

BARNARD BULLETIN

Vol. X., No. 12.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1905.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

THE BARNARD BEAR.

The initial number of The Barnard Bear, which appears to-day, is decidedly good; it must be taken as the high-water mark, up to the present time, of the literary publications of Barnard students. The high standard that the editors have set for the paper has been well realized, and the new magazine, alike in appearance, proportion of matter and variety of contents, compares very favorably with the better class of college magazines of the day. In all respects it is a great improvement on its literary forbear, the Bulletin Literary Supplement—itself a magazine which grew better from number to number—and fully justifies the Barnard Union in its new venture and the confidence that it has reposed in the editors. The paper seems to be very well suited to the needs of Barnard College; it is dignified and, apparently, will not be of so frequent appearance as to result in attenuation and carelessness. All the work is by the undergraduates—a happy fact—and the quality of none of it is out of the reach of any able and ambitious aspirant. Altogether, the publication is one for Barnard students to be proud of and to support in its present high standards.

In detail, the two longest pieces are also the best. Miss Haskell's "Unprepared" seems to me to be the most notable story that I have seen printed in any student magazine by a member of Barnard College. It is wholly readable. The character of the not over-sane heroine is nicely realized; her vagueness, her impressionability, her lack of imagination, her superficiality, her capacity for "thrills," her self-deception, her fluctuating self-control, her proneness, in short, to confuse sofa-cushions in a college study with "real" life, are seen by the reader and are harmoniously and humorously blended into a distinct creation, with which the other characters are in keeping. The setting is very well handled: the scenes of camp and college life seem real and form a lively contrast with one another. Particularly to be commended is the distinct local sense of the story: the author does not make an impossible person of a college girl nor does she obscure traditional and typical academic attitudes for the sake of preaching an ideal.

Miss Lilienthal's "Bernard Shaw Again" is an excellent critical sketch. It shows a lively interest in a contemporary of note, and its treatment of him is both amusing and sound. The study is to be commended to any one who regards Mr. Shaw as having said the last word on a variety of questions as old as Adam or who looks on such creations as Candida as ideal types of womanhood.

The other pieces are shorter. Miss McLane's "The Derelict" shows promise, and Miss McEwan's "Scraps" fails to achieve pathos by only a narrow margin. The humor of "Wedded and Parted" and the sketches are of a varied and taking sort: it comprises Miss Brewster's moral reminiscence, a slightly burlesqued character sketch by Miss Goldsmith, and a piece of pure fun in Miss Boyd's mock-heroic style. Altogether, the contents are varied and of good quality.

W. T. BREWSTER.

MISS GILL'S ADDRESS.

Dean Gill spoke in chapel, Tuesday, Dec. 12, on the Student Council. The gist of her talk was as follows: All matters in regard to the social affairs of the students have been delegated to the Student Council, by the Faculty. The Council's decisions are passed upon by a committee of the Faculty which alone may restrict these decisions. Thus the power of the Council is nearly absolute. Since its members are chosen by the student body, the students are responsible for them. The elections, then, are very important.

Sometimes the Council has to take an unpleasant stand but it does so for the best interests of the college and the undergraduates should be loyal and trust to their judgment.

CONVENTION OF THE STUDENT VOLUNTEER MOVEMENT.

The call has been issued for the fifth international convention of the Student Volunteer Movement which will be held at Nashville, Tenn., from Wednesday, Feb. 28, to Sunday, March 4, 1906. These conventions are held but once in each student generation—that is, every four years—and constitute the largest and most representative gathering of students of North America.

The Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, in its present organization, dates from 1886, when, for the first time, students gathered at Mt. Hermon during the summer vacation for Bible and mission study. Through the inspiration gained by these weeks of study and thought 100 men out of the 251 present were led to offer themselves for foreign service. The organization, almost as it stands to-day, was instituted to meet the need and to carry on the work still further. There is an Executive Committee of 6 and an Advisory Committee. This year there are 10 secretaries giving their time to the work of the movement.

