made the following selections for parts in "The Rivals":

Miss May Johnson
Absolute Miss Romola Lyon
Miss Adele Carl
Miss Alice Cory
Miss Annie Fisher
Miss Lewis

Roles will be assigned within a

Junior Ball

The Junior ball, given in the Columbia Gymnasium on February 10th, was successful in every detail. The balconies and pillars of the Gymnasium were draped with college flags and colors. To add to the prettiness of the general effect, the sides and corners of the dancing floor were lined with divans and couches, draped picturesquely in Bagdad cloths, and there was an abundance of palms grouped about the couches and pillars. Some five hundred people were present, but there was no crushing or crowding. Buffet supper was served above the Gymnasium, in the new Faculty dining-room.

The ball was preceded by a short reception. Dancing began at 10 o'clock, and at 3.30, not as formerly after 5 o'clock, the twenty-four dances and seven "extras" were over. The dance orders were very attractively designed; they were of rough gray paper with the Barnard College pin neatly done in colors in the center of the cover.

The patronesses were Mrs. Addoms, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Cheesman, Mrs. Latham, Mrs. Earle, Mrs. Low, Miss Gill, Mrs. Stern, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Gibson, and Mrs. Ware.

Literary Society

The editorial boards of the 1902 and the 1903 "Mortarboards," and the editors of the BARNARD BULLETIN met and discussed the formation of a College Literary Society. Miss Howard, 1903, was made temporary chairman and presided at the meeting.

It was decided to exclude Freshmen from the society and to elect a standing nominating committee. The society is to be run somewhat on the lines of Kings Crown. Miss Howard appointed Miss Elliman, 1902, Miss Ware, 1903, and Miss E. Poole, 1903, to draw up a constitution for the new society.

French Lectures

Professor Leopold Mabilleau, Directeur du Musée Social, membre correspondant de l'Institut de France, will deliver a series of four lectures in French on "L'Enseignement Publique en France." The lectures will be held in the auditorium of the Horace Mann School, as follows:

Thursday, February 27th, 3.30: "Le Haut Enseignement Théoretique: La Sorbonne et le Collège de France."

Friday, February 28th, 3.30: "Le Haut Enseignement Pratique: l'Ecole Centrale et le Conservatoire des Arts et Métiers."

Saturday, March 1st, 11 a. m.: "L'Enseignement Sociologique: le Musée Social et l'Ecole des Sciences Politiques."

Monday, March 3rd, 3.30: "L'Enseignement Populaire"

Undergraduate Tea

The second of the undergraduate teas was given on Friday afternoon, February 7th. The studies were very prettily decorated, even more attractively than at the last tea, with couches and an abundance of pillows of various and rich colors. The electric lights were shaded with colored paper, and altogether the color effects were very artistic. The music of the mandolin and zither from the Reading Room was a pleasant feature of the occasion. Dancing began early and the Theater was, as usual, crowded to its full capacity.

On account of the difficulty the guests experienced in finding their way to the studies at the previous tea, the Trustees' Room was open early, so that the students could meet their friends there. A receiving committee was stationed at the reception room. The plan seemed to work well, and there was no confusion or crowding in the halls. This was partially due to the fact that the College coat room was used by the guests.

1905 Notes

The Freshman Class holds its regular meeting on Tuesday, February 18, at 12.30 o'clock.

On Tuesday, February 25th, the class entertainment will be held in the Theater from 3.30 until 5 o'clock.

Columbia's Varsity Show

"In Vanity Fair" has been performed at Carnegie Lyceum by Columbia students. The whole production was excellent. Choruses, songs, and lyrics, as well as acting, were very well done. Mr. MacGregor was musical director. G. G. Lange, 1900, and H. Machen, '99, assisted in the training of the actors. George Middleton was stage manager. The cast of characters was as follows:

Earl of Ranelock, George Middleton, '02.
Captain Fitzhubert of the 93rd, H. S. Harrington, 1904 L.

Plantagenet, A. F. Robinson, 1904.
Sir Ethelbert Wynne, W. H. Adams, 1904 L.

