MANDATORY MEETINGS REGARDING YOUR AUTUMN '91 PROGRAM OF COURSES: The College Calendar designates April 4-23 as the period to plan next semester's program and to sign up for Barnard courses with limited enrollment. (A list of those courses will be in your campus mailbox shortly.) FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS and FIRST-SEMESTER SOPHOMORES will meet with Dean Denburg in 304 Barnard today, MON., APR. 1, at 5:30 or THURS., APR. 4, at noon.

OTHER REQUIRED PROGRAM PLANNING MEETINGS in major departments are being scheduled for SECOND-SEMESTER SOPHOMORES and JUNIORS in the weeks ahead. Check your campus mailbox, departmental and Registrar's bulletin boards, and this column for the exact dates, time, and location of your department's meeting. CHEMISTRY majors and minors should arrange to see their advisers individually and prospective majors/minors should see any member of the department; EDUCATION: APR. 8-11 Open House, 1:30-4:30 PM, 335 and 336 Milbank; ENGLISH: meet with majors and prospective majors as well as sign-up for limited enrollment courses TUES., APR. 2, 1:10 PM, Sulzberger Parlor; FRENCH: THURS., APR. 4, 3 PM, 306 Milbank; MUSIC: THURS., APR. 4, 10:30 AM, 409 Milbank, POLITICAL SCIENCE: TUES., APR. 2, 4 PM, 421 Lehman, refreshments will be served; SOCIOLOGY: MON. APR. 8, 4 PM, Sulzberger Parlor; THEATER: Tues. APR. 2, 4PM, 229 Milbank; URBAN AFFAIRS: TUES., APR. 2, 4 PM, 421 Lehman.

ADVANCED WARNING: LOTTERIES for Autumn '91 courses will take place as follows: ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE: APR. 8-19, 334 Milbank; PSYCHOLOGY: APR. 9-11, 415 Milbank.

LAST CALL FOR SOPHOMORES who have not yet seen their advisers for an official audit of fulfillment of their degree requirements to date: By WED., APR. 3, every sophomore should have seen her adviser to complete the audit form. The audit establishes both for you and your major adviser-to-be the requirements you have yet to satisfy.

POLICY ON GENERAL STUDIES BUSINESS F3000 COURSES: Of the three undergraduate courses offered by the School of General Studies, only Business F3001, Finance, has been approved for degree credit. However, because of significant overlaps in course content, a student cannot receive credit for both BUS F3001 and ECO BC3036, Financial Markets; or for both BUS F3001 and ECO W3022, Economics of Finance; or for both BUS F3001 and BUS B6301, Business Finance. Seen as equivalent to a course in economics, BUS F3001, despite its business rubric, will not be subject to the 18-point cap on "non-liberal arts" courses or to the two-course cap on School of Business courses. Neither BUS F3010, Managerial Behavior, nor BUS F3020, Marketing, has Committee on Instruction approval for Barnard degree credit. Programs listing either course will not be approved.

DEADLINE FOR SOPHOMORES TO DECLARE MAJOR: WED., APR. 10. Obtain form from 107 Milbank, secure signature of Chair of your major department, leave one copy with her/him, and FILE ORIGINAL WITH THE REGISTRAR. If still undecided, consult with your academic adviser and faculty departments under consideration, then make a choice by APR. 10 even if you remain ambivalent. It is essential that future programs be planned with major requirements in mind. (If you should wish to change to another major within the next semester, you may do so by simply securing the approval of your new department and filing a Change of Major form with the Registrar.)

PREMEDS, PRELAWS: The new MCAT and LSAT booklets may be picked up at the Dean of Studies Office, 105 Milbank. PRELAW applicants for 1992: meet with Dean Rowland on THURS., APR. 11, 12:15-1:15 PM in Sulzberger Parlor, Barnard Hall. Those who miss the meeting can pick up handouts at 105 Milbank APR. 12.

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATIONS for the 1991-92 academic year are available in the Financial Aid Office, 14 Milbank. REMEMBER that all current financial aid recipients MUST RE-APPLY for financial aid. The deadline for submitting completed forms: WED., APR. 17.

STUDENTS CONTEMPLATING STUDY LEAVE 1991-92: To qualify for a study leave, you must be in solid academic standing and have no incomplete courses on your Barnard record. To avoid loss of degree credit, the content of the courses you select cannot overlap that of courses already credited toward your degree. If in doubt, consult the Chairs of appropriate Barnard departments or Dean

Schneider, whose approvals are required on the study leave form. Be sure to arrange for enrollment in Barnard courses of your choice for the semester of your return to the campus—especially important if seminars, colloquia, lab courses are contemplated.

