STUDENTS PHOTOGRAPHED.

Academic exercises were suspended on Friday noon for an hour in order to have a photograph taken of the students as they were grouped at the celebration on March 6th.

Since this is the only fete for several years which has included the entire membership of the college, it presented an exceptional opportunity for a characteristic photograph. Three groups were taken. One panoramic view of all students as grouped in the cloisters. This was necessarily postponed until the shrubs were in foliage and until the students could be out of doors without risk to health. The second picture was of the entire student body as grouped in the theatre, and was taken by flashlight. The third group showed the Senior Class on the stairway as they were marching toward the Theatre, and gave an excellent view of the main entrance to Milbank Hall.

While the students were in the Theatre the Dean spoke to them for a few moments about the relation of the new gift to future growth, about New York, and also of the way in which the College should look upon the gift.

Mrs. Anderson has taken genuine satisfaction in meeting from time to time the growth, about the special friendliness shown in meeting a need which costs so enormously in New York, and also of the way in which the College should look upon the gift. wishes us all to remember that she gives Barnard College three blocks of land, which will ensure full provision for any possible future growth. She would like us to forget the terms of money in which the worth of the land was temporarily expressed for the purpose of purchase.

There was no attempt on the part of the students to repeat a celebration which had once been effectively carried out and could only be weak in repetition. It may, however, be said that the photographs were intentionally taken on the day when the gift was officially made to the Trustees of the College, and accepted by them. In years to come the date associated with the gift will not be March 6, the day of securing the land from the New York Hospital, but April 17, the date of the official gift to the Board of Trustees by Mrs. Anderson.

LECTURES ON FRENCH DRAMATISTS.

The dates of the following lectures on French dramatists have been changed:

The lecture on "The Painters of Society, Augier and Dumas Fils," has been changed from April 23 to April 22.

The lecture on "Reaction and Counter-reaction"; "The Theatre Libre and the Revival of the Heroic Drama," announced for April 30, has been changed to April 29.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT REGULATIONS.

The following are the regulations of the Tennis Tournament:

All preliminary matches, to be counted, must be played before May 3. Winners of the first two preliminary matches shall play together and the winner of this match shall play the winner of the third preliminary for the class championship.

Tournament players have the right of way on the courts.

Two sets out of three shall decide each match.

Arrangement of preliminary matches:

Juniors.

Marjorie Macon vs. Jean Egleston.

Mary Frothingham vs. Jean Loomis.

May Parker vs. Bessie Swan.

Sophomores.

Abigail Talbot vs. Marjorie Hoffman.

Sallie Fletcher vs. Edith Handy.

Edith Fetteretch vs. Annie Fisher.

DORMITORY NOTES.

The residents of Whittier Hall gave a dance in the rotunda on the evening of Friday, April 17. The committee in charge were Clara Applegate and Helen Wilbur, Teachers College.

The circular for Whittier Hall for 1903-04 is just out and it may be noticed that there is apparently a considerable rise in the rental of rooms and price of board. In fact, many complaints have already been heard concerning this. For the benefit of those Barnard students who intend to live in the dormitory the coming year it may be well to give a few words of explanation.

Those in charge of Whittier Hall and the Realty Company which manages it financially, have found that the income this year has not met expenditures, and therefore have found it necessary to raise the price of the rooms. The price of board has also been slightly raised in order that the food may be somewhat better next year. In addition they have deemed it wise to have the rent, board, and charge for laundry paid in a lump sum in advance as is done in almost all other college dormitories.

Because these three items have been thus put together the total seems much larger than last year, while actually it has been raised barely ten per cent. Though ten per cent. does seem considerable more, it must be remembered that the college year has been lengthened fully two weeks by the recent decision of the University Council, so some extra charge would necessarily have to be made for that time. Thus in reality the increase in rent and board has been very slight indeed, and the figure at which laundry is included is remarkably small. All these changes have been made after most careful consideration on the part of the dormitory authorities and were inevitable. It is hoped that this explanation will clear up the misunderstanding of the matter.

CHANGES IN THE DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY.

There are several new features in the Announcement of the Department of Philosophy for the year 1903-04. Among the changes that will affect Barnard most directly are the following: Philosophy I—History of Philosophy—up to this time given only at Columbia, will be given at Barnard by Dr. Jones. Philosophy 3—The philosophy of Kant; and Philosophy 4—British philosophy from Locke to Herbert Spencer, will both be given next year. Philosophy 3 has been restricted to the philosophy of Kant and a new course—Philosophy 20, has been introduced, which will take up the work of the post-Kantian idealists this year included under Philosophy 3. Philosophy 9—Logic and Scientific method—will be given by Dr. Jones as a first half-year course only, making a continuous course with Philosophy 2—Ethics—given by Professor Lord during the second half-year.

