A former officer of the Columbia Honor Board has released a series of cases that were reviewed and decided on during the past year. The cases, which range from minor to more serious violations of the Honor Code, are meant to provide insight into the workings of the board and the procedures used in making decisions.

By Susan Hogen

The closed-door policy of the Honor Board, which was altered last year by Alice Altshul, chairman of the board, has led to a decrease in the number of cases heard. The board, according to Altshul, is now publishing the cases brought before it in the BULLETIN.

The decision to release the cases was motivated by a number of factors. First, Altshul, as chairman of the board, wanted to offer Columbia the opportunity to study the procedures and methods used by the board in handling cases. Secondly, the board hoped that this would be a feedback channel for students who wish to bring attention to their concerns.

Demonstration at Soviet Mission

Columbia and Barnard students marched to the Soviet Mission to deliver a Passover proclamation on behalf of Soviet Jewry last Friday. The demonstration called for the reinstatement of the basic human rights of Jews in the Soviet Union. The ceremony began at noon with the sounding of the Shofar (ram's horn), and a reading from the Haggadah, the story of Passover. The march proceeded to the Soviet Mission, ending possibly in their ranks as they went. The group intended to present the petition to Dr. M. Molotov, the Soviet Ambassador to the United Nations, however, upon reaching the mission, the representatives were barred admission. The protestation was allowed to the door and a placard and a Haggadah were left at the steps. The group dispersed with the singing of the Jewish national anthem.

Honor Board Releases Cases

The following cases have been reviewed during the past year and represent the type of cases and the manner in which they will be made public:

- The social student was in language lab. The source of the dictation was named in the tape. The student then went upstage to get the book with the dictation in it and bring it back to the lab. Since language labs do not usually count very much in the final grade, the student felt that the punishment was too severe. After her appeal, the Board upheld the original sentence.

- A committee is being formed to abolish the secretive air presently surrounding the Honor Code.

- By Fred Block

Two of the largest political demonstrations to be seen at Columbia in recent years took place on Thursday and Friday of last week, over the issue of Marine recruitment on campus. The events created an atmosphere of political tension and polarization unprecedented in any of Columbia's earlier demonstrations against the Vietnam War.

The threat of the Marine recruiters became an issue even before their arrival on Thursday. The administration overruled the University Disciplinary Board and the Board of Managers, by insisting that the Marine be allowed to recruit in John Jay whether or not the Marines had been given permission through normal channels. On Thursday, the action began with a Sardin rally addressed by several leaders of Columbia SDS including Ted Kaptchuk, chairman of Columbia SDS and by Greg Culver, National Secretary of SDS. SDS stated that they would have no objection to the Marines if they came to enroll in free and open debates. Observing that it was only the administration, not student groups, that had invited the Marines, SDS suggested that a democratic university, such decisions should be made by the students and faculty.

The rally ended with a march by about 400 students to John Jay Hall.

University officials represented by Donald Young, a visiting professor in front of Hartley Hall. Nearly 400 SDS sympathizers were led by Hartley by Chaplain Cameron, and joined by faculty members and counter-demonstrators, about 250 students stood on South Field hurling epithets and chanting, "SES must go!"

Despite the tension between the two groups, despite several attempts by some of the student group to attack the picket line, peace was maintained. The University cancelled the scheduled recruiting by the U.S. Army on Monday.
Committee Aids Burned Viet Children

Professors Mary Mothersill and Sue Larson, Barnard Philosophy Department are working through the Barnard division of the Committee for Responsibility. The organization intends to bring badly burned or mutilated Vietnamese children to the United States for treatment.

The government objected to the Committee's plan stating that the children would suffer "cultural shock" if separated from their families and familiar surroundings. After members of the Committee met with representatives of the State Department, the government agreed to furnish visas for the children. The use of government hospital planes to transport the children to the U.S. is still under discussion. If the government refuses to let the Committee use their planes they will arrange for commercial air transportation.