REID HALL APPLICANTS: Be sure to see Dean Schneider to discuss your application, which must be signed by him and submitted to the Reid Hall Office in 412 Lewisohn by today, APR. 1.

SENIORS: Though it is now too late to make nominations for the student speaker at Commencement and for the senior marshals, it is important for you to return to Dean King the form mailed to you so that a complete list of thesis topics or interesting projects can be obtained. A letter was recently mailed to all seniors with information about Commencement. If you did not receive the letter please see Dean King, 105 Milbank.

DEADLINE FOR WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE (W recorded): FRI., APR. 19, at 107 Milbank. No extensions permitted; decision is irreversible. Bear in mind your eligibility requirements for financial aid and satisfactory progress toward the degree. (See p. 32, Catalogue)

INTERESTED IN INSTRUMENTAL INSTRUCTION AT JUILLIARD OR MANHATTAN SCHOOL OF MUSIC? Musically qualified students are invited to audition for September '91 enrollment in a course of music lessons at either conservatory. Juilliard: MAR. 15, for the May 20-22 auditions has passed, but application may still be possible with payment of late fee in addition to $35 application fee. Manhattan: MON., APR. 15 deadline for May 21-24 auditions and a MON., JUL. 15 deadline for the AUG 19-20 auditions Pick up applications at the Registrar's Office.

Love, Sidney (Actual Letters From an Actual Reader)

February 22, 1991

Dear Gretchen Crary and Ali Stone,

They shall beat their ploughshares into swords and their Peace Dividend into War Extra. And nation shall lift up Economic Peace Conversion into War Overtime against nation. Neither shall they learn peace any more but shall meditate day and night on the deeper wisdom of civilized Overkill.

—Isaiah according to George Bush
Discovery.
Sidney Simon

March 12, 1991

Dear Gretchen Crary and Ali Stone,

National leaders who commit ecological crimes against our Earth openly endorse their own self-elimination. Their very actions against our Earth are sufficient self-endorsement for self-elimination. No trial or legal proceeding is necessary.

Those with ready access to such leaders or public officials should not hesitate to grant the innate death wish of such eco-criminals and thereby save our planet for future generations.

Discovery.
Sidney Simon

March 14, 1991

Dear Gretchen Crary and Ali Stone,

Here is a vision for a counterparade to the Gulf War Victory Parade.

It would consist of a series of floats:

A strange figure seated on a lunar landscape peers through a giant telescope and sees an earthscape of Man's Greatest Achievements visible from outer space:

- The Great Wall of China
- Los Angeles Smog
- Kuwaiti Oil Slick in the Persian Gulf

Gahndi Bush Interview:

Gahndi learning on a golf club saying to Bush "Yes, Western Civilization would be a good idea."

Guest Hostages in New York and Bagdad:

-Homeless hostages in shelter being interviewed on American TV.

-Saddam Hussein with child guest hostages on Iraqi TV.

Two Devils and Angel of Death

Satanic masked figures of Khomeini and Saddam with Bush as overshadowing Angel of Death saying "Kill them for they know not what they do."

Triumphant Bush with golf club seated on world globe proudly announcing "By God, we've kicked that Viet Nam syndrome at last!"

Band of musicians, all dressed with horns and tail, joyfully playing the hymn Onward Christian Soldiers.

Discovery.

March 28, 1991

Dear Sidney,

Thank you for all your enlightening letters. We have kept them up on our bulletin board for all to see, read and, in your own words, discover.

But now we would like to take this opportunity to share our discoveries with you and the Barnard community.

What were people wearing at the Oscars this year, anyway? How did Jodie Foster's boobs stay in that dress? (Don't get any funny ideas a la Hinckley, Sidney). Didn't Alec Baldwin learn after last year not to take that lush Kim Basinger to the Oscars. She's such a mess. Do Gina Davis and Julia Roberts want to be twin sisters, or something? Way to go, bottle blondes. And talk about Satan. Whoopi Goldberg as Best Supporting Actress? Micheal Jackson and Madonna—star-crossed, marriage of the minds. We hope your fingers get better, Mike.

Sorry, we just had to get that off our chests. Now, about your letters.

Sure, in your own words, "national leaders who commit ecological crimes against our Earth openly endorse their own self-destruction" but what Hollywood actors and actresses who commit fashion faux-pas? Should these crimes go unnoticed in the nature-conscious nineties.

When you say self-endorsement for self-elimination do you mean we should issue our own death warrant for these characters, a la Salman Rushdie? We'll leave that up to you.

We've been to L.A. and we understand your gripe with smog, and the oil slick is kind of a bummer too, but the Great Wall? Just remember Sidney, fences make good neighbors.

Sidney, we love a parade, too. Especially ones with a golf theme. Although we know for a fact that the Dalai Lama himself is a much better golfer (he gave Bill Murray eternal life, remember?).

