The Arrangement Committee consisted of Messrs. Frank Koref, Tobias Roth and Max Margulies. The clubs that were represented in the play were the Friendship Club, the A. O. V. Matron's Club, the A. O. V. Senior's Club, the A. O. V. Junior's Club, the Excelsior Club, the Clover Club, the Knickerbocker, the Leureate, the Tacoma, the Unity, the Greeley and the Rivington Clubs, twelve in all. The chairman of the association was Mr. Samuel Burstein. These clubs represent the social organizations of the College Settlement, and this play is the third entertainment they have given for the Benefit of Mt. Ivy and their summer home.

The performance was smooth and without a hitch. The players, notably the fair lovers, the Duke, and the hard-handed men of Athens, showed appreciation of their lines, and spoke them well. Only once in a while did the blank verse assert itself too much. Mention must be made of the splendid acting of Dick Bottom and Quince, the carpenter. Theseus was an imposing Duke, and Egeus, Hermia, Demetrius, Puck and Titania made the most of their parts. The stage grouping and the dances of the fairies were managed effectively. In all, much credit is due to the management, for the players were well trained, and the performance, with its large cast and its complicated plot, was a success. The music was excellent.

It is hoped that another performance may be given for an uptown audience. In that case, the college students should make an effort to attend what is an interesting and valuable performance of Shakespeare.

WAGNER LECTURES.

Professor Farnsworth, of Teachers' College, is giving a course of four lectures on Wagner's opera-cycle of the Nibelung Ring. The two remaining lectures, those on "Siegfried" and "Götterdämmerung," will be given in the Kindergarten Room at Teachers' College, at 8:30, on Monday, February 23, and Friday, February 27, respectively. In treating "Siegfried," Mr. Farnsworth will emphasize the relation of content to form, and in "Götterdämmerung" he will explain some general principles of art interpretation.

In the two lectures already delivered special attention was given to the first requisite of an understanding of Wagner's operas—art appreciation. Mr. Farnsworth said that we needed to realize first, the necessity of appreciation, and, secondly, its demands. "All true art has significance. It is great only as it contains some universal truth. Art is not a mere tickling of our senses, and those that would appreciate its meaning must beware of the cry, now heard on every side, 'Art for art's sake.' We must have imagination, experience and sympathy with all the joys and sorrows of life. Then art will give us something far greater than sensuous pleasures; it will help us interpret the meaning of our inner life."

VISIT OF M. MONOD TO BARNARD.

Monsieur A. Francois Monod, of the University of Paris, visited several of the history classes at Barnard last week. Monsieur Monod is both nephew and pupil of Gabriel Monod, the historian, and has been sent here by the French Government to investigate methods of teaching history in the United States. He has been in this country several months and has visited Johns Hopkins, Princeton and Bryn Mawr, but has spent most of his time at Columbia. He expects to go to Harvard, and probably to Vassar and Smith before his return to France.

UNDERGRADUATE PLAY NOTICE.

As "The Honey-Moon" has not met with the general approval of the college, the committee is trying to find a play that will be entirely satisfactory. The trial for parts has, in the nature of the case, been indefinitely postponed.

BARNARD BULLETIN,

BARNARD COLLEGE,

Broadway & 119th Street, COLUMBIA UNIV., N. Y.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1905

We regret to announce the resignation of Jean W. Miller as editor-in-chief. Owing to illness, Miss Miller has been absent from college for several weeks, so that her resignation seemed to her unavoidable.

In response to a sentiment more or less prevalent in the college that the regulations concerning the moving of furniture are unnecessary, we have undertaken to look into the matter. The facts are these:—as a result of several breakages of furniture last year, the House Committee established the rule that no furniture in the building should be moved by the students. This limitation has caused considerable annoyance in the staging of plays, and, as we have said, some comment. Moreover it has not been clearly understood why students are not allowed to move furniture belonging to organizations or to individuals of their number. Yet the authorities at Barnard are responsible to the trustees for any injury done to the walls or stairways, as well as to the movable property of the college. On these grounds alone they object to the moving. As evidence of this, it has been stated that if any organization desiring the removal of furniture from other parts of the building to the theatre will make written application to the Dean several days in advance, men accustomed to do such work will be supplied. If the work is light and such that it can be accomplished without delay there will probably be no charge; in any case, the charge will not be great.

The suggestion has also been made that furniture can be had out of the supply left from Fiske Hall, and kept in the storage room for use on the stage. This suggestion, however, is of less value than it would have been earlier in the season, in view of the fact that little remains of the Fiske Hall furniture, and this little is mostly of a sort unavailable for stage purposes.

The victory of the Freshman basket-ball team over the Sachs' School team has done much toward encouraging players on the Varsity team as well as Freshmen. Barnard needs a few victories in order that players may go into these games with the feeling that they are going to win. The basket-ball teams seldom get into good working order until after the mid-year examinations are over. Now that a regular schedule of games has been arranged, the players hope that more enthusiasm and interest will be shown by students, particularly Seniors and Juniors. The spirit of Sophomores and Freshmen is already commendable.

GERMAN DICTIONARIES.

The Bulletin has presented two German dictionaries—Hinds and Noble—to the Reading Room.

Y. W. C. A. NOTICE.

The following is an extract from a letter from Miss Anna M. Burr, acting chairman of the Young Women's Christian Association of New York and New Jersey, in regard to the convention held recently in Earl Hall:

"We wish to send to the Barnard Association a message of sincere gratitude for their cordial co-operation in caring for the delegates during those days. The services so freely given by its members were truly appreciated by all who received them."

READING AT ST. LUKE'S.

