Vol. IV. No. 11.

NEW YORK CITY, MONDAY, MARCH 24, 1902.

Price 5 Cents.

Notice

Through the courtesy of Mr. Fiske, of the Manhattan Theater, and of Mr. Eugene Singer, the undergraduates of Barnard are invited to see Mr. Herbert Kelcey and Miss Effie Shannon in "Her Lord and Master" at the Manhattan Theater, on Saturday afternoon, April 5th.

Those who wish to go should sign the ticket posted in each study before Wednesday morning, March 26th.

Edna Cara Chapin, '02.

Glee Club

The Barnard College Glee Club held its second business meeting on Friday, March 14. The Constitution prepared by the appointed committee was adopted. Officers were elected as follows: President, Miss Lorrian, '05; Vice-President, Miss Durant, '04; Business Manager, Miss Fountain, '04; Secretary, Miss Mott, '05; Treasurer, Miss McCormick, '04. The music committee provided for in the constitution was chosen, and the following members will act for the present: Miss Van Ingen, '04; Miss Goodyear, '05, and Miss Parker, '05.

On Wednesday, March 19, at 1:30 several members brought violins and mandolins for practice. Mr. Hinrichs has ordered music books for all of the members. The pieces tried at the last meeting will be learned for the next rehearsal of Wednesday, March 26 at 1:30. Hereafter the instrumental section will meet every Wednesday at 1:30.

Fiske Hall Notes

The students in Fiske Hall will give their monthly reception in April and May, on the first Thursday instead of the third as heretofore. Owing to the fact that Fiske Hall is not to be used as a dormitory after this year, the Fiske Hall girls will give a large farewell dance to their friends on May 29th.

Mr. Day Resigns

Mr. A. M. Day has resigned his position in the University, having received an appointment to the Tenement House Bureau of the Bronx on a Civil Service commission. His work will consist in collecting and tabulating statistical information concerning that district.

For the remainder of the term Mr. Day's classes at Barnard will be conducted by Professor Seligman and by Dr. Max West, who has recently received an appointment at Columbia.

1905 Social

The second social meeting of the class of '05 will be held in the theater April 1st, at 8:30 until 5. All members of the class are urged to be present.

Changes in Fiske Hall

It is unquestionably a matter of regret that the College will be deprived of a dormitory next year. The Trustees, however, fully realize the great importance it plays as a factor in the broader college life, and took this step only on condition that a Barnard dormitory building, in the vicinity of the College, should be erected and ready for occupancy by September, 1903. For next year arrangements will be made with the Teachers' College dormitory, whereby two floors of the building will be reserved for Barnard students. They will have, as well, separate dining and reception rooms, and probably, a "Head of the Hall." The College authorities, however, will have no jurisdiction over these resident students.

So far as the general plan for the extension of the science department is concerned, it is thought that the physics department will occupy the basement and the second floor of Fiske Hall, botany will still be on the third floor, and chemistry will take up the fourth floor. The department of zoology will spread out in Milbank Hall, acquiring more laboratory and class room space.

Undergraduate Notes

In accordance with a vote at the special undergraduate meeting on Wednesday, March 19, a letter expressing the grief and sympathy of the undergraduates as a body has been sent to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kaufman.

At this meeting it was also decided to send a petition to the authorities for a suspension of college classes on the Monday and Tuesday of Easter week.

E. M. POOL,
Secretary.

Sophomore-Freshman Debating Society

The Sophomore-Freshman Debating Society held its regular meeting on Tuesday, March 18th. The debate was on the question: Resolved, That the saloons should be open on Sunday. The timeliness of the topic made the debate about the most interesting one held this year. Both sides were vigorously defended. After the formal debate the question was presented to the society for general discussion. The judges, Miss McKenney and Miss Neiswender, decided in favor of the negative side.

Senior Gift

The Class of 1902 has purchased a Morris chair for permanent use in the Senior Study.

Basket-Ball Notice

On April 5, the Staten Island Academy will play the 1905 Team in the gymnasium.

Morningside Prize Contest

The Morningside has announced a prize contest for the best poem and the best story written by a student of the University, and for the most artistic cover design. The prizes are given by an alumnus of Columbia of the class of '95: for the best poem is offered the three volume Marron edition of Milton, for the best story the "Morte d'Arthur."

The conditions governing the contest are as follows: Contributors are expected to observe the ordinary laws in regard to writing on only one side of the paper, etc.; the stories should not exceed 2,500 words in length, the poems should not be more than 100 lines; manuscripts must be sent to The Morningside before April 15. The right of using any or all of the manuscripts submitted is reserved by the Morningside. Professor Woodbury, of the faculty, Mr. W. A. Bradley from the Alumni, and Mr. T. G. Hopkins, editor-in-chief of the Columbia Spectator, have consented to act as judges.

