UNDERGRADUATE ASSOCIATION.

The following letter has been received from the Wellesley Student Government Association:

To the President of Student Government Association, Barnard College:

The Wellesley Student Government Association cordially invite you to be present at a meeting of Student Government presidents of all colleges, to be held at Wellesley, December 3d to 5th.

We hope to have two representatives from each college—the president of Student Government and any other member the Association may wish to send.

A meeting with the Wellesley Association will be held at 3:15 p. m., Saturday, December 3d; a meeting of representatives alone will be held that evening, too, at 7:30.

The object of such a gathering is the possible strengthening of all our associations by an interchange of ideas and points of view.

With the hope that Barnard will cooperate with us in our plan for establishing this bond between all colleges, I am,

Cordially yours,

JULIET JAMESON POYNTER,
President W. S. G. A.

There will be a special meeting of the Undergraduate Association on Monday, November 28th, at 12:20, in the theatre. The following report of the executive committee is to be considered:

ARTICLE I.—Section 1. The Undergraduate Association shall accept the invitation of the Wellesley Student Government Association to send two representatives—the president of the Undergraduate Association and one other member—to the meeting of Student Government presidents, to be held at Wellesley, December 3-5.

Sec. 2. The second representative shall be chosen at this meeting of the Undergraduate Association.

Sec. 3. The Undergraduate Association shall assume the expense of sending the two delegates to the conference.

ART. II.—The Undergraduate Association shall empower the executive committee to get note paper with some suitable heading for the use of its officers when corresponding about matters concerning Undergraduate Association business.

ART. III.—The Undergraduate Tea Committee shall hereafter be appointed as follows: Each class president shall, four weeks before the date of the tea, appoint two members of her class to serve on the Undergraduate Tea Committee. The Senior president shall designate one of the two Senior members to be chairman of the committee.

SOUTHERN CLUB.

A special business meeting of the Southern Club will be held on Tuesday, November 29th, at 4:30, in Room 325, Teachers College.

BASKETBALL AND TENNIS.

The basketball season opened on Saturday, November 19th with a game between St. Mary's School of Garden City and Barnard Freshmen. A large number of girls from St. Mary's were present to cheer for their team, and members of all classes at Barnard supported 1908 with enthusiasm.

The game was rather one-sided, the school team having the ball at their end of the field most of the time. St. Mary's team played a splendid game, making some very pretty passes down the field. The freshmen played a good defensive game, and did well to hold their opponents down to a small score. The game was won by St. Mary's by a score of 8 to 0. The line-up of the two teams was as follows:

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.	BARNARD 1908.
M. Kellar..... Forward.....	A. Miller
R. Lorbacher..... Forward.....	M. Maxon
G. Jessup..... Centre.....	H. Loeb
F. Mosford..... Guard.....	F. Martin
F. Judd..... Guard.....	O. Roe

Two field goals were thrown in the first half by Miss Kellar. In the second half one field goal was thrown by Miss Lorbacher, two foul goals by Miss Jessup. During the game four fouls were called on St. Mary's, five on Barnard.

After the game luncheon was served to about fifty Barnard and St. Mary's students at two long tables in the lunch room. In the early afternoon a tennis match between Gwendolyn Jessup, the St. Mary's champion, and Clarette Armstrong, the champion of 1908, was played. Clarette Armstrong won by a score of 6-0, 6-1. Her strokes were steady, swift and well placed. Miss Jessup lost a number of balls by playing net, but returned with pretty strokes some of Clarette Armstrong's swift balls. She was perhaps somewhat handicapped by having played in the basketball game in the morning.

When the tennis match was finished the St. Mary's girls went to the Sophomore play, to which they were invited by the Sophomore President.

The committee of the Junior Show has been appointed. The members are Belle K. Russell, chairman; Annie Lee, Florence Schlageter, Marjorie Brown, Faith Chipperfield and Edith Heimann.

ATHLETIC NOTES.

At a meeting of the Athletic Association, held November 21st, it was voted that the Association request the trustees to flood the tennis courts for skating.

A BARGAIN!

To those students who subscribe now, THE BULLETIN will be delivered for the remainder of the year for $1.25. Hand your names to any member of the board of editors or leave it in THE BULLETIN box, in the Telephone Room.

* The alumna to whom this part was originally assigned unfortunately found it necessary, at a late date, to withdraw from the cast. In this emergency Miss Marks, though not a member of the Associate Alumnae, having left Barnard at the end of her Sophomore year, kindly consented to help the association by assuming the rôle.

INSTALLATION OF PRESIDENT DABNEY.

The University of Cincinnati, on the sixteenth day of this month, celebrated the installation of Dr. Charles William Dabney as president.

A reception was given on Tuesday evening by the University, that the people of Cincinnati—students, alumni and inaugural visitors—might meet Dr. Dabney before the formal ceremonies at 10:30 Wednesday morning. On that occasion, after Dr. Dabney had taken the oath of office as administered by Judge Thompson of the United States Circuit Court, the enthusiasm of the crowd knew no bounds. But quiet was restored in order that Dr. Dabney's speech, as well as addresses from several other prominent men, might be heard.

The festivities were continued by a luncheon to Dr. Dabney at the Queen City Club, and by a football game between the University of Cincinnati and that of Tennessee, from which Dr. Dabney came. A banquet at the Phoenix Club was the last of the functions.

Many people of note were invited for this occasion. Representatives came from seventy-seven universities and colleges. Miss Gill was the representative from Barnard, while Professor W. P. Trent was sent from Columbia. Among those who had no connection with scholastic interests were Governor Herrick and Attorney General Wade Ellis.