Last year quite a number of the girls went over to St. Luke's Hospital to read to the patients. The Y. W. C. A. is very desirous of having volunteers for the same work during this semester. It is only necessary for each girl to go twice during the term and she may choose the dates from the days which are decided upon by the committee. All students who are willing to do this work are requested to give their names to any of the following students: Eliza Fry, 1903; Jean Eggleston, 1904; Elizabeth Sherman, 1905; Elizabeth Donnan, 1905.

MAGAZINES FOR SOLDIERS.

The Philanthropic Committee of the Y. W. C. A. is very anxious to secure reading matter for the soldiers in the Philippines. The members of the committee earnestly request that the girls bring to college magazines and other leaflets which they can use. These magazines can be left in the reading room, when enough have been accumulated. The Y. W. C. A. will be glad to accept them, and they will be forwarded to the soldiers.

DEUTSCHER KREIS.

The next meeting of the Deutscher Kreis will be held on Friday, February 25, at 4 o'clock.

It was decided that the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the establishment of the College should be held in October, 1904. It was also decided that beginning with 1904, there should be a vacation at Easter, from Thursday to Monday inclusive, and that there should be no holidays on Washington's and Lincoln's birth-days.

The Council further decided to give credit for work in the summer session and in the extension courses.

EXAMINATION BOARD MEETING.

It has been announced that the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Middle States and Maryland will hold its next annual meeting at Columbia University on the Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving Day, November 27, and 28.

Hereafter practice will be on Tuesdays, at the usual time, 3:30, but on Thursdays, at 2:30, so that those from out of town may have the benefit of full two hours practice. Every one is urged to be on hand promptly in order that practice may be stopped before dark.

The Barnard basket-ball team will play the Normal College team on Saturday morning, February 28, at 11:30, in the Barnard gymnasium.

PROFESSOR MABILLEAU'S LECTURE.

Professor Wheeler's lecture on "Attic Grave Monuments" has been postponed from Monday, February 23, to Tuesday, February 24.

FREE COURSES IN FRENCH.

Co-Operative Plan of Columbia University and Alliance Francaise.

In co-operation, as provided for by the agreement entered into and approved in December, 1902, and January last, Columbia University and the Alliance Francaise of New York have determined to establish free courses, open to the public, for the teaching of the French language.

Two of the courses are to be opened this month in the buildings of the Medical School of Columbia University, Fifty-ninth street and Tenth avenue, and the Speyer School, in Lawrence street. The courses, which are to be elementary in character, are to be conducted by Messrs. Stanislas Le Roy and Coheleach.

Lessons are to be given three times a week, in the evening, each lesson to be of one hour's duration, until the end of May next. No fee is to be charged for tuition, but there is to be a registration fee of $1. The number of pupils in each class is to be limited to fifty.

Cards of admission are to be obtained from George Cante, secretary of the Alliance Francaise of New York, 120 Broadway, to whom application must be sent, with the amount of the registration fee. Each application must contain the full name and address of the person to whom the card is to be issued and the location of the school which the applicant intends to attend.—New York Times.

New Books for the Reading Room.

Miss Louise B. Lockwood, Barnard '95, has recently given the Reading Room a very handsome de luxe edition of "The International Library of Masterpieces: Literature, Art and Rare Manuscripts." The set consists of thirty volumes in half morocco, beautifully illustrated with half-tone reproductions of master-pieces in painting and sculpture, together with portraits of authors. Notable selections are made from the principal authors of all ages and nations. As a reference library of literature, nothing is more complete, more representative and more up to date.

We are also indebted to Miss Lockwood for a portfolio of 18 photogravures, reproductions of famous paintings by Edgar M. Ward, J. Carroll Beckwith, Robert Minor and fifteen other eminent American artists. Some of the pictures are in colors, some in sepia and others in black and white, all produced under the personal direction of the artist, making a handsome and valuable collection. Printer's ink and type can give no adequate idea of the beauty and delicacy of these pictures.

The folio contains, besides the pictures, a portrait of each artist represented and a full page sketch of his life work.

Professor Wheeler's Lecture Postponed.

Prof. Leopold Mabileau will deliver a series of four lectures on the "Population of France" in the Horace Mann Auditorium. It will be remembered that he lectured at Columbia last winter also. The schedule of lectures is as follows:

Thursday, March 5, 3:30 P. M., "Le Paysan."

Saturday, March 7, 11 A. M., "L'Ouvrier."

Thursday, March 12, 3:30 P. M., "Le Bourgeois."

1905 NOTICE.

A meeting of the class of 1905 was held on Thursday, February 19, 1903. The chairman of the Sophomore Play Committee reported that the play would be given on May 7 and 8, the first performance for the college, the second, at which an entrance fee will be charged, for the friends of the students. The chairman of the Class Entertainment Committee reported that there would be a class social on Friday, March 6. Miss Einstein, a special, was elected a regular member of the class.

COURSES IN SUMMER SESSION.

An endeavor has been made this year to have the Summer Session work conform as closely as possible to the studies of the curriculum of the academic year, so that students desiring to pursue certain subjects which conflict of hours may prevent them from taking, may be enabled to enjoy these privileges in the Summer Session, or by selecting required subjects may have their time free for other studies during their college year.

An unusually attractive program has been arranged for the coming summer. Mr. Fred W. Atkinson, late General Superintendent of Education in the Philippine Islands, will give a course of thirty lectures which will be of great value to those who would like to obtain extensive information on the subject of the Philippine Islands. Professor Joseph Jastrow, of the University of Wisconsin, will give courses in Psychology, and Professor Wilbur L. Cross, course in English. Mr. F. Louis Soldan, Superintendent of Schools at St. Louis, Mo., will give two courses in Education.