Some of the tangible results are the following: it has presented the claim of world wide missions in 900 educational institutions of North America, in many of them for the first time; the systematic study of missions has been greatly stimulated; it has enrolled, and aided in the training of, a large force of volunteers, some 2,800 of whom are already in the foreign field.

The last Student Volunteer Convention was held four years ago at Toronto. It was a great gathering in every way, but the coming one at Nashville will be larger, and so even greater results are expected from it. There will be 3,000 official delegates. Fully 500 universities, colleges and seminaries will be represented by leading students, both volunteers and non-volunteers. It is expected that at least 200 missionaries will be present from nearly 40 of the mission fields of the world. In short, the conference is limited to 5,000 of those men and women who are most deeply interested in mission work.

As has been stated, this convention is for non-volunteers as well as for those who have declared themselves as volunteers for the foreign field. It is the object of the Conference, besides strengthening those who are really going, to make others so feel the need that they shall decide to go, and to interest those who cannot go in the general cause and to point out lines of work that can be undertaken at home.

Nashville, the capital of Tennessee, is eminently fitted for a vast gathering of this kind. It is a religious centre, and the two great mission boards of the South are located there. It is a city of churches and institutions of learning, there being 174 of the former and 800 of the latter, not counting 19 public schools. Nearly the whole population of 140,985 live in their own beautiful homes, in which, by their hospitality, they will entertain the delegates.

Serious consideration on the part of every student, graduate and trustee of Barnard is asked for this subject. We are entitled to send 5 delegates, and the expense of each is estimated in round numbers to be about $50. Two hundred and fifty dollars is a large sum for such a small college to raise, and we will have to rely mainly on the many friends of the college. Even if we do send five girls, as we hope to do, this is a small number to represent the student body. We can not all go, but we can all show an interest in the great work.

Further information can be obtained from the committee: Sophie P. Woodman, Chairman; Grace C. Turnbull, Anne Carroll, Margaret H. Bailey, '07; Agnes Miller, '08; Edna Tompkins, '09.

"THE BELLE'S STRATAGEM."

The annual Alumnae play was given on December 7, 8, and 9, for the benefit of the Temporary Dormitory fund.

At the first performance, the audience consisted chiefly of girls from preparatory schools, who had been invited. There were, however, a few impatient undergraduates, many of whom came again to the following performances.

The cast was as follows:

Doricourt	R. Lyon '04
Hardy	E. Allen '02
Villers	A. V. W. Smith '05
Saville	M. K. Frothingham '04
Courtall	C. Spencer '02
Flutter	E. M. Pool '03
Folly	H. W. Cooley '05
Doricourt's Footman	A. A. Talbot '05
Hardy's Servant
Leticia Hardy	Elsie L. Totten '02
Mrs. Rackett	Florence L. Beeckman '04
Miss Oyle	Agnes L. Dickson '09

Maskers, Dancers, etc.

The only part in the play which gave any real scope for acting was that of Mr. Hardy. It was a character part and really very well done. Elizabeth Allen was fussy and aged in her very gestures and walk, and was altogether a very good old man. Romola Lyon, as Doricourt, did her mad scenes with a good deal of abandon, and throughout the three acts bore herself well as the strong arm of justice. Leticia is not what might be called a thankful part, and Elsie Totten deserves much gratitude for taking it, as she did, at such short notice. Her work was very creditable in consideration of her lack of rehearsals, and her inexperience in acting.

Of the three acts, the second was the best by far. It was decidedly pretty in its carnival confusion, and the masqueraders managed to give a most festive air to the occasion. Helen Cooley, as Folly, deserves especial mention in this respect. Hers was a very small part, but her rendering of it was most spirited.

It cannot be said that as a whole the play was well done, but when the difficulties which the committee encountered are considered, too much can hardly be said in praise of the production. There was a good deal of unavoidable delay about choosing the cast, and when that was accomplished, another delay was caused by the illness of the coach. When the rehearsals were finally started, both the cast and Mr. Sanger worked very hard, and when one thinks that "The Belle's Stratagem" was put on in two weeks, astonishment that it was so well done keeps one from any particular criticism.