A medical team to go to Vietnam and select the first group of children is now being formed. "The children will be selected solely on the basis of medical need, regardless of which side won," Dr. Albert Sabo, the developer of the oral polio vaccine and one of the Committee's national sponsors stated. The Committee's position on selection is "We are not here to establish who is guilty. We are here to repair the damage."

In addition, to Dr. Sabo, the no named sponsors of the operation founded by a group of Boston physicians also includes Dr. Benjamin Spock, noted pediatrics, and the Rev. John C. Bennet, president of Union Theological Seminary in New York. Dr. Sabo reported that it was impossible to "get a group of children to go over there" but that several experienced plastic surgeons had told him that they would be glad to treat the children if they were brought to the United States. Aside from the shortage of physicians in Vietnam, the lack of modern medicine and medication would make this delicate operation required by those children impossible in the average hospital there. Six or seven hospitals in Boston, Philadelphia, New York, and Los Angeles have indicated willingness to provide facilities for the treatment.

The estimated cost of treatment for each child will be between $15,000 and $20,000. There is a booth on Julee distributing information and collecting contributions this week.

'B' Get Wine and Cheese

With the realization that after Barnard seniors have ceased to be seniors, they become Barnard alumnus, the Alumnae Board of Directors this year has decided to hold a party in honor of the present senior class. The Class of '67 will be feted at the May Wine and Cheese Party, to be held on Wednesday, May 3, from 9:00 to 10:30 in the College Parlor of Barnard Hall Sarah Ann Dinkin, Chaperon, Class of 39, is the chairman.

An informal poll taken among the students showed some dissatisfaction with the past practice of the Alumnae Board of Directors to give bear charms to the seniors. The students agreed that a party would be more enjoyable. This is the first time that such an event will be held, and hopefully, this practice will be continued in the future.

According to Miss Wallace of the Alumnae Office, the party will be "straight fun," with no special agenda. She explained that a warranting party was chosen in order to have a different kind of affair than a tea, which is very common in Barnard social and intellectual life. Miss Wallace expressed the hope that as many of the 21 directors of the Alumni Board of Directors will come as possible.

SUMMER IN EUROPE

E7 June 22 - August 15 $270.00

NY - London - NY

T. W. A.

Columbia Student Agencies

617 WEST 115TH STREET, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10027

TENTATIVE EXAM SCHEDULE — MAY 1967

MONDAY, MAY 22
9:00 a.m. Art Hist 26
11:30 a.m. Art Hist 42

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24
9:00 a.m. Art Hist 66
11:30 a.m. Art Hist 10

THURSDAY, MAY 25
9:00 a.m. Art Hist 72
11:30 a.m. Art Hist 32

FRIDAY, MAY 26
9:00 a.m. Art Hist 78
11:30 a.m. Art Hist 34

MONDAY, MAY 29
9:00 a.m. Art Hist 26
11:30 a.m. Art Hist 42

TUESDAY, MAY 30
9:00 a.m. Art Hist 26
11:30 a.m. Art Hist 32

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31
9:00 a.m. Art Hist 66
11:30 a.m. Art Hist 10

THURSDAY, JUNE 1
9:00 a.m. Art Hist 72
11:30 a.m. Art Hist 32

SECOND WEEK — Monday, May 29 - June 1st

This schedule is tentative.

Any conflict between two examinations should be reported to the Registrar at once. Class examinations will be given on the following schedule:

AFTER 3:30 P.M. ON MAY 31st CANNOT BE ADJUSTED.

Schedules will be announced on the final examination schedule.
The Search: Transfers Look to Barnard

By MARILYN BAIN

Barnard students are traditionally introspective. They seek to find their true selves, but as a result, they are often disillusioned and disillusioned by the academic world. It seems like a more "natural" way to go to school. "Barnard is a very easy-going, friendly place," Vittoria, a sophomore, said. "I like being left on my own and being able to treat the academic aspect as a nine-to-five job."

Impressions

The bad: "The isolation is overwhelming." "I'm introverted and it's hard to get into the dorms, so it's not easy for me to make friends." "Barnard simply isn't a community. It can't be since it's the size of the East Village." This isn't necessarily bad, since community-type places can get overly oppressive, but I do wish it were a little easier to meet people.