And Sidney, we know guests, those hostages were not guests. Did they get a mint on their pillow, did they get a do not disturb sign. No, Sidney, they did not.

Onward Christian Soldiers? We don't know that one. Oh, yeah, we know it. We give it a nine. You can't dance to it. Before you hire this band, Sidney, make sure they can play Tie a Yellow Ribbon, or at least old favorites.

Anyway, Sidney. Discover. It's a great concept. So PC it stings.

Sincerely,

Gretchen and Ali

P.S. Are you going to murder us?

Candidates For SGA Offices

Lefair Fawcett-Majors '92
Candidate for SGA President

In this semester alone, students reacted to the threat of massive cuts in hairspray (non-aerosol, of course!), mousse, and Pearls Tooth Polish creme, war in the..., the, um... the, ...Oh you know that gulf thing down there!, economic recession (even though I still don't think it's that big of a deal) and a plethora of other events and concerns.

It is essential that we do not allow the spirit of our reactions to fade as specific events (see first paragraph) pass with time. We have a responsibility to confront the sources which will continue to create and prolong issues of the kind we have face in just the last few months. (Thanks, Ry...isn't he soooo smart?!)

Student government must work (really hard!!, come on, keep those legs up high!) to sustain the momentum of student reaction and channel it, through both current and specially designed programs, in active directions. (At least that's what my New Age therapist, Sky told me) War in that Gulf thingee down there, has ended, but the path towards peace remains long and really lengthy. The environmental thing really is soooo important to. That Alaska thing really makes me mad. That's why I decided to cut down on my limousine shopping trips down 5th Ave. You too can make that kind of difference.

Come on girls, let's hear it for the best darn school this side of the Mississippi—Gimme a B-a-r-n-a-d Huraah!

Maria Ho-Ho Hogan—platform for President of the 'best damn class ever'

Hey, chicks, listen up, and listen up good. I am going to be Senior Class Prez. I am going to have a blast, and so are you, and you better believe it. I am gonna make it the best ever, and you better believe it. That's why I'm running for Prez of the Best Class (My own idea) 1992. I was President of the world wide wrestling federation in my earlier years, and I kicked some major butt. Anyone who got in my way, was mushed up into really small pieces of dog barf and then spit out of a dirty straw. So if you're worried about those dudes over at that really whimpy school across the street, let me at 'em. I've thunk alot about running for this really decent position and I've decided that only wimps lose. I'm not a whip, and I'm not gonna lose. YOU HEAR ME? I'm willing to do stuff and to talk in front of people and stuff. No problemo. Some of my ideas are: weekend road trips (complete with complimentary wine coolers and hot dudes), private parties at various clubs in the city (complete with complimentary lite wine coolers and hot dudes) and career-wise, parties for us graduating cool as hell seniors with some of the old chicks to help us get passed all those peons from those six other lamo chick schools.

So remember big Ho-Ho-Hogan when your checking that little box, or else I'll see you on Uranus because it's gonna be your anus if you don't vote for the numero uno. (Get it your anus, Uranus?, I made that up me, myself and I)

Hi! My name is

ROSANNE MARIA BARR.

BC '92,

I am running for Vice-President of Student Activities-VPSA.

MY GOALS ARE:

- to increase club interactions amongst each other by encouraging BIG luncheons and dinners (With tons of those little BIG GRAB bags full of delicious Doritos Tortilla Cool Ranch Flavored Chips from those wonderful people in Mac), helping them in eating the food, helping them eat the left overs, and helping them with their menu planning.

- to encourage clubs to do more of these luncheon functions

- I really want students to become involved in every aspect of Dining Services. I mean it's done so much for me...you can see what it can do for you.

- to start the first chapter of the Barnard tattoo club

My experience:

Voted SGA Officer with the Whinniest

voice—Whining is my Specialllllllllltyeeeeeee.

Springfest Coordinator—planned and organized all eating events. Singlehandedly helped clean-up afterwards.

Hi. I'm Janna Vanna Alperwhite, 1992, and I'm running for...(The clue...a four letter title...)

V-I-C-E P-R-E-S-I-D-E-N-T F-O-R S-T-U-D-E-N-T A-F-F-A-I-R-S-! (Whew!)

My commitment to improving the Barnard College community through Representative Council membership since..., well geesh, since as long as my little head can ever remember! I'm am also committed to equality (any word with that many vowels is worth everyone's attention). My little heart just bleeds every time I see bad things, and let's face it folks, we live in a pretty tough world! The issues I have dealt include increasing intercourse, whoops, I mean interaction (I'm lost without Pat!) Columbia Men to Barnard girl contact. I feel that is the most, most, most important thing to concentrate on. I mean we are supposed to get married, aren't we?