TEACHERS COLLEGE LECTURES.

The lectures and concerts arranged for officers and students of Teachers College and their friends are open to the public without charge.

Friday, April 17, at 4:30, Booker T. Washington, of the Tuskegee Institute, spoke on "Industrial Education."

Monday, April 20, at 4:30, Hon. W. W. Stetson, Superintendent of Education for the State of Maine, will speak on "Phases of the Rural School Problem in the North."

Wednesday, April 22, at 8:15 p. m., a concert will be given by the Choral Club.

Wednesday, April 29, at 4:30, Dean Gill will speak under the auspices of the Kindergarten Club. Miss Gill's subject will be "American Influence upon Public Education in Cuba."

The lectures will be held in the Memorial Chapel, Teachers College; the concerts in the auditorium of Horace Mann School.

VASSAR ENDOWMENT BENEFIT.

A performance of "As You Like It" for the benefit of the Vassar Endowment Fund will be given at the Victoria Theatre on the anniversary of Shakespeare's birthday, April 23. The cast contains Minna Gale, Kyrle Bellew, Nora O'Brien, Percy Winter, son of William Winter; Sydney Herbert, William Muldoon, Alfred Hickman and George Clarke. Mr. Clarke will have charge of the production. Tickets are now on sale at the theatre.

SOCIETE FRANCAISE.

La Societe Francaise will have a social meeting on Tuesday afternoon, April 21, at 4:30, in the theatre. Marie Fontaine, '06, will read some selections from Daudet.

BARNARD BULLETIN,

BARNARD COLLEGE,

Broadway & 119th Street,

COLUMBIA UNIV., N. Y.

MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1903

The Tennis Committee has done well to set a time limit for the preliminary matches of the spring tournament. No such arrangements were made last fall. As a consequence the final match was delayed by the earlier matches until the setting in of winter weather prevented its being played. The present system will hasten the preliminary matches, give the class champions time to compete for the cup before examinations, and will put any postponement of finals out of the question.

Although it was intended that the exchanges should be read in the BULLETIN Room, it seems inconvenient and arbitrary to make any regulation to prevent girls from taking them to the Reading Room or studies. Nevertheless the temporary loss of several magazines and also of some of the books belonging to the Barnard Bear force us to call the attention of the students to the carelessness of some in the matter of taking out and mislaying reading matter in the BULLETIN Room. Magazines should not be taken away unless by permission of one of the editors and should be returned when not in use. In no case should they be carried from the college. If these suggestions are not followed it will be necessary to have some system for keeping track of the papers, such as is in effect in the Reading Room. This would involve a great deal of trouble for all concerned and we wish to leave matters as they are if possible.

The afternoon teas, luncheons and receptions served by the Purssell Mfg. Co., of 916 Broadway, are in daintiest form, and are perfections of the caterer's art.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Though we are glad to publish letters signed by their writers, we are not responsible for the sentiments expressed. Unsigned letters will receive no attention.

To the Editors of the BULLETIN:

The BULLETIN has always encouraged the writing and singing of college songs and has succeeded in raising considerable interest in the matter. Yet hitherto with a few exceptions, such as "The Heights of Morningside," and "Fair Barnard," we have produced not undergraduate, but class songs. So it is particularly timely to have three such spirited contributions set to well-known airs as the BULLETIN printed last week. These songs the college as a whole can sing though written by the Seniors for themselves. Why don't the other classes follow the example of the Senior Class and give over such of their songs as are suitable for the whole undergraduate body?

At present there are song committees in the different classes, but, I think, none for the college as a whole. Such a committee should be appointed and I commend this suggestion to the Undergraduate Association.

1902 NEWS.

The Class of 1902 held a meeting in the Alumnae Room on Monday, April 13. The president, Miss Elizabeth Allen, presided, and over twenty members were present. It was decided to hold a social reunion Saturday, April 25. Luncheon will be served in the college dining room, and the class will then attend the Undergraduate Play.

All members of 1902 who wish to attend either the luncheon or the theatre party, or both, must communicate at once with a member of the arrangement committee. The committee is Miss Berkeley, Miss Armstrong, and Miss Alsberg. Play tickets for the alumnae will cost only 50 cents.

FRESHMEN WIN AT BASKETBALL.

The Freshman team played an exciting game of basketball with the Eta Nu Pi team of the Ethical Culture High School, on Tuesday afternoon, April 14, in the Barnard gymnasium. The Freshmen won by a score of 4-2. The line-up of 1906 was as follows:

Edith Somborn, Captain.... Forward.
Irma Seeligman Forward.
Belle Russell Centre.
Madeline Rohr Guard.
Faith Chipperfield Guard.

