DEUTSCHER KREIS PLAY.

On Tuesday afternoon, March 22, the Deutscher Kreis entertained the College with a play by Alexander Elz entitled: "Er ist nicht eifersüchtig." All four parts were taken very well. Edith Somborn, '06, who played the young wife deeply in love with her husband whose lack of jealousy grieves her as an indication that he no longer cares for her, was a charming Cécilie; Agnes Ernst, '07, took the part of the indifferent and then of the passionate husband with much spirit; while Edwina Levy, '05, was a sympathetic and humorous uncle. These, with Grace McColl, '06, who made a very respectable little family servant, composed the entire cast, which succeeded admirably in furnishing a pleasant entertainment.

The other feature of the afternoon was the violin playing of Marie Fontaine, assisted by Irene Reeder. She played "The Evening Star," by Wagner, and "Legende," by Bohm.

THE DEBATE IN ENGLISH 9.

On Wednesday, March 23, a debate was held by the Class of English 9 on the subject: Resolved, That the victory of Japan over Russia would be to the best interests of civilization. The affirmative side of the question was upheld by Mary Frothingham, '04, and Florence Hubbard, '04; the negative by Edith Handy, '05, and Mary Harri-man. The affirmative won.

FACULTY NOTES.

Next year Dr. James T. Shotwell, of the Department of History, will have leave of absence. He expects to go abroad, and will devote his time to the study of the medieval period. During his absence, History A and History 3 will be given by Miss Louise Loomis, and History 2 by Mr. Charles A. Beard.

MR. HICKS AT CHAPEL.

On Wednesday, March 23, Chapel was conducted by Mr. Harry Wade Hicks, one of the prominent speakers at Silver Bay last summer. Mr. Hicks has spent considerable time this winter in visiting several of the more important women's colleges, including Vassar, Wellesley and Bryn Mawr. The subject of Mr. Hicks' talk was the value of personal conversation on the subject of religion. Delicacy and fear of offending should not, the speaker urged, restrain us from earnest and tireless effort to impress upon our friends and associates the value of religion as it appeals to us, and the greatest and most efficacious of these efforts are those of personal interview.

CHAPEL.

Dr. E. Cobb of the West End Church will speak at Chapel on Tuesday, March 29.

FIELD DAY TROPHY.

A silver loving-cup will be presented to the Undergraduate Association next week by Elsa Alsberg, '02, for a Field Day trophy. The donor attaches only one condition to the gift, namely, that the cup shall be the property of the Undergraduate Association and shall be held for a year by the class coming out victorious in the annual Field Day contests. The cup will be placed on view as soon as it comes.

MEETING OF ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

There will be an important meeting of the Athletic Association on Wednesday, March 30, at 12:20 in Room 139. The chief business is the consideration of the spring tennis tournament. It is important that there be a quorum as the business cannot very well be postponed till after Easter.

1904 CLASS SONGS.

At a special meeting of the Class of 1904 these two songs were chosen to be put in the Barnard Song Book: "There's a College on the Hill-top," to the tune "The Orange and the Black," and "Here's to the Good Old College Days," to the tune of "Heidelberg."

1905.

At a special meeting, held on Monday, March 21, the Class of 1905 decided that the cotillion to be given to the Seniors shall take place on Monday, April 11, at four o'clock. Those who come are requested to wear masks.

At a special meeting held on Thursday, March 24, the two class songs were chosen for the College Song Book. The first was "The Watch on the Rhine," words by Helen W. Cooley, and the second, "The Orange and the Black," words by F. Hope Purdon.

DORMITORY NEWS.

On Saturday evening, March 26, the residents of Whittier Hall gave a number of sketches taken from "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and its sequel, "Lovey Mary." The proceeds of the performance are to be donated to the Speyer School.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE.

For the week of March 28 basketball practice will continue on Monday and Wednesday, in order to get two practice days before the holidays. All are urged to come, in order to get in readiness for the Field Day game.

MORRIS CLUB.

There will be an important meeting of the Morris Club on Monday, March 28, at one o'clock in the Mortarboard Room. All members are urged to be present.

Y. W. C. A. ELECTION.

The regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. to elect officers for 1904-1905 will be held on Monday, March 28, at 12:20 in Room 139, by order of the president.

The following nominations have been announced by the nominating committee: President, A. L. Durant, '05; vice-president, Lily Murray, '05; secretary, L. P. Johnson, '07; corresponding secretary, E. Evans, '06; treasurer, M. Murtha, '06.

Any other nominations must be put in Locker 56, Senior Study, before noon on Monday to receive any consideration.