Angus MacVeigh, of the Guards, H. L. Spence, 1902.

Mr. Trelawney, a curate, R. Campbell, 1904 S.

Jenkins Johann, a waiter, W. A. Turner, 1903 L.

Hunting Crookes, A. Parker, 1904 L.
Fleurette, the danseuse, G. F. Bambach, 1903.

Desiree, daughter of the Earl, R. K. Wupperman, 1904.

Baron Missetfort, J. H. Marsching, P.S.
Mrs. Minningstock, H. R. Burt, P.G.

Her daughters—Ethel, P. Moeller, 1904;
Ethel, H. Stein, 1904; Elsie, W. J. Mitchell,
1904; Eleanor, E. J. Kahn, 1903.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1902.

It is with sincere regret that we announce the resignation of Miss Spencer from the editorial staff of the BULLETIN. It is due to her in a very large measure that the publication of the paper has been possible, not merely financially, but also in every other respect. The editors wish to express their thanks to Miss Spencer.

We are pleased to announce that Miss Curtis has been elected business manager of the BULLETIN. All students who desire to become assistant manager are requested to apply for further information to Miss Curtis. Miss Cecil I. Dorrian has been elected an associate editor.

Dean Russell Addresses Students

On Thursday, February 13th, Dean Russell, of Teachers' College, addressed the Barnard students in the theatre. He first spoke of two chief motives that influence women to choose teaching as a profession: first, the pecuniary remuneration it offers; second, the desire to be of service to others. The dignity and worth of the latter motive was particularly emphasized. Dean Russell then presented a plea on behalf of elementary work. He told how overcrowded is the field of work in secondary schools, and urged the students to look into other branches of the profession, for instance, the department of domestic science and kindergarten work.

Emanon Basketball Game

The Barnard Freshman basketball team will play the Emanon team, of Mt. Vernon, in the Mt. Vernon Armory, on Tuesday, February 18, at 2:30. The College team will leave on the 1:05 train for Mt. Vernon.

Delegates to Students Volunteer Movement

Dean Gill will accompany the Barnard College delegation to the Fourth International Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, which will meet at Toronto, Canada, from February 20th. to March 2nd.

The students of the college will leave New York on February 25th. The student delegates will be: Miss Olive E. Dutcher, 1902; Miss Marion E. Latham, 1903; Miss Helen Rogers, 1903; Miss May Harrison, 1903; Miss Florence Chesman, 1903; Miss Jean Miller, 1903; Miss May Parker, 1904; Miss Mida Van Slyke, 1904; Miss Laura Parker, 1905, and Miss Mary Gray, 1905.

The Church Students' Missionary Association will defray the expenses of the Barnard delegation. The object of the delegation is to bring together at Toronto representatives of student bodies and of professors from all important institutions of higher learning in Canada and the United States, and leaders of missionary work both at home and abroad for helpful association and conference.

The leading features of this convention will be addresses by various speakers, discussions of missionary questions, sectional conferences on the work in China, India, Japan, Africa, etc.; interviews with the workers and an exhibit of missionary literature and outfit.

Bryn Mawr Collects Funds

In order to secure the conditional gift of Mr. Rockefeller, the Alumnae Association of Bryn Mawr College has been active in helping to secure the necessary funds. Within the past two months, since Mr. Rockefeller made his offer, the association has raised $33,664. In addition to this, $60,000 has been presented through the President of the college. The resident undergraduate students have pledged $10,000 more. Altogether the students and alumnae have thus, within two months, collected $103,664.

At the recent meeting of the Alumnae Association the by-laws were amended in order that former students of the college who have not received a degree may be admitted to associate membership in the association.

Annual Christian Association Meeting

The annual election of the Christian Association will take place some time during the second week of March. A two-thirds quorum is necessary.

Collection of Arctic Flora for Columbia

Ralph Shaiwald, Jr., '03, has presented the University with a valuable collection of Arctic flora, the specimens of which he gathered while on the Baldwin-Ziegler expedition last summer. A great part of the collection was made about the neighborhood of Camp Flora.