The class of 1905 came to the Saturday performance, and relieved the college orchestra somewhat, between the acts. They sang new versions of old songs to the delight of the audience and gave a singing cheer, instead of the usual yell, for which they are to be much commended.

The thanks of the Alumnae Association are due to Ludwig Baumann, W. 125th Street, for the loan of the furniture used in the play.

The committees were as follows:

Play: Anna Goodwin Ware '03, Chairman, Helen Wilking Cooley '05, Cecil Inslee Dorrian '05, Louise Edgar Peters '04, Carita Spencer '02, Elsie Lloyd Totten '02, Jeannette Wick '04, Eva Sherwood Potter '06, ex-officio.

Patroness: Alice Olin Draper, '05, Chairman, Marjorie Kate Bacon '04, Bertha Van Riper Overbury '06, May Appleton Parker '04.

Programme: Louise Edgar Peters '04, Helen Wilking Cooley '05.

Ticket: Carita Spencer '02.

BARNARD BULLETIN.

Published Weekly throughout the College Year.

MARJORIE FERGUSON BROWN
Editor-in-Chief.

Managing Editors.

Edith Somborn.....1906
Caroline D. Hall.....1906
Sophie P. Woodman.....1907
Agnes Miller.....1908
E. A. S. Tredwell, 1907.....Business Manager

Associate Editors.

Helen Cooley.....Alumna Member
Virginia T. Boyd.....1906
Margaret H. Bailey.....1907
Mary C. R. Reardon.....1907
Clairette Armstrong.....1908
Eleanor C. Hamadon.....1908
Helen Loeb.....1908

Subscription—One Year, $1.50.

Shipping Price, $2.25.

Address all communications to

BARNARD BULLETIN,

Barnard College, Columbia Univ., N. Y.,
Broadway and 119th Street.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1905.

The question of college elections is not yet a pressing one, but it is sufficiently important to be worthy of consideration at any time. Last year there were changes made in our method of elections, and whether they were for the better has yet to be fully proved; one trial is not enough. But in all this anxiety about Undergraduate elections, one very vital aspect of the matter was overlooked. No one, we think, will object to the statement that the officers of the Undergraduate Association are the most important in college. A corollary of this would seem to be that we want the best girls to occupy those offices. Now does the college-take means for accomplishing this? We do not think so. Every other organization in college has its elections before the Undergraduate Association. In every class, there is only a certain number of girls who are fitted to hold responsible positions such as the class presidency, and the chances are that the most capable of these will be chosen. If a girl gets, for instance, a Barnard Union office of any magnitude, she will, in all probability, not be considered in Undergraduate elections, and thus a good girl may be lost to the Student Council. This very fact—and because the greater part of the Student Council is composed of Undergraduate officers—gives these elections more prominence than they have had heretofore. They should be the first consideration of the college. We have some small knowledge of how these things are done in other colleges, and we find that the college elections always come first. There they believe—as do we—that the college office is the most important, and the greatest honor; but, unlike us, they feel that there should be a clear field for the elections.

It seems absurd, indeed, that the classes and smaller organizations should hold elections before the one which means most to the college. There is no particular reason why they should not come afterward. In fact, there seems to be every reason why they should. It would solve many problems which at present concern the thoughtful Undergraduate. Under the existing arrangements, the sort of girl who makes herself felt in college often gets many small offices, as the secretaryship or the presidency of some society, and then is elected to some position in the Undergraduate Association. If those elections came first the girl would get the office that really means something and the smaller things, which other girls might easily do, would fall to some one else. It seems as if there would be a natural adjustment, and more even distribution of the honors that the college has to confer.

BARNARD BEAR.

It will probably be matter for unfavorable comment that in the first numbers of the Barnard Bear there are no articles by Alumnae. The reason is simple—none were contributed. The editors hope that graduates will be more generous before the next number appears, and not again be unrepresented in the college magazine. They also wish to reiterate their standing request to undergraduates—more manuscripts!

C. S. M. A. CONVENTION.

The 10th Annual Convention of the C. S. M. A. was held in Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 5-7 inclusive. Including the speakers there were one hundred and twenty-eight there as delegates from the theological seminaries, colleges and schools east of Dakota. Barnard's delegation of six was the largest of those from the girls' colleges and schools. We were entertained at the homes of some of the Cambridge women interested in the Convention, and at Radcliffe.