New Experiences

To transfer meant, for most girls, to be exposed to new people, ideas, and experiences. And few girls regretted it. In fact, several recommended transferring—even for those who were content with the schools they attend. A sophomore from Wellesley College perhaps summed it up best with, "I recommend transfer or temporary withdrawal. A girl becomes too set by going straight through high school and college. Changing gives different perspectives on yourself and on others."

Academia

Many surveys from small schools with limited course offerings, looking for the "intellectual atmosphere" they've expected to find at their first college. Some are interested in the academic programs or courses—such as the Oriental Studies programs that Barnard offers. Some were satisfied, some not. Often courses did not measure up to previous expectations. Many transfers, looking for a "creative and stimulating" academic life, found that courses at Barnard were "academic and dull," "creative and stimulating." Some girls, for example, felt that Barnard's academic opportunities were limited. "I'm an introvert, and Barnard is a little too quiet for me." Others felt that Barnard's intellectual climate could satisfy her.

WANTED: CUSC DELEGATES

Nominations and elections at

State Assembly Meeting

THURSDAY, APRIL 27 AT 12 NOON

409-BARNARD

Candidates should be prepared to give a short statement, followed by questions and discussion.

Hair Today? Gone Tomorrow!

By MARILYN BAIN

Hair today? Gone tomorrow! A survey of the women's hairlen.
The Roundabout Theatre: Pelléas and Melisande

By ELLEN SCHULMAN

According to the Roundabout Theatre's publicity, its current production of PELLEAS AND MELISANDE is "as beautiful as Romeo and Juliet." The comparison between Master Lin's play and Shakespeare is not entirely arbitrary, but neither is it accurate.

True, both plays are about love, marriage, and death, but neither of them has a happy ending.

The cover is simply a collection of Feiffer cartoon strips, but the lack of color in the cover makes it more difficult to appreciate the humor in the strips. However, the absence of color also makes the strips more accessible to readers who may not have access to the original color versions.

"Pelléas and Melisande" is the third offering of the Roundabout Theatre'sONY GROUP HOUSE in the basement of the JAMES ROOM at 68 West 36th Street, currently featuring "American " (By Sarah Bradby). The show is directed by Herbert Ross, and is an excellent production of the legendary play.

Theater-goers should remember that Herb Evans is not the only man in the world, but there are many others who are just as good. Herb Evans is eminently satisfied with his expenditure. Here one can see how much money can be saved by limiting oneself to the really good productions.

Jules Feiffer's Marriage Manual

By K. LOWENTHAL

Brown all the way through a cute little book, but Feiffer's version of "The JAMES ROOM" is well worth the price.

"The JAMES ROOM" is a collection of Feiffer cartoon strips, but the lack of color in the cover makes it more difficult to appreciate the humor in the strips. However, the absence of color also makes the strips more accessible to readers who may not have access to the original color versions.

"Fathers and Daughters" is the third offering of the Roundabout Theatre's ONY GROUP HOUSE in the basement of the JAMES ROOM at 68 West 36th Street, currently featuring "American Soul." (By Sarah Bradby). The show is directed by Herbert Ross, and is an excellent production of the legendary play.

Theater-goers should remember that Herb Evans is not the only man in the world, but there are many others who are just as good. Herb Evans is eminently satisfied with his expenditure. Here one can see how much money can be saved by limiting oneself to the really good productions.

"Jules Feiffer's Marriage Manual" is a collection of Feiffer cartoon strips, but the lack of color in the cover makes it more difficult to appreciate the humor in the strips. However, the absence of color also makes the strips more accessible to readers who may not have access to the original color versions.

Jules Feiffer's Marriage Manual

By K. LOWENTHAL

Brown all the way through a cute little book, but Feiffer's version of "The JAMES ROOM" is well worth the price.

"The JAMES ROOM" is a collection of Feiffer cartoon strips, but the lack of color in the cover makes it more difficult to appreciate the humor in the strips. However, the absence of color also makes the strips more accessible to readers who may not have access to the original color versions.