Other nominations for officers are:

President, Laura H. Parker, '05; vice-president, Laura H. Parker, '05; secretary, Mary Murtha, '06; treasurer, Elizabeth Post, '06.

BARNARD BULLETIN,

BARNARD COLLEGE,
Broadway & 119th Street, COLUMBIA UNIV., N. Y.

MONDAY, MARCH 28, 1904.

We wish to call attention to the notices of the various events for Field Day that have been posted in the studies.

The Committee has given the arrangements considerable thought and work in the hope of making the first celebration a great success, and it is confidently expected that a large number of students will enter into the celebration.

Let those who can take part do so for their own pleasure, for the entertainment of the student body, and for the honor of their class.

The Deutscher Kreis should be credited with having given an entertaining play to the College without spending the money on coaching, costuming, and staging which has been considered necessary in the recent production of plays by college organizations. The play was simple, short and well acted. So in spite of certain crudities, excusable in so unpretentious a performance, the audience was interested and amused. The violin solos rendered by Marie Fontaine at the opening of the performance were particularly attractive.

The social gathering after the performance was a revival of a pleasant feature of college entertainments.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Although we are glad to publish letters signed by their writers, we are not responsible for the sentiments expressed. Unsigned letters will receive no attention.

To the Editor of the BULLETIN:

At the very start I disclaim any intention of saying anything about the quality of food supplied in the lunch-room. I merely wish to suggest two things: First, that students do not reserve seats for friends, who may or may not appear to claim them, while others are trying to eat luncheon standing; and, second, that some of the tables and chairs in the "regular lunch" room could be put to good use in the other dining-room, as they are not needed where they now are. To be sure, the yellow furniture will not harmonize with the black, but is that as important as the comfort of the students?

Will not some one remind the Self-government Committee that it exists?

C. S. M. A.

On Monday, March 21, Rev. Dr. Robert B. Kimber, Superintendent of the Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, lecturer before the members of the C. S. M. A. and other students. Dr. Kimber told of the mission stations in the city, and of the helpful work done in hospitals and penitentiaries and among the children in regard to play and fresh air.

MISS MELBY ADDRESSES C. S. A.

On Thursday, March 24, Miss Melby, a missionary at Ellis Island, made an address before the members of the C. S. A. and other students of the College. Miss Melby's work is chiefly among Swedes and Norwegians, because she is familiar with the two languages.

Miss Melby told how when families are scattered because one or more of the members are detained, she is able often to gather them together again. She distributes tracts to deported people and helps them in other ways.

LAW LECTURES.

A course of eight University lectures on "Professional Opportunities of the Lawyer" will be given under the auspices of the Association of the Alumni of the School of Law, in the Auditorium, Earl Hall, on successive Wednesdays at 4:30 P.M.

TEACHERS COLLEGE NOTES.

The Graduate Club of Teachers College will be addressed on Wednesday, April 6, by Professor Livingston Farrand, on "Anthropology and Its Bearings on Education."

The Bryson Library of Teachers College will on the afternoon of Friday, April 8, hold a reception for the officers and the graduate students of the College.

The Phillips Brooks Guild, the religious organization of the College, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Alma L. Binzel; vice-president, Frances Weems; secretary, Frances H. Hibbard; treasurer, Edith Ellen Lyon.

The plans of the Educational Museum for the future include special exhibits of primitive weaving, of appliances and apparatus for teaching geography, history and nature study, several displays of new text-books, and a general exhibit bearing upon the Panama Canal and its surroundings. All of these will be open to the educational and the general public without charge. The Museum hopes also to be of service to educators and institutions at a distance, by correspondence and the circulation of typical exhibits. It hopes finally to inaugurate systematic instruction in the sources and use of illustrative and decorative material for schools, in the significance and management of museums as departments of public and private schools and of university faculties of education, and in the whole field of museum technic and use.

Recent gifts of special interest are collections of textiles from the Philadelphia Museums, and of material illustrative of the life of the Indians in the Southwest, from B. Talbot B. Hyde, Esq., a trustee of the College.

NOTES FROM OTHER COLLEGES.

At a recent meeting in Chicago, the Vassar Alumnae Association of the West pledged itself to raise $70,000 for the College before Founder's Day, April 29.

Of this sum $50,000 will be applied to a fund for the endowment of the James M. Taylor Chair of Biblical Literature, named in honor of President Taylor. The rest will go to the general endowment fund.

Further efforts are being made in aid of the college endowment by the New York City Vassar Aid Society. This society will give a musicale breakfast at the