Trustees Meeting

At a regular meeting of the trustees of Barnard College on March 14th it was directed that after the close of this academic year the use of Fiske Hall as a dormitory be discontinued, and that the building be altered for class-room and laboratory purposes. The trustees have been forced to this step by the rapid growth of the college and the consequent increasing demand for class-room and laboratory space.

The treasurer reported that $165,000 of the $200,000 needed to secure John D. Rockefeller's gift of $200,000 had been obtained: The remaining $35,000 must be raised by April 1st.

Notice

Mrs. Howard Taylor, of the China Inland Mission, will address the Mission Study Class on Tuesday morning, March 25th, at nine o'clock. All are invited to be present.

Chapel Notice

Bishop Andrews will address chapel Tuesday, March 25th, at 12.30.

Societe Francaise and Deutscher Kreis

Owing to the fact that the French play has been given up the Societe Francaise and the Deutscher Kreis have decided to combine for the purpose of giving a joint performance. The committee on arrangement consists of Miss Lyon, 1904, chairman; Miss McCormick, 1904, Miss Van Ingen, 1904, from the Societe Francaise; Miss Shainwald, 1903, chairman; Miss Mott, 1905, and Miss Nammberg, 1902, from the Deutscher Kreis.

BARNARD BULLETIN,
BARNARD COLLEGE,
COLUMBIA UNIV., N. Y.

MONDAY, MARCH 24, 1902

In this issue of the BULLETIN is published a letter from the French Society. The statement it contains—that the report in our last number was erroneous—is hardly just when one considers that the article referred to merely said that the Dean had advised the Society to take action. The letter itself states that the Dean called attention to the necessity "for improving the condition under which the plays were to be given." However, the Dean did not suggest, as far as we know, what kind of action should be taken. Therefore the actual severing of the two societies was through the students only.

The resignation of Mr. A. M. Day from the University is felt as a severe loss by all who were his students. He was undoubtedly one of the best instructors in the College. But since Mr. Day leaves us to be of service to a greater number of people, we are bound to be glad that he has entered on a broader field of work.

We take pleasure in announcing the election of Miss Jeanette Wick, 1904, as Assistant Business Manager.

Reception to 1905

Mrs. Annie Nathan Meyer, honorary member of the Class of 1902, will give a reception to the Class of 1905 at her home, 801 Madison avenue. The date has not yet been definitely decided upon. The officers of 1902 will receive with Mrs. Meyer. As a farewell to 1902, Mrs. Meyer will take the members of the class on a trip up the Hudson to West Point some time in May.

Notice

A fifteen minute prayer service will be held on Thursdays in the Alumnae Room at 1:10. All are invited to be present.

No Vacation

In reply to the request for two days' vacation the following letter has been received from the Dean:

My Dear Miss Pool: Your note has just been received informing me of the vote of the Undergraduate Association.

While believing fully in an Easter holiday, I think this current academic year has already been quite broken by various holidays, and will be yet more by the inauguration of President Butler. Also the exhaustion due to social and dramatic obligations seems to me more immanent and serious than that from actual college work. Moreover, the University regulations vest the power to change the calendar, as voted by the University Council, only in the President and the Board of Trustees. President Butler did not think it wise to grant this recess at Columbia College, and is now in the West where he cannot be consulted. The Trustees have no further meeting until after the Easter-tide.

No exercises will be held on the Saturday between Good Friday and Easter, so that a slight relief will be given and continuous rest from Thursday until Monday.

With regret that it does not seem possible to grant a request which would give so pleasant a change to both Faculty and students, I am,

Very faithfully yours,

Laura D. Gill, Dean.

Performance of "Pinafore"

A performance of "Pinafore" will be given by the Associated Clubs of the College Settlement, on Friday evening, April 4th, at 8 o'clock, at Manhattan Lyceum, 66 East 4th street. Tickets, at 35 cents each, may be had from Miss Stone, '04, or Miss Goodyear, '05. As this entertainment is given by a settlement in which Barnard should take particular interest and as the summer home at Mount Ivy, New York, is worthy of all possible encouragement, it is hoped that many students will respond to this opportunity of aiding the Settlement cause.

Mr. Shimmon Addresses the C. S. M. A.