"Fathers and Daughters" is the third offering of the Roundabout Theatre's ONY GROUP HOUSE in the basement of the JAMES ROOM at 68 West 36th Street, currently featuring "American Soul." (By Sarah Bradby). The show is directed by Herbert Ross, and is an excellent production of the legendary play.

The theater-goers should remember that Herb Evans is not the only man in the world, but there are many others who are just as good. Herb Evans is eminently satisfied with his expenditure. Here one can see how much money can be saved by limiting oneself to the really good productions.

"Jules Feiffer's Marriage Manual" is a collection of Feiffer cartoon strips, but the lack of color in the cover makes it more difficult to appreciate the humor in the strips. However, the absence of color also makes the strips more accessible to readers who may not have access to the original color versions.
Dr. Marjory Nelson

Mrs. Grothe holds a Ph.D. in Columbia's School of Psychiatry and is a M.A. from the University of Psychiatric Social Work.

Dr. De Frieis, graduated from Hunter College and New York Medical College. She took her residency in gynecology at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center. Later she was a Consulting Psychiatrist to several

A New Doctor And Other Suggestions

“...I’d like the opportunity of finishing a sentence with ‘Dr. Nelson.’”

“I...I never go there if I have something really wrong with me.”

“The Secretary seems rather bureaucratic.”

“...Once in the Infirmary, you should be discharged by another doctor.”

They intimidate you when you go into the office. You have to prove to them that you are sick.”

“If you go to an outside doctor.”

“...The Nurses are nice. They give nice shots with no bruises.”

“I have anything really wrong with me.”

Miss Park commented that “...I never go there if I have something really wrong with me.”

“...The Secretary seems rather bureaucratic.”

The Committee felt that “Barnard girls would rather have a separate health service.”

The purpose of the Student Medicals is to determine the effects of the first-year of college on a girl’s health habits. Complete Medics are required before entering Barnard due to the lack of adequate facilities in the Medical Office, and because family physicians have greater knowledge of each girl’s medical history.

NURSING AND LAB ASSISTANTS

Barnard’s Counselling Service is now staffed by three part-time assistants and one full-time Psychiatric Social Worker. Consulting psychiatrists Dr. Louise Brush and Dr. Helen Staib are both Barnard graduates. Dr. Brush went on to Physicians & Surgeons, trained at New York Hospital, and taught at Physicians & Surgeons, and Cornell before coming to Barnard. Their interest in teenagers has been an asset in working with Barnard students.

COUNSELLING SERVICES

Barnard’s Counselling Service is now staffed by three part-time assistants and one full-time Psychiatric Social Worker. Consulting psychiatrist Drs. Louise Brush and Helen Staib are both Barnard graduates. Dr. Brush went on to Physicians & Surgeons, trained at New York Hospital, and taught at Physicians & Surgeons, and Cornell before coming to Barnard. Their interest in teenagers has been an asset in working with Barnard students.

A new policy of sick trays to Dorm Students has been implemented, with only 2 or 3 girls each week, according to Mrs. Smith at the Food Services. Names of girls requesting the service are forwarded to Mrs. O’Regan immediately, who then advises each girl to visit the Medical Office. Their interest in teenagers has been an asset in working with Barnard students.

COUNSELLING SERVICES

Barnard’s Counselling Service is now staffed by three part-time assistants and one full-time Psychiatric Social Worker. Consulting psychiatrists Dr. Louise Brush and Dr. Helen Staib are both Barnard graduates. Dr. Brush went on to Physicians & Surgeons, trained at New York Hospital, and taught at Physicians & Surgeons, and Cornell before coming to Barnard. Their interest in teenagers has been an asset in working with Barnard students.

The purposes of the Student Medicals is to determine the effects of the first-year of college on a girl’s health habits. Complete Medics are required before entering Barnard due to the lack of adequate facilities in the Medical Office, and because family physicians have greater knowledge of each girl’s medical history.

