UNDERGRADUATE ASSOCIATION.

There will be a special meeting of the Undergraduate Association on Thursday, October 13, at 12.20 in the theatre. The business of the meeting will be to consider the report of the Executive Committee which is as follows:—

Article 1. Whereas, Student Council has been instituted by the Faculty Committee on Student Organizations to consist at the outset of nine members—namely, the President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary of the Undergraduate Association, the chairman of the Executive Committee of the Undergraduate Association, and the four class presidents—and whereas, the duties of this Student Council are to serve as a medium of communication between the Faculty and students, as well as between the various student organizations, to represent the students in their common interests and in general to control the management of all matters concerning the conduct of students in their college life that are not strictly academic, be it

RESOLVED, that we substitute this council for the Self-Government Committee that has heretofore existed, and be it

RESOLVED, that we regard this Student Council as representative of the interests of undergraduates before the Faculty.

Article 2. Section 1. There shall be during the college year three undergraduate social events,—two teas and one undergraduate play.

Section 2. The teas shall be on Friday, December 10, 1904, and Friday, March 3, 1905.

3. The undergraduate play shall be on April.

Section 1. The members of undergraduate play committee shall consist of two Seniors, one of whom shall be one of the Committee, two Juniors, more, and one Freshman.

2. The members of this committee shall be elected by the classes which they represent.

3. The Committee shall be elected by each class at the regular meeting of the Executive Committee.

CECIL I. DORRIAN,
Chairman Executive Committee.

LAW LECTURES.

A series of seven lectures on Law in relation to History will be delivered by The Carpentier Foundation by James Bryce, D.C.L., LL.D., on October 10, at 4.30 P.M.—The subject of Law to other cognate branches of thought and study. The Study of Law in the abstract and in the concrete. History as the key to the Comparative Method. How the Historical and Comparative Methods ought to be applied.

Wednesday, October 12, at 4.30 P.M.—The Relations of Law and History explained and illustrated from a study of the Sources and the Substance of Law. Outlines of the History of the Sources of Law at Rome and in the countries which have followed the Roman Law.

Friday, October 14, at 4.30 P.M.—Outlines of the History of Law-making Authorities and the Sources of Law in England and in the United States.

Saturday, October 15, at 11 A.M.—How the substance of the Roman Law was moulded by the historical development of the Roman People and State. How the Substance of the Law of England has been affected by the course of English History.

Monday, October 17, at 4.30 P.M.—Further remarks on the history of Anglo-American Law. Observations on the influence of the special historical conditions of the United States on the development of American Law. Some illustrations from the legal history of France, Germany and Scotland. A recent Scotch ecclesiastical case.

Wednesday, October 19, at 4.30 P.M.—The Nature of Constitutional and Public Law in England and the United States as seen in the light of History. International Law considered as an Historical Product.

Friday, October 21, at 4.30 P.M.—The Place of Legal History in General History. Observations on the part played by law in the development of a Nation and a State. Reflections on the Value of History to the Lawyer and the Legislator.

The Syllabus is intended to indicate the order in which the topics will be discussed; but it may happen that those assigned to a particular day cannot be fully disposed of upon that day, so the assignment of topics to days is not to be taken as binding.

The lectures will be delivered in the Auditorium of Earl Hall. Seats will be reserved for members of the Alumni Association of the Law School and for students in the Schools of Law and Political Science until ten minutes before the beginning of each lecture. The seats then remaining will for five minutes be reserved for other students of the University, after which the public will be admitted up to the capacity of the Auditorium.

DEUTSCHER KREIS.

Applications for membership in the Deutscher Kreis should be placed in locker 60, Senior-Study, before October 15. All who have taken German A or its equivalent are eligible. Further information will be gladly furnished by any of the officers of the society.

LILY S. MURRAY, 1905, President.

THE LYCEUM CLUB.

In London last April, a number of prominent women organized a Lyceum club with the purpose of bringing the work of women in Literature, Art, Journalism, Science, or Music into the international market. In every country representative committees are in course of formation to promote the welfare and protect the interests of members, so that it may be as easy for a member to exhibit or sell her work in other countries as in her own.

Membership is limited to the women of any nationality who have published some original work, who have University qualifications, or who are wives or daughters of men distinguished in these lines.

Very often it is difficult for women to find a publisher for their writings even in their own country, and well nigh impossible in other countries. Under the system of the Lyceum Club a woman can send her contribution to a committee who will judge its worth and procure publication in all modern languages. Although it is not easy to bring a musician's composition before the public, the club aims to assist women in this field also by arranging a series of concerts through which the outside world will become acquainted with any musical production. More conveniently can a painting or sketch obtain recognition through a series of exhibitions which will travel from one art centre to another in Europe and America.

The development of the Lyceum Club is of special interest to Barnard students because Miss Gill is one of the charter members of the American Branch. As the guest of honor last June Miss Gill addressed a luncheon company on the question of Woman's Wages in the United States.

Y. W. C. A. ENTERTAINS FRESHMEN.

One of the most enjoyable receptions to Freshmen ever given by the Y. W. C. A. took place on Thursday, October 6 in Earl Hall. The entertainment was in the form of a series of games. Agnes Miller '08 won the prize, a set of collar and cuffs embroidered with tiny Barnard flags.