In the first half one field goal was thrown for each side, for Eta Nu Pi by Miss Wurzbarger, for Barnard 1906 by Irma Seeligman. No goals were thrown in the second half. Since the score was a tie at the end of the second half, it was decided to play until the first goal was thrown, which is the custom in a tie game. Edith Somborn threw a goal, which gave the game to the Freshman team.

TICKETS FOR THE PLAY.

Tickets for the Undergraduate Play can now be obtained from the following students: Ethel Pool '03, Anita Cahn '03, Romola Lyon '04, Jeannette Wick '04, Annie Fisher '05 and Blanche Marks '06. The price is 50 cents for students and alumni, and $1 for their guests.

COLLEGE SETTLEMENT ASSOCIATION.

Report of the Chapters.

(The greater part of this report was crowded out of last week's issue. The report is here printed in full.)

The Electoral Board of the Association makes the following report for the year 1902:

WELLESLEY.

In Wellesley there has been a falling off of subscriptions for the past year; three sub-chapters have been started by Wellesley graduates, two of which have become general chapters, while the third is affiliated with the Wellesley Alumnae Chapter. Early in the fall a tea was given to the Freshman Class by the chapter where the class had the opportunity of meeting and hearing from the President of the Association and the Headworker of the Boston Settlement.

One hundred and thirty-seven dollars was raised by the annual doll show and candy sale, the proceeds of which were given to Denison House for the Children's Christmas. Two hundred dolls were divided between the Boston and Philadelphia Settlements. Much interest was aroused by the performance at the College of "Richelieu," by the Denison Dramatic Club of young men from Denison House. In addition, there have been occasional "settlement trips" to acquaint girls with the house and the work.

SMITH.

The report from Smith is most encouraging. Both Alumnae and Undergraduate Electors bear witness to an increased and deepened interest in the Association among members of the College, and this result has been obtained in the fact of many new calls on the students, including a special call to raise money for a college fund. Addresses have been made by the Electors, the Secretary of the Association and by Professor Emerick, of the College.

VASSAR.

The Vassar College Elector reports an address by Miss Williams. A Christmas box was sent to Rivington street and in the spring one hundred children from the Settlement spent a day at the College. The plans for the erection of a clubhouse for the maids of the College, to be partially under the control of the Chapter, and the organization of over twenty classes among the maids has aroused special interest.

BRYN MAWR.

There has been a decrease in the subscriptions among the Alumnae of Bryn Mawr, owing to the great activity exerted toward the raising of the College Library Fund. The College Elector reports great eagerness on the part of the members for active work, though plans to meet this demand have been interfered with by the smallpox epidemic in Philadelphia. An address was given by Miss Williams on "The History and Work of the Settlement," also a talk on "Child Labor in the South." The Economic Club has continued its meetings successfully.

RADCLIFFE.

At Radcliffe the large expenditure of time and effort has not been followed with proportionate results. Many of the Alumnae have contributed to the payment of rent for a room for cooking and laundry classes at Denison House and have helped to provide monthly entertainments at the Settlement. The usual monthly entertainments at Denison House have been kept up, two entertainments were given at the Elizabeth Peabody Settlement House and a dramatization of Tennyson's "The Princess," was given at the College for the benefit of the Association.

TELEPHONE, 3277 Main

WELLS.

At Wells College there has been a continued increase in membership and subscriptions.

CORNELL.

From Cornell there comes an expression of the great need of practical work to keep up the interest awakened by occasional talks.

SWARTHMORE.

At Christmas over eighty dolls were dressed at Swarthmore College and in May more than twenty children from Philadelphia were entertained at the College.

ELMIRA.

The usual amount of interest and a growing enthusiasm among new students is reported at Elmira. However, among the alumnae the subscription has been smaller than during the previous year.

BALTIMORE.

The report from the Woman's College, of Baltimore, has not been encouraging. Though there has been some enthusiasm, it has not been general and the result of this apathy has been an unsuccessful year.

BARNARD.

The report from the Barnard Chapter is more hopeful. The performance of "Pinafore," library work at the Settlement, and daily service of alumnae under the direction of Miss Williams have ministered greatly to the practical success of the work. Beside their interest in "Pinafore" the college girls have sent useful boxes to the Settlement from time to time during the year.

BUCKNELL.

The two Chapters of Bucknell University have lost their place on the Board through inability to raise the required subscription.

MT. HOLYOKE.

The first report of the Mount Holyoke Chapter is full of interest. One hundred and