QUALIFICATIONS

Dr. Nelson, is a graduate of Barnard College, Cornell Medi- cal School, and has done graduate work in Health Education at Teachers’ College. She spent nine years in General Practice, before assuming the Directorship of the Health Department servicing over eleven thousand students. Later, she worked five years in the outpatient department of New York Hospital and also as an Assistant attending at Mt. Vernon Hospital.

ACCREDITATION

This service is accredited by the American Medical Association. The New York State Medical Society's Director in Charge of Education represents The Westchester County Medical Association, and is a member of the Westchester County Board of

A New Doctor And Other Suggestions

Forrest L. Abbott, Treasurer and Controller of Barnard College, informed the Student Advisory Committee to the Health Service that an additional part-time Doctor has been provided for in the 1967-68 Annual College Budget.

Chairman Landa Louise, Member of the Committee's Purpose; “To express this committee's concern and sympathy for an Additional Doctor at Barnard.” Guest at a meeting held March 3 included Dr. Marjory Nelson and Mrs. Elizabeth Myers, Di- rector of College Activities.

Barnard's expanding campus and student body require an additional doctor to meet standards set by College Health Ser- vices. The American College Health Association recommends, as Dr. Nelson pointed out, one full-time doctor for every 1000 students. She cited as obstacles to an additional Doctor the lack of office space, the added salary cost, and the difficulty of filling the post.

At present, each student pays $30 a year medical fee which provides a budget of $90,000. This year, a deficit of $35,600 will be paid for by a General College Fund. Dr. Nelson stated that an insurance policy, an alternative suggested by the Committee, would provide hospital coverage and not funds to finance the medical service, the Committee has decided to explore this possibility more thoroughly.

Mr. Altheim reported the Committee, in a meeting with Miss Park, that only a higher student medical fee could provide the proposed budget of $90,000. A poll of student reactions to a medical fee rise was suggested, but deemed unnecessary by Miss Park. She had proposed merging with the Columbia University Health Service, but the Committee felt that "Barnard girls would rather have a separate health service."
What was the purpose of this book and why does the author think it's valuable? The author believes this book is valuable because it provides a unique perspective on the assassination of President Kennedy.
Wednesday, April 26

"Crime in a Planned Society.—Juvenile Delinquency in the Soviet Union," Speech by Professor Juvelier. Noon: College Parlor
Sponsored by the Government Club.

"Organ - Recital, by Philip Hahn," St. Paul's Chapel, 12 noon.
Noon Reading: "Poems About the Shape and Size of the World," by Angus Fletcher, Associate Professor of English, Hewitt Lounge, Ferris Booth Hall, 12:20 p.m.

College Tea, 4:00-5:00 p.m., James Room.
Oceanography Seminar: "The Vertical Temperature - Velocity Profiles in The Cape Verde Basin," Lamont Geological Observatory, Palsades, New Jersey, 4:00 p.m.

"Pollution — The Chemical Assault On Our Environment," by Raymond Dicso Assistent Professor of Chemistry, Schuy Hall, Ferris Hall, 4:10 p.m.
Jazz Concert, by the Don York Quintet, Wollman Auditorium, 8:00 p.m.

Low Rotunda.

Julliard Concert of music by Schubert, Mozart and Prokofiev, 7:00 p.m. at 2880 Broadway, 4:00 p.m.

"Science Chemistry of Non-Aqueous Systems," by Dr. N. I. Jarvis; and "Monochyfer Wave Damping," by Dr. W. D. Garret, Naval Research Lab., Washington, D.C., Henry Krump School of Mines, 4:22 A. Mudd, 3:30 p.m.

Colloquium: "The Goddard Institute Infrared Program," Goddard Institute for Space Studies, 2890 Broadway, 5:00 p.m.

