Vassar's President to Speak Tonight.

There is no piece of war work in preparation for the summer of more importance than the Training Camp for Nurses at Vassar College. Women graduated from college since and including the year of 1909 are eligible for training. On the evening of Friday, March 8th, this vital project is to be presented to those who are interested at the Women's University Club by President MacCracken of Vassar College and Miss Maxwell, head of the Presbyterian Hospital Training School. The Women's University Club, 106 East 52nd street, is also the place at which registrations for the training camp are received. An enormous registration is expected and those interested had better apply early.

Vocational Meeting and Tea.

An Undergrad. Tea will be given in the College Parlor Thursday, March 21, to be preceded by a vocational meeting in the Lecture Room at 4 o'clock. This is an institution which has been so successful in other years that it is hoped everyone will come. Seniors particularly are concerned, so save the date—1918!

"And Still Their Wonder Grew."

Was the fourth floor of Students' Hall singularly quiet last week-end? In the midst of Sing Song and Alumnae Day, did you feel that somewhere, somehow, someone was missing? We know you did, fair reader; and we don't mind telling you that the gap was caused by the absence from Barnard of the editor-in-chief, business manager and assistant editor of the BULLETIN. They were, in fact, basking in the sunshine of the Wellesley hills, and incidentally imbibing much invaluable wisdom.

The occasion was the yearly conference of the Association of News Magazines of Women's Colleges. We will not poison your mind with jealousy by telling you the details of our royal welcome and of the ensuing good time we had. Suffice it to say that from the moment of our comparatively chastened arrival until that of our breathless and hair-raising departure, we had the most helpfully happy and happily helpful time that anyone could possibly imagine.

Seriously speaking, the conferences and talks were most valuable by reason of their constructive criticism. We discussed various common problems,

Barnard War Service Corps for France.

The Associate Alumnae of Barnard College have authorized the formation of a Barnard War Service Corps, which will be managed by a Central Board of three, who will serve respectively as chairmen of three working committees, to be known as Finance, Publicity and Personnel.

The Central Board is empowered to furnish workers in any field of war service. At present there are two definite requests under consideration: one from the Y. M. C. A. for canteen workers with the U. S. army in France and the other from the American Red Cross for a reconstruction unit to work among the repatriated population in France.

Any further suggestions for other kinds of war work at home or abroad will be gladly received by the committee and will be given due consideration. More details will be published next week.

The Farm in Chapel.

On Thursday, March 14th, Dr. Ogilvie, dean of the Barnard Farm at Bedford, will speak on the Undergraduates' opportunities there.

BARNARD BULLETIN

Published weekly throughout the College year, except the last two weeks in January, by the Students of Barnard College.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, MARCH 8, 1918*Work For Your Country and Your College!

You would like to do your war work through your own college, wouldn't you? And you can, if you will go to Room 301, Philosophy Hall, and register with the Columbia University Committee on Women's War Work. Your college is represented on and by that committee, which has been in existence now about a year and has, in that time, put hundreds of women in touch with war work and given advice as to training for such work to other hundreds. This committee is in closest contact with all the agencies which deal with women and the war, not only as regards work in New York, but also in Washington and in France

Although its placements are largely for part-time volunteer positions, a goodly number of women have been placed in lines requiring full time, paid work.

Go and see the committee; tell them of your activities and your interests; give them an opportunity to judge of your capabilities. Only so can the work which needs you most secure your interested help.

COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WAR WORK.*Social Worker Course a Success.

We find it extremely gratifying to be able to announce that over one hundred of the women who pursued the course for volunteer social workers are now regularly engaged in doing the work for which they thus prepared themselves. This course was given at the Hotel Biltmore during the past seven weeks by the Department of Extension Teaching in co-operation with the Committee of Women on National Defense.

New Farm Course at Farmingdale

The first of the agricultural courses to get under way is that given at Farmingdale by the New York State School of Agriculture. It begins on March 4th and lasts three months, during that time covering such subjects as Vegetable Gardening, Soils and Fertilizers, Animal Husbandry, Farm Mechanics, Poultry, Insect Pests. And in this connection we would like to mention that there are now at this office registration cards for the Woman's Land Army of America. The ranks of this army are to be filled not only by agricultural workers, but by chauffeurs and supervisors. Almost any woman of sufficient health can do something truly useful in this field, and we advise all to begin now to shape their summer plans.

Alumnae Day Stunt Party.

Every one did a stunt on Alumnae Day, even the Dean, who very obligingly underwent metamorphoses before our very eyes from V. C. Gildersleeve, '99, to Dean Gildersleeve, and back again. Mrs. Miles (Edna Reade, 1910) announced the order of the events and first came the Dean's welcome in her dual capacity. Then Wendela Liander, doing very charmingly the stunt of being Millie's proxy, voiced the undergraduates' welcome. Alice Judson made a cheering announcement about the canteen and this was followed by a report by Miss Osburn on the various activities of the Committee on War Work of greater Barnard. We glowed with pride at the mention of a Reconstruction Unit and a Canteen Workers Unit. Then we listened to tales of "Mother," "Willie" and the farm by Cornelia Geer, '17.

The very stunts followed. '18 gave the best of her Soph Show, reinforced by songs by her honored president and Miss Keck. '19 followed suit with the song hits of her Pow-Wow. Then '20 convulsed us again with "Sheza Horra" by the original cast. Alumnae stunts came next. Miss Deitrich sang charmingly and Miss Knight could indeed make the piano talk. The nameless and characterless drama by '17's stars (Peters, Robb and Wright) was the best "less" product we have seen. The program ended by dancing by D. Birdseye and a chorus of Greek maidens. V. Klopman, '19; M. Terry, '17; M. Lott, '17; P. Thomas, '19, and A. Ogden, '19.