On Thursday, March 13, Mr. Paul Shimmon addressed the C.S.M.A. in behalf of the Assyrian Missionary Committee. Mr. Shimmon spoke about the Assyrian Church, which has flourished for centuries in the very centre of a fanatic Mohammedan country, and has only in late years been practically rediscovered by the parent church. Christianity has had a beginning in Persia, and the strongest need of the Assyrian Church is now felt in the lack of industrial development among the native Christians, especially the women. To meet this need an Industrial Training School has been proposed, at Urim, Persia. This will do for the Assyrian girls what the missions are doing for the boys. It will open a means of self support among the Assyrian women in the making of Persian rugs and carpets. Fifty dollars will support a scholarship for one year, and even the smallest contributions are very welcome. Mr. Shimmon has been in this country collecting funds, and hopes to return to Urim next fall to open the school. It is expected that Mr. Shimmon will address the C.S.M.A. again this spring and will then talk even more definitely about the proposed work of the Training School.

Correspondence

While we are glad to publish any correspondence that may be sent us, we are not responsible for the sentiments expressed. Those who wish their correspondence published anonymously, must attach their own signature. Unsigned letters will receive no attention.

To the Editors of the BULLETIN:—

In view of the many erroneous statements which are being circulated throughout the College and especially because of that one appearing in the last week's Bulletin, the French Society of Barnard wishes to say that the action which it has recently taken in connection with the giving of the French plays this year and the dissolving of its relations with the French Society of Columbia has been taken purely and simply by the members of the Society of Barnard. On receiving a letter from the Dean, the Society was led to realize that some action would need to be taken for improving the conditions under which the plays were to be given. The step which was then determined upon was in no way suggested by the Dean or the French Department but was resolved upon by the members of the Society in accordance with their best judgments, and only after a most careful consideration of all the circumstances of the case. Signed

AMY LEAVITT HILL, Secretary

THEODORA CURTIS, President.

Jessie Kaufmann, member of the class of 1903, died suddenly, after a short illness, on Monday, March 17. As a dear personal friend, an earnest and high-minded fellow-student, and an indefatigable worker for the college interests, we deeply feel her loss.

Y. W. C. A. Nominations

The following is the report of the Nominating Committee of the Y. W. C. A.:

President: Miss Jean Miller, 1903.

Vice President: Miss May Harrison, 1903.

Recording Secretary: Miss Mary Gray, 1905.

Corresponding Secretary: Miss Ruth Reeder, 1905.

Treasurer: Miss Mabel Denton, 1904.

In addition the following names have been suggested by other members:

Vice-President: Miss L. K. Van Cise, 1903; Miss J. Loomis, 1904.

Recording Secretary: Miss E. Cahen, 1904.

Corresponding Secretary: Miss H. Rogers, 1903; Miss M. Gray, 1905; Miss F. Cheesman, 1903.

Y. W. C. A. Notice

It is particularly requested that all members of the Christian Association attend the regular meeting on Thursday, March 27th, at 12:30. A two-thirds quorum is absolutely necessary.

Literary Society Notes

The newly organized Literary Society is still nameless. At the last meeting, Thursday, March 20th, several names were suggested, but no one of them was generally acceptable.

Miss Lucy Sherman, 1903, was elected to membership.

Departmental Changes

The following departmental changes are announced for next year: Professor Trent will give a course in the Victorian poets, and will open a new graduate course in the English clergy to seniors who have done a certain amount of work in English literature; Professor G. R. Carpenter will take up the English essayists, and Mr. Brewster will offer an elective in English composition and will announce a course in English fiction; Dr. Krapp will give the Anglo-Saxon course formerly given by Professor Trent, and Professor Price will make his Shakespeare course a yearly one, his Chaucer course being now taken by Professor Trent.

In the Department of Philosophy, Psychology A will be given during the first term instead of the second term as heretofore. Professor Lord will also offer to those who have taken Psychology A, or its equivalent, an advanced course in psychology during the second term. In the second term both Philosophy Z—Ethics and Philosophy 9—Logic will be offered as electives.

Denbeigh Hall Destroyed

The loss of Denbeigh Hall, one of the finest of the Bryn Mawr College buildings, is a serious one. Denbeigh Hall was burned on the night of the 16th of March and its contents to the value of $35,000 were consumed. The individual losses of the seventy students who occupied rooms in the building have not yet been learned. President Thomas fears that the offer of $250,000 by John D. Rockefeller, which was conditional on the raising of an equal sum, will be endangered, as it will be hard for the College to recover from the effects of the fire. In order to arrange for temporary accommodation, the Easter vacation will be lengthened to two weeks.

President Butler's Inauguration

The undergraduate body as a whole will not be present at the official inauguration ceremonies on Saturday, April 19, owing to lack of space. Various officers of classes and student organizations and societies have been invited to attend as representatives.