Program planning meetings will be held on Thursday, April 27. The locations are:
- Art History 302 B
- Economics 417 L
- English 304 B
- German 133 B
- Government 306 B
- History 416 L
- Italian 217 M
- Music 221 M
- Psychology 315 M
- Religion 59 M
- Russian 37 M
- Sociology 422 L
- Spanish 22 M

Friday, April 28

Majors Exams, 9-12, noon, in Gym

"Canada's Contribution to Economic Development in the Less-Developed Countries," by the Honorable Paul Martin, Secretary of State for External Affairs, Canada, 2 p.m., Room C Law
Tickets available at 213 Low or call 209-3910.

"Interpretation of Experiments in Allka Plasmas." by Dr. Bruno Cappi, Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory, 3 p.m., 214 A Mudd.

"Canadian University Glee Club's Annual Spring Concert at Town Hall, 4 W 43rd St Party will follow immediately at CU Club Student admission two for.

Friday, April 28

Majors Exams, 9-12, noon, in Gym

"Canada's Contribution to Economic Development in the Less-Developed Countries," by the Honorable Paul Martin, Secretary of State for External Affairs, Canada, 2 p.m., Room C Law
Tickets available at 213 Low or call 209-3919.

"Interpretation of Experiments in Allka Plasmas." by Dr. Bruno Cappi, Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory, 3 p.m., 214 A Mudd.

"Canadian University Glee Club's Annual Spring Concert at Town Hall, 4 W 43rd St Party will follow immediately at CU Club Student admission two for.

Saturday, April 29

Father Herbert Musurillo speaking on the idea of time in Tibetus at the Spring Meeting of the N.Y. Classical Club in the College Parlor, at 2:30 p.m.

Shipwreck Dance at Stevens Tech, Hoboken, N.J., in the Pierce Room at 8:30 p.m. Casual dress, two bands. Tickets $1.50 with Barnard ID.

The Masterwork Chorus, David Randolph conducting, will present Off's 'Carmina Burana' and Williams' Mass in G Minor in Carnegie Hall. Phone OR 5-0260.

Monday, May 1

Computer Science Colloquium. "Subnanosecond Germanium Digital Circuits," by A. S Farber, manager High Speed Circuits & Systems, Thomas J. Watson Research Center, IBM Electrical Engineering Dept 110 p.m, 331 Mudd

"Maxx's Capital," lecture by Raya Dunayevskaya, former secretary of Leon Trotsky, Graduate Sociological Society 6 p.m, Room B, Law

Wednesday, May 3

Israel Emiot and Malak Lee read their poetry in Yiddish, The Poetry Center, 92nd St and Lexington Ave 5-0 p.m., $1.50

Frederick Swann, organ concert, Riverside Church, tickets $1.50, 8:30
Another Two Weeks: Last Week's Events; This Week's Eventualities

Oral French Prize

The competition for the annual $55 Hoffherr Oral French Prize will take place Wednesday, May 3, at 4:30, in the French Room (12 Milbank). The prize is offered to encourage proficiency among students of the junior class who are not themselves of French background. Candidates are expected to have taken French courses throughout their Barnard career.

The winner will be chosen on the basis of a ten minute talk prepared on a specific subject. The topic this year is an informal commentary on the following observation of Pascal: "On se persuade mieux, pour l'ordinaire, par les raisons qu'on a soumission trouvées, que par celles qui sont venues dans l'esprit des autres."

Candidates should sign up with Mrs. Kormos (10 Milbank) by May 1.

Language Fellowships

Two-year graduate fellowships leading to an M.A. degree for prospective secondary school teachers of Spanish and French are available at N.Y.U.'s School of Education. Fellowships carry a stipend of $5000 for the first year and $2500 for the second.

Complete information and application forms can be obtained from Dr. Emilio L. Guerra, Division of Foreign Language and International Relations Education, N.Y.U. School of Education, Washington Square, N.Y. 10003.

Student Composer

The first works by a Barnard student composer, Faye Silverman, highlighter the April "Music for an Hour" concert on Tuesday, April 18. Miss Silverman performed on the piano her String Quartet and Five Piano Moods. Songs by Chabrier and Brahms' E Minor Cello Sonata completed the program.

Summer Session Info

1) Work done in the summer will be entered on the Barnard record whether or not it is to be given credit or used for a requirement. The program is approved in advance by the advisor and individual courses by the Chairman of the appropriate Barnard department.