BARNARD BULLETIN,

BARNARD COLLEGE,

Broadway & 119th Street,

COLUMBIA UNIV., N. Y.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1904.

We wish to call attention to the fact that there were two errors in the article on the Sophomore play which appeared in THE BULLETIN of November 21st. The last sentence in the second paragraph should begin "Though not seen often," instead of "Through the scene often." And in the sentence before, "is too susceptible" should be "was not susceptible."

It gives us great pleasure to welcome Miss Gill back from her trip through the West.

A corporation may have no soul, but it does have some political rights, not least of which is the right of holding property. When we began the year we purchased a large supply of pads. These have gradually been filling the ballot boxes of all the societies in colleges, until they have all disappeared. Though we are willing to lend our room for elections, we are not willing to donate the balloting paper.

The tide of feverish activity which foreigners fear will destroy the foundation of American life is sweeping over our college likewise. Every hour of the day we are rushing from one meeting to another engaged in so many different pursuits that we never have time to complete anything. The consequence is that some of our best and most serious societies are stagnating because the members are anxious to devote their energies to more noisy activities. Dramatic performances seem now the line of least resistance and most glory. Every class and club is desirous of calling attention to its existence by some such form of entertainment. Whether the performance is creditable or not is of small importance, provided the performers receive their meed of praise from personal admirers. If the general public criticizes a play and condemns it as unworthy, its sponsors protest against the criticism because "they did their best."

This leads to a consideration of the nature of our standards. What are we working for in our college life

Is it enough to say that we did "our best" when "our best" falls far short of "the best?"

Every student must learn to appreciate her limitation as well as her capacity.

If the career she has chosen is not successful she should turn her energies into another channel.

The English complain that we Americans have no real sportsman spirit.

In athletic contests we disregard the game as such and play only for the stakes.

We never say philosophically that the next best thing to winning is losing, but we sacrifice anything for the glory of victory.

This again is a question of standards; we love ourselves more than we love the game. Our ambition is so narrow and personal that we would rather drag the standard down to our level than confess our inability to reach it.

In the long run this policy is disastrous, especially in college affairs. It is sad to think that an earnest committee should receive no praise merely because their hard work was not crowned by success. Nevertheless, it would be sadder to think that by temporary mercy we had hindered Barnard from taking its place in the front rank at some future day.

Our interest in our College and in our successors must be great enough to enable us to sacrifice our personal pride.

A DANCING CLASS.

The dancing class, which was found so helpful to many of the girls last year, will be continued this year on Mondays from 12:45 to 1:15. It is for all girls in the college who do not know how to dance and who would like to learn.

All those girls who like to "lead" are earnestly asked to come and help. For further information apply to Sophie Woodman, 1907.

ELLIS ISLAND.

On Saturday, November 19th, Professor Seager took his sociology class from Columbia and about ten Barnard Seniors down to Ellis Island. An inspector led the way over the buildings, showed the roof gardens, the dormitories of double-decked iron beds and the other comforts provided for the guests of Uncle Sam. Finally the class lined up along the railing of a gallery, and from their vantage point watched the examining of a barge load of immigrants. Later the party returned in the same boat with some who had passed all tests and who were at last, as the inspector said, admitted to "the land of the free and the home of the brave."

BARNARD UNION.

At a regular meeting of the Barnard Union held on Wednesday, November 23d, the chairman of the committee on nominations announced the results of the elections as follows: Graduate President, Miss Gildersleeve; Undergraduate President, Isabelle Mott; First Vice-President, Virginia Taylor; Second Vice-President, Amalie Althaus; Secretary, Hazel Plate; Treasurer, Helen Perry; Graduate Editor, Miss Peters; and Undergraduate Editor, Belle Russell. The membership of the committee will be given next week.

The chairman of the temporary committee to arrange the debate for Wednesday, December 13th, announced the question: "Should Mr. Smoot be allowed to take his seat in the United States Senate?" The affirmative side will be upheld by Marjorie Brown and Alice Haskell, 1906; the negative by Miss Hubbard, 1904, and Juliet Points, 1907.

On motion, the meeting decided to present to the Barnard Reading-Room, in the name of the Barnard Bear, the books formerly in the possession of the Barnard Bear.

The class of 1905 will have its first class party of the season on Wednesday afternoon, November 30th. The committee consists of Annie F. Fisher, chairman, Elizabeth Boorman, Abigail Talbot, Mary Gray and Georgina Bennett.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Will subscribers to THE BULLETIN please pay their dues as soon as possible? It is true that these are payable at the subscribers' convenience, but as THE BULLETIN must meet its running expenses promptly, and as the subscriptions make up a large proportion of its revenues, it is necessary that very few should remain long unpaid.

C. S. M. A.

Until the holidays the members of the C. S. M. A. will devote an hour every Monday at 4.30 in the Ping-Pong Room, Earl Hall, to making Christmas gifts for the people of the missions from which their lecturers have come.

On Wednesdays, at quarter of five, in the crypt of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the Rev. Dr. Douglas will deliver lectures on subjects of general interest. Bishop Potter will be present at the first meeting, on November 30th. All members of the C. S. M. A. are requested to attend regularly.

DEUTSCHER KREIS PLAY COMMITTEE

The Play Committee for the Deutscher Kreis has been appointed as follows: E. D. Levy, 1905, chairman; R. H. Reithuger, 1905; M. Brown, 1906; A. Ernst, 1907; Mrs. Jeidell, 1908. The decision of the committee will be announced later.

CHAPEL NOTICE.

On Tuesday, November 29th, Dr. Henry Evertson Cobb will conduct the chapel services.

On Friday, December 2d, Dr. Braun will speak.