The meetings were held in Phillips Brook's house at Harvard, St. John's Chapel of the Cambridge Theological School and Christ Church. Holy Communion at 7:30 in the chapel began each day and the rest of the time was quite filled up with business meetings and the general meetings where splendid missionary addresses and appeals were made by such men as the Rev. Dr. Mann of Trinity Church, Boston, Bishop Spalding of Salt Lake, Dr. Endicott Peabody, Headmaster Groton School, John R. Mott, Rev. Arthur M. Sherman of Hankow, Rev. H. St. G. Locker, President St. Paul's College, Tokyo and others. The closing public meeting was held in Sauder's Theatre, Harvard, where Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts presided and Mr. Mott and Dr. Lloyd spoke.

So much for the dry facts, but what we cannot give you any idea of is the atmosphere that was over the whole Convention and was really what made it for us the finest thing that we had ever been to; the beauty of the historic old town, the extreme hospitality and kindness of the people, the friendliness of Dean Irwin and the Radcliffe girls, and the geniality and enthusiasm that pervaded all the meetings. There were a great many more men's colleges than women's represented and it would have been very easy for us girls to feel a little on the outside sometimes. But we were not allowed for a minute to have any such feeling. On the contrary every one seemed to go out of their way to be nice to us. The meetings were splendid, and the Barnard girls got many good ideas from the reports from the other chapters. In a word everything combined to make the three days in Cambridge pleasant, helpful, and encouraging.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

The C. S. M. A. Christmas box will be shipped Dec. 18th to a Mission among the mountain people of Virginia.

Gifts of clothes, pictures, magazines, candy and toys will be especially welcome. These may be left with Margaret Bailey, '07, Florence Staff, '06, or Abby Llaud, '05, 420 West 121st St.

Miss Hart, who has been connected with the Mission, will speak in regard to her work there in Apartment No. 17, the Bryn Mawr, 420 W. 121st St., on Monday, Dec. 18, at 4:10 o'clock.

TIFFANY & CO.
MAKERS OF
CLASS RINGS

Designs and estimates furnished for Fraternity Pins, Glass Rings, Class
Cups, Stationery, etc., etc.

No order will be accepted for execution at a price not consistent with the best workmanship and a quality worthy to bear the name of the house.

UNION SQUARE
NEW YORK
CORRESPONDENCE INVITED

BASKET-BALL GAME.

The second match basket-ball game of the season between the College and Alumnae teams was played on Saturday morning, Dec. 9. The result was a tie score, 4-4.

The line-up was as follows:

COLLEGE	POSITION	ALUMNAE
J. Prah, '08	Forward	L. Kimball, '02
M. Maxon, '08	Forward	E. Alsberg, '02, Cpt.
A. Ernst, '07, Cpt.	Centre	A. Talbot, '05
F. Mastin, '08	Guard	F. Baldwin, '00
E. Seguire, '09	Guard	M. Hoffman, '05

Helen Cooley, '05, acted as referee.

When the game was called at 10:30, only four of the Alumnae team were present, so the line-up was four against five for three minutes. During this interval Josephine Prah made a goal. After the fifth member of the Alumnae team entered the game the opposing sides were very evenly matched. The score at the end of the first half was 2-0, in favor of the College team.

In the second half one field goal was thrown for the undergraduates by Josephine Prah, one field and two foul goals for the Alumnae by Elsa Alsberg, making the score 4-4 at the end of the second half. As customary, it was decided to continue playing until a field goal should be made. The teams lined up, but at the end of seven minutes neither side had succeeded in scoring further. It was decided to stop playing owing to the condition of both teams.

In this game the playing showed lack of practice. It was quick and there was some good passing by both sides, but the game was rough and there was considerable fouling. The match showed, however, that there is some splendid material among the undergraduates for the College team.

RALLY.