2) Credit toward the 32-course required for the degree will be given when the work is taken to make up a deficiency incurred during the year, or when permission to accelerate has been granted by the Committee on Programs and Academic Standing.

3) A maximum of four courses may be taken for credit. Work must be of B+ or better grade. Grades are not figured in the general average.

Extensions

A student who wishes an extension of time for the submission of written work, including laboratory reports, is required to obtain the written permission of the instructor on a form issued by the Barnard Registrar and to file the form in the Registrar's Office. This applies to courses at General Studies, Columbia College and Graduate Faculties as well as to Barnard courses.

Time extension permits must be filed in the Registrar's Office before May 5. Papers are to be sent to the Registrar's Office before June 23. They will be forwarded to the instructor.

Major Exams

Major Exams will be held the day before and Friday. The full schedule of times and places is posted on the Registrar's Bulletin Board.

Summer Grants

The Summer Grants Committee is now accepting applications for summer grants from those students who wish to pursue special projects or internships and need financial help to do so. All students are eligible except for graduating seniors.

The Committee is composed of three students, Susan Berggren '68, Istelle Friedman '69, Joanne Rand '70, and two Faculty members.

Applications may be picked up on June 28. They must be submitted to CAP before April 28.

Room Drawings

Room selection dates have been changed to Wednesday, May 3 for all resident juniors; Thursday, May 4 for all resident sophomores Monday, May 5 for all resident freshmen; and Tuesday, May 9 for all non-residents.

The room selection for residents will be in the evening in Barnard Hall; for non-residents at 9:30-5 in Room 106. Exact times and places will be posted in Room 106.

Fencing Victory

Barnard defeated Caldwell, N.Y.U., and Rochester Institute of Technology in the Intercollegiate Women's Fencing Association National Championships held on the seventh and eighth of April at Hunter College. The Barnard team won three out of seven bouts, missing by one decisive point a chance to compete in the finals. Coach Ben Zivkovic observed, "Not a bad showing considering this is Barnard's first year of intercollegiate competition."

Of the fifteen teams Barnard placed eighth, ending a 3 wins: 1 loss season. The six fencers on the team were: captain Debby Burke, Pam West, Beatrice Halas-Kun, Judy Kain, and substitutes Auzanne Nepedor and Pamela Wollack.

Correction

We neglected to include a notice with the cartoon entitled "Greek Games at Barnard" with the caption: "The sophomore horses are . . ." The notice should have read: Drawing by P. Barlow. Capri. © 1968, 1965 The New Yorker Magazine, Inc.

Thursday Noon

Associate Professor Kenneth J. Jones, Lecturer in English and Director of the Minor Latham Theatre will speak at this week's Thursday Noon Meeting in the College Parlor. His topic is "Don't Put Your Daughter on the Stage, Mrs. Worthington."

Barnard-Columbia Chorus

The Barnard-Columbia Chorus will present its second concert Saturday at 8:30 in McMillin Theatre. Works by Brahms, Kodaly, Schutz and others will be presented. Mr. Daniel Fagel will direct. Admission is free.

Can you answer these?

1. "Some are born great, some achieve greatness and some have greatness thrust upon them." For ten points, was it Sir Winston Churchill, Sir Walter Raleigh, or William Shakespeare who wrote this?

2. What classic of English literature, published in 1847 and 1848, is subtitled "A Novel without a Hero"?

3. With what common profession could you associate these names: John Sloan, Jan Steen, and a man named Adolph Schicklgruber?

4. Which chemical element, discovered by an alchemist in 1669, is now used chiefly as a fertilizer?

5. Which came first: The Congress of Vienna, the Council of Trent, or the Edict of Nantes?

Answers:

1. Shakespeare in "Twelfth Night."

2. Thackeray's Vanity Fair.

3. Painting. Sloan was an American painter and etcher. Schicklgruber, or Hitler, a commercial artist.

4. Phosphorus in the form of phosphates.

5. The Council of Trent.