This reception was the first chance the Freshmen had had to enter into the fun and good-fellowship which characterize Barnard's social affairs, and they thoroughly appreciated it. Much credit is due to the committee, of which Florence Nye '05 was chairman, for the success of the entertainment.

The Y. W. C. A. announces that beginning on October 17, they will receive at Earl Hall every Monday afternoon from 3 to 6, and they extend a cordial invitation of welcome to all students.

BARNARD BULLETIN,

BARNARD COLLEGE,
Broadway & 119th Street, COLUMBIA UNIV., N. Y.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1904.

A number of Barnard's clubs and associations have begun the new year with unusual energy and vigor. Earlier than ever before the various societies have begun activities. The Young Women's Christian Association in particular has shown that plans for the year's work were well under way long before the academic year began. The Reception Committee welcomed and guided new students on the first day; teachers of the Bible Classes had their work planned ready to begin Bible study without delay, and the Y. W. C. A. Blue Book appeared in good time, instructive, complete, and interesting.

The Athletic Association, too, has been prominent this fall. Entries for the tennis tournament have already closed so that the matches will be well under way within the next few days. The doubles tournament is a new feature of this semi-annual event. The Association, furthermore, entertains hopes of an inter-collegiate tournament.

This early activity argues well for the prosperity of club life this year. If the enthusiasm is contagious, we shall no doubt hear from other organizations soon. It is hoped, however, that the renewed energy among students will restrict itself to the betterment of organizations that already exist, many of which are doing good work for the reputation of Barnard, rather than that any new clubs—unnecessary and unimportant—should be organized.

We take pleasure in announcing the election of Anne Carroll, '07, to the board of Associate Editors.

We are glad to welcome the Teachers College Bulletin once more. It is pleasant for us to be able to keep in touch with the other divisions of the university and so feel ourselves a united whole.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

The regular fall meeting of the Athletic Association was held on Monday, October 3. It was voted that the membership dues for the year 1904-1905 should be 75 cents, provision having been made that the dues may be increased if it is found necessary to engage a basket-ball coach.

The association decided to have the usual inter-class fall tennis tournament in singles wherein the class champions are first decided and these compete for the college championship. Besides the singles tournament, a contest in doubles has been arranged for, in which one team from each class will compete, these teams to consist of the champion and runner-up of each class. Tournament matches are to be played at the times specified for them, and will take precedence over all others.

Further business was the election of Helen Loeb, '08, as fifth member of the basket-ball executive committee. Clarette Armstrong, '08 and—Wolff, '08, were elected on the tennis executive committee, one of whom fills the place of Marie Marrin, who has left college.

It was voted to send a challenge to Bryn Mawr College to meet Barnard in an inter-collegiate tennis match.

THE BARNARD UNION.

There will be a very important meeting of the Barnard Union, which consists of the members of the Barnard Bear and the Barnard Debating Society, on Wednesday, October 12, at 3.30, in Room 139. The members of these societies are urgently requested to be present.

BASKET-BALL.

Beginning Thursday, October 13, basket-ball practice will be held regularly every Monday, and Thursday afternoon at half past three in Milbank Quadrangle. All students who have played the game before, as well as those desiring to learn, are urged to be on hand for the first day's practice.

LECTURES ON CITY MISSIONS.

Lectures on City Missions will be held under the auspices of the C. S. M. A. every Monday at 4.30 in the Alumnae Room. All are cordially invited.

EARLY BIRD CLUB.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Early Bird Club in the Thesis Room on Thursday, October 13, at 1 o'clock.

STUDENTS' EXCHANGE.

The Students' Exchange will be open for business every day from 10.30 to 12.30 and on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 1.30 to 2.30. As soon as possible the exchange will be open nearly all day. It is requested that students will arrange to come to the exchange at the stated hours as no business can be done at any other time.

The Exchange invites all students to bring for sale home-made candy, fancy work, college flags, etc. Any one who wishes to do work to order may leave a sample of her work in the Exchange. Those who desire to have typewriting tutoring, or any kind of service done may apply at the Exchange. Students desiring such employment should register at the Exchange. Any communications may be addressed to Alice V. W. Smith, '05, Chairman of Students' Exchange.

FOUNTAIN PENS FOR SALE.

Every Freshman will learn before she has been long in college, that a fountain pen is indispensable. Several new "Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens" have been placed on sale in the Exchange, and it is hoped that students desiring such pens will make their purchase there.

1904 PRESENTS GAVEL TO 1908.

On Tuesday, October 4, Helen Erskine, president of the Class of 1904, presented the class gavel to the Freshmen. The Class of 1908 is to use it throughout their college course, and then in turn pass it on to the Class of 1912.

Y. W. C. A.

There will be a prayer meeting every Monday at one o'clock in room 214. All who care to come are cordially invited, whether members of the Y. W. C. A. or not. The meetings will be only twenty minutes long, and it is hoped that the hour will be found convenient for everyone.

LILY S. MURRAY, 1905, Chairman.