The committee on delegates for the Student Volunteer Association will hold a Rally in the Theatre on Wednesday, Jan. 10, at 4:00 to interest the college in the Convention. The Trustees have been invited and the Faculty is urged to be present also. The students should come or they will surely miss a great deal. It is hoped that either Mr. Speer or Mr. Mott will speak on the movement and the need of sending a good delegation to Nashville, and Jean W. Miller, '03, will say a few words on the last Convention at Toronto.

Y. W. C. A.

The philanthropic committee of the Y. W. C. A. is getting up a Christmas box to send to the East Side House. Any contributions of dolls, toys or books, will be thankfully received. Kindly give all donations to Clairette Armstrong, '08, before Wednesday, Dec. 20.

NOTICE.

Miss McCook's Bible class on "Paul" will be discontinued until January 8, 1906.

CLASS OF 1905 SERVES TEA.

The Class of 1905 served tea in the Alumnae Room 10 1009 on Thursday afternoon, December 14. The Class has planned to serve tea once a month on the following dates: January 11, February 8, March 8, April 5 and May 3.

BARNARD REPRESENTATION AT CORNELL.

Professor Knapp and Miss Hirst expect to attend the annual meeting of the American Philological Association, to be held at Cornell University, December 27-29. Professor Knapp is to present three papers.

DEUTSCHER KREIS.

A social meeting of the Deutscher Kreis will be held Monday afternoon at four o'clock in the Alumnae Room. Dr. Braun will speak on "German and American Poetry." Refreshments will be served.

UNIVERSITY CHORUS.

The University Chorus will give a concert in the Horace Mann Auditorium Tuesday, December 19, at 8:00. There will be a final rehearsal on Monday in Earl Hall at 3:00.

BARNARD BOTANICAL CLUB.

At Earl Hall, on Wednesday, December 18, at 4 o'clock, Dr. Daniel Trembly MacDougal of the New York Botanical Gardens will lecture on "Heredity and the Origin of Species." All interested in biological subjects are cordially invited to attend.

MARGARET HOLMES STONE,
Secretary.

LECTURE BY DR. KNAPP.

On Friday, Dec. 22nd, at 3 o'clock in Room 339 Dr. Knapp will give, under the auspices of the Classical Club, an illustrated lecture on "A Walk through Ancient Rome." All those interested are invited to attend.

RESERVED FOR

CHAS. H. FRIEDGEN, PH.G.

1220 AMSTERDAM AVE.

C. MINNERS-

Fancy and Staple Groceries

Imported and Domestic Delicatessen,
Fruits and Vegetables,

Amsterdam Ave., bet. 120th and 121st Sts.

Tel. 2549-J Riverside.

NEW YORK

BULLETIN

Monday, December 18, 1905.

- 9:10-10:10—Exchange open.
- 11:10-12:10—Exchange open.
- 12:20—"Paul." Leader, Janet McCook. Room 139.
- 12:30—Exchange open.
- 1:10-3:10—Exchange open.
- 3:30-5:30—Y. W. C. A. tea. Earl Hall.
- 4:00—Lecture: The Medieval Cathedral in France and England. Professor Hamlin. Room 309, Havemeyer.
- 4:00—Deutscher Kreis Social. Alumnae Room.

Tuesday, December 19, 1905.

- 10:10-12:10—Exchange open.
- 12:10—Chapel: Miss Gill on "The Appropriate Representation of Barnard College at Conferences."
- 1:10-2:10—Exchange open.
- 4:10—Woman's University Orchestra. Room 608, Mines Building.
- 4:00—1907 Class party. Theatre.
- 8:00—University Chorus Concert. Horace Mann Auditorium.

Wednesday, December 20, 1905.

- 9:10-10:10—Exchange open.
- 11:10-12:10—Exchange open.
- 12:30—Exchange open.
- 12:45—Devotional Meeting. Leader, Eleanor Holden. Room 213.
- 1:10-2:10—Exchange open.
- 4:00—Lecture: Musical Form in the Polyphonic Period (instrumental). Professor Gov of Vassar. Auditorium, Earl.
- 4:00—1906 Class party. Theatre.

Thursday, December 21, 1905.