Capped by Miss Susan Miner's announcement of the farm's open doors, the program had to be voted a great success.

Alumnae Day Game.

The first thrills of the afternoon came in the form of a basket-ball game. The Alumnae certainly were there with spirit and numbers, but unfortunately not in team work. Miss Schoedler, '11, played a swift, strong but alas! unsupported game. Barnard forwards were able to avoid their guards and slipped around like young eels. Both Isabel Greenbaum and Dot Keck shot beautiful baskets. The guards were stronger than ever and the center just as efficient. The result of the game was 18 to 2. The Alums who won glory on the field were: E. Van Duyn, '16, and M. Wegener, '01, forwards; L. Schoedler, '11, and D. Bauer, '17, centers; A. Bishop, '11, and S. Pero, '13, guards. S. Gleason played guard first half, A. Bishop center, and E. Mayer played forward last half.

Varsity—D. Keck, I. Greenbaum, forwards; A. Barrington, V. Tappan, guards; M. Carmody, H. Wegener, centers.

Swimming!

Interclass swimming meet Tuesday, March 19, 4:15 p. m.

The events are as follows:

speed—

80-yard swim.

20-yard dash, using any stroke.

Back—20-yard.

Relay—ten persons.

Form—

Breast stroke.

Side stroke—underarm.

Crawl.

Diving—

Front dive.

Back dive.

Two electives.

Stunt—

Potato race.

The interclass meet will be followed by a varsity meet with T. C. on Tuesday, March 26, at 5 p. m. in Barnard pool. The events for this meet will be the same as those for the interclass, with the exception of the potato race and a reduction of the relay race to four persons.

A contestant may enter three events, but only two of these may be speed events. She may enter both interclass and varsity meets if she is qualified.

Every contestant must keep a record of the number of practices that she has attended and give it to her class swimming manager: M. Marks, 1921; H. Kriegsman, 1920; M. Barrington, 1919; D. Connor, 1918.

Everyone practice as much as possible, so that we can have a good interclass meet and then defeat our famous T. C. rivals.

The attendance for the 11 o'clock swimming hour on Monday has been very poor, and if more girls do not use this hour it will be discontinued.

The swimming hour on Thursday at 5 o'clock has been changed from "open" hour to an "advanced" hour. Girls who wish to take the test for advanced swimming must make out an application at the Physical Education office.

Odds Still Triumphant.

The odds established their superiority in basket-ball beyond a doubt in the rather "pepless" final games that were played last Monday. In the first game the Freshmen won an easy victory over the Seniors by a score of 18 to 6. The Freshmen shooting was especially good. The game between the Sophomores and the Juniors was closer, but not as well played by either side. The Juniors were victorious, by a score of 15 to 10.

These were the final games of the interclass series, so that the Freshmen hold first place, the Juniors second, the Sophomores third, and the Seniors last in basket-ball.

MANY of our patrons have been curious about our firm name "Tiffin", so we are pleased to explain the meaning of the word and its significance in connection with our shop.

To our mutual friends in England and in the Colonies, afternoon tea has been an institution for many years and particularly so, where military headquarters are located. In India, the custom gave added favor through the influence of climatic conditions—the excessive heat to which English people were unaccustomed caused the interruption of all social life until towards sunset when with decreased heat and glare of the intense sunlight, tea and cake were looked forward to with great relish, which together with the pleasant social accompaniment became, and still is, a function designated by the natives of India as "Tiffin".

A. A. to Re-organize?

When you joined the A. A. last fall, it was because you were interested in athletics and their organization here at Barnard. There are a great many radical changes in policy now being considered; and in order that you may all express your opinions, and share on the final discussions on these important changes, there will be a big meeting of A. A., Tuesday, March 12th, in the lecture room, at 12.20. Be sure to attend, and promptly, in order that all the business may be transacted in the short time at our disposal, and that the final decisions may represent the will of the majority of A. A. members.

such as running a paper in war time, composition and type of headlines, election of the editorial board and division of labor among the editors. Dr. Samuel Crothers, the essayist, spoke to us on the difference between literature and journalism. Mr. Rutzky of the Collegiate Special Advertising Agency talked on the place and character of advertisements, and Mr. Stevens of the Christian Science Monitor gave a delightfully informal talk, in which he answered questions on the various "hows" of college journalism.

The Smith College Weekly was elected head of the association for next year. The plans of the association seem to be working very well, and, indeed, with every new conference one realizes afresh the value of intercollegiate communication. This year's meeting was extremely successful and the gratitude and appreciation of the Barnard delegation goes out to our generous hostesses. Watch for weekly improvements in the BULLETIN!

Indians Win Sing Song.

The Hooverized Sing Song on Friday, March 1, was interesting not so much for its musical quality as for its more than usually ingenious repartee between the acts and for the innovation of Alumnae judges. No one was more surprized than the Seniors that their rendering of "Barnard Taps" won first place in the serious song. The Juniors' peppy, clear rendering of "We Are the Undergraduates"—deservedly won the non-serious contest. When the grand total was found to be, 1919, 9 points; 1918, 6½ points; 1921, 5½ points; 1920, 3½ points, the wild Indians broke out into a war dance and carried the spoils of the fray to S. H. And then the Seniors nearly did something derogatory to their d-d-d-ignity.

In a snappy, fast game, thrilling and do-or-dieful—the Freshmen defeated the Juniors by a score of 10 to 8. The Juniors played well together as a team, but could not break through the brilliant Fresh defense.

With the aid of many and spectacular baskets by Louisa Eyre, the Sophs defeated the Seniors. The higher class showed much more resistance in the second half than the first, but the game ended 15 to 4, in favor of '20.