- 10:10-12:10—Exchange open.
- 12:00—"Comparative Religions." Leader, Alice Draper. Room 213.
- 12:00—"Japan." Leader, May Parker. Room 215.
- 12:30—Exchange open.
- 1:10-2:10—Exchange open.
- 3:10—University Chorus. Earl Hall.
- 4:10—University Chorus. Earl Hall.

Friday, December 22, 1905.

- 10:10-12:10—Exchange open.
- 12:10—Chapel: Miss Gill on "The Relation of the Trustees to the Social Life of the College."
- 1:10-3:10—Exchange open.

College Text-Books

NEW AND SECOND HAND

At Low Prices

A. G. SEILER,

1228 Amsterdam Avenue

BOOKS—Old and New

Bought and Sold

Stationery, Athletic Goods

Lowest Prices

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORES

West Hall and Horace Mann School

Branches of

LEMCKE & BUECHNER

Booksellers, Publishers and Importers

Presented as a Tribute to Your Success by

Saks & Company

SPECIALTY IN APPAREL FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS

NEW YORK, 224 1/2 2nd Street, N. Y.

SPECIAL PRICES

—ON—

Ladies' Gymnasium Suits

By presenting this advertisement at A. G. Spalding & Bros., 126 Nassau Street, or 29 West 42d Street, New York, the bearer will be entitled to purchase any of the following Gymnasium uniforms at these special prices. Mail orders will be promptly filled by sending this advertisement.

No. 2920.—Ladies' black or blue all wool serge gymnasium suit in surprise effect, with white veil, or shield and emblem on same. Full bloomers and very stylish. Each $6.00

No. 2922.—All wool black or blue serge ladies' gymnasium suit with lacey yoke, neck and cuffs and full bloomers and a very attractive. Each $4.50

No. 1032.—Navy blue Ladies' gymnasium suit, consisting of blouse waist with sailor collar and white embroidered shield. Full bloomers and very well made. Each $3.75

No. 2907.—All wool Momic cloth with emblem on front of blouse, made in either blue or black. Full bloomers and latest style. Each $4.25

Special Prices on Shoes

A. G. SPALDING & BROS.

29 West 42d St. NEW YORK 126 Nassau St.

KNOX'S World renowned HATS

For Ladies and Misses

STANDARD OF FASHION Everywhere

452 FIFTH AVENUE

Corner 40th Street

PURSELL MFG. CO.

MAKER OF HIGH QUALITY BREAD AND DINNER ROLLS.

Nine Sixteen Broadway
Columbus Avenue, at 76th Street
Sixth Avenue, at 51st Street

Dainty Cakes and Delicious Pastry. Artistic Work in Cakes for Teas and Birthdays. Delicious Sorbets and Ice Creams. Bonbons and Chocolates of Exquisite Flavor and Choice Materials. Perfection of the Caterer's Art in Afternoon Teas and At Homes.

LUNCHEON ROOM, Nine Sixteen Broadway, Ladies Exclusively.

is equipped with clip-cap for men and chatelaine attachment for women, both of which afford protection against loss, and yet are easily detached for use. Our Ideal flows steadily, never floods or blots, is easily filled and cleaned. For sale by all dealers

CAUTION—Insist on the genuine for your work requires the best.

L. E. Waterman Co.
175 Broadway, New York

BOSTON CHICAGO SAN FRANCISCO
MONTREAL LONDON

MULLER'S ORCHESTRA

CHARLES R. MULLER,
Pianist and Director

OFFICE, 77 Court St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Telephone, 3277 Plaza.

REID'S
ICE CREAM, ICES
AND CAKES

115 West 125th Street

Telephone, 161 Morningside

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

FAIRBANKS & BROOKS

HIGH GRADE BAKERS

1290 AMSTERDAM AVE.

60 EAST 125th ST.

BET. 1260 & 124th STS.

NEAR MADISON AVE

THEODORE B. STARR,

MADISON SQUARE

Jeweler and Silversmith

Barnard Badges are made only by this house

To be obtained through the Secretary of the Under Graduate Association.

COTRELL & LEONARD

Albany, New York,

Makers of

CAPS AND GOWNS

To Barnard 1900, 1901, 1902,
1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908.

Class caps and gowns. Custom made for all Degrees.
Miss Jennie Post, and Agent for Barnard College.

The Reidos Hall Pharmacy

H. B. OXMAN, Ph. G., Proprietor

AMSTERDAM AVE., COR. 125th ST., - NEW YORK

SUPPLIES OF INTEREST TO STUDENTS

CAPS and GOWNS

Lowest Prices for Best
Material and Workmanship
FACULTY GOWNS
and HOODS

CUX SONS & VINING

263 FORTY AVE., N. Y.
Barnard Representative
MISS H. T. VEITH, '08

HORTON'S
ICE CREAM

Charlotte Russe and Fancy Cakes, also French
Ice Creams, Sorbets and Puddings
None made better. Countless millions use them.
DEPOT, 142 WEST 125th ST.

FRANK BROS., 6th Avenue, Near 124th St.
3rd Avenue, Near 94th St.

School Books
in a hurry

And at New York prices, singly or by the dozen, may be obtained second-hand or new, by any boy or girl in the remotest hamlet, or any teacher or official anywhere, and

Delivery prepaid

Brand new, complete alphabetical catalogue, free, of school books of all publishers, if you mention this ad.

HINDS & NOBLE
31-33-35 W. 14th St., New York City.

BOOKS ADDED TO LIBRARY DURING NOVEMBER.

Books added to Library during November:

Philosophy.

Bacon, Francis. Advancement of learning.
Locke, J. Conduct of the understanding.

Religion.

James, W. Varieties of religious experience.

Sociology.

Commons, J. R. Trade unionism and labor problems. 2 copies.
Seligman, E. R. A. Principles of economics.

Natural Science.

Huxley, T. H. Discourses biological and geological.

Mathematics.

Ashton & Marsh. Plane and spherical trigonometry.

Art.

Hutton, C. A. Greek terracotta statuettes.

English and American Literature.

Aldine edition of the British Poets. 69 vols.
Anglo-Saxon Chronicle. Two of the Saxon chronicles parallel. 2 vols.
Bell, Robert. Songs from the dramatists.
Bronson, W. C. Short history of American literature.

Chapman, J. J. Emerson and other essays.
Coleridge, S. T. Biographia literaria.
Cooper, J. F. The spy.
Corbett, F. St. J. History of British poetry.
Howells, W. D. Literary friends and acquaintance.

Howells, W. D. Criticism and fiction.
Lowell, J. R. Literary and political addresses.

Pancoast, H. S. Standard English poems.
Pollard, A. W. English miracle plays, moralities and interludes.
Stedman, E. C. American anthology.
Stevenson, R. L. Master of Ballantrae.
Swift, Lindsay. Brook Farm; its members, scholars and visitors.

Symonds, J. A. Shakespeare's predecessors in the English drama.

Thackeray, W. M. Complete works. 30 vols.

Waller, Edmund. Poems. 2 vols.

Warner, C. D. Work of Washington Irving.

Wendell, Barrett. Stelligeri and other essays.

Biography.

Allen, A. V. G. Jonathan Edwards.

Lobbe, F. P. Her life as told by herself.

Farnham, C. H. Life of Francis Parkman.

Hale, E. E. James Russell Lowell.

Higginson, T. W. Margaret Fuller Ossoli.

Lockhart, J. G. Memoirs of the life of Sir Walter Scott. 5 vols.

Plummer, C. Life and times of Alfred the Great.

Sime, J. Life of Johann Wolfgang Goethe.

Wendell, Barrett. Cotton Mather.

English Philology.

Alden, R. M. Art of debate.

Sweet, H. Student's dictionary of Anglo-Saxon.

Toller, T. N. Outlines of the history of the English language.

Latin Philology.

Allen & Greenough. Latin grammar.

Gildersleeve & Lodge. Latin grammar.

Tel. 2000 Morningside

G. D. NICHOLAS,
FLORIST,

2062 Seventh Ave., Cor. 123rd St.
Decorations a Specialty.

Most Choice Flowers at Very Reasonable Prices.

THE BARNARD FLORIST.