As VPSG, I would seek to revitalize the tripartite (another one of those toughie words) system to increase these social contacts. I would also increase funding in several mini-courses, including courses on make-up application—the proper way, how to tie a bow (all different sizes) in your hair, how to manicure your nails while taking a medium to hot shower, and color coordination for New York Women (come, come girls, everyone knows black is way, way out.) I really, really am psyched about this job and like my momma told me when I was little, I can do anything if I try really hard. Goodnight everybody, and remember proper etiquette when waving: Lead with the elbow, and just move the wrist!

An Officer, a Gentleman and a BABE

Star of An Officer and a Gentleman, actor Richard Gere paid an impromptu visit to the Barnard campus last Thurs. March 28, to show off his girlfriend Supermodel Cindy Crawford. A crowd of approximately 200,000 Barnard students and other Gere fans crowded on to Lehman Lawn to hear the immensely cute actor speak about using his less-than-perfect physical attributes (short, big nose) to his advantage.

Gere considers himself one in a long list of short, ugly actors with a tremendous ability to sell himself to a glib, fawning public. Other actors in this category are

Dustin Hoffman, Al Pacino, Woody Allen. "Not only have all these actors earned themselves terrific reputations in Hollywood," commented Gene Shalet of NBC's Today Show, "they have all succeeded in finding girlfriends who are infinitely better looking than they could get if they were just your average Joe."

Gere was not only accompanied by his ravishing model girlfriend but a sure though. At first, we thought it was Gere's grandmother on account of the sort of flowing red and yellow mu-mu he was wearing."

The stranger who accompanied Gere on his recent visit proved disruptive when, during Gere's address to the student body, he stole the mike away from Gere and started talking in some unknown foreign language.

"I couldn't believe how rude he was," said Paulette Song (BC '92). "I mean, there was cute Richard, being all sweet and nice, letting his grandfather travel around with him and all. All of a sudden, the old geezer grabs the mike and starts talking as if he were God or something!"

Supermodel Cindy Crawford expressed embarrassment about the incident, but not about the huge mole stuck like an apple seed on her lip.

"I think he was Gere's grandfather," commented Director of Barnard Public Relations Beverly Solochek. "We're not

She-Man Dupes Barnard

After three full years of subterfuge, Philip McCrevice, a male, has been discovered as having been officially enrolled in Barnard College. Admissions officers, administrators, faculty members, and students were all deceived. This is the first time in the history of women's colleges in America for a mistake of this nature to occur.

The hoax was uncovered by Ray Vision, an employee at the Barnard registrar. After brushing aside numerous suspicions for months, Vision decided to investigate on his own. He commented, "I'd always wanted to be a detective when I was younger—I guess I missed my calling. I really wish things like this would happen more often. It spices up my day."

"At first I was angry at him for not taking our meetings seriously. Then I was insulted because I thought that he just didn't like me.

—Prof. Kent Foolmi

McCrevice transferred from NYU's Tisch School to Barnard, and ostensibly lied on his application. When asked why he did it, McCrevice responded, "I thought that if I could pull something like this off, it would immeasurably boost my future acting career." He also commented that "my parents and friends all thought I was enrolled in Columbia, so that was never an issue. I had my grades sent to me instead of home, and I intercepted any official school correspondence. I also took CC, Lit Hum, Art Hum, etc. so that friends on campus wouldn't be suspicious. Actually, I didn't even mind, because I thought they were really good courses."

McCrevice obtained a 3.81 grade-point-average as a Sociology major at Barnard. His advisor, Barnard History Prof. Kent Foolmi, was deceived by McCrevice's sex for three years. They had never once met face-to-face during the whole time. McCrevice admitted, "I sent Mr. Foolmi notes whenever I needed anything signed. I always gave different excuses about why I couldn't attend meetings with him. Occasionally things would get close, so then I would get my girlfriend to call him and leave a message explaining the situation."

Mr. Foolmi commented, "At first I was angry at him for not taking our meetings seriously. Then I was insulted because I thought that he just didn't like me. I've had that problem before with students. Finally, I just gave up. But I want you to know that he did always give really convincing excuses, such as broken legs, family deaths, car accidents, extended vacations, pneumonia, etc. I figured I'd just be a nice guy and give him the benefit of the doubt, and overlook the problem."

McCrevice's other professors in the Sociology department made similar statements: Barnard Sociology Prof. Gull Able said, "The only time a question ever came up was in the beginning of the semester, when I was marking off which students attended Barnard or Columbia. Philip said he attended Columbia, and that there was just a misprint in the record. I believed him." Professor Oblivie Yus, McCrevice's senior seminar professor, said "I never noticed that anything was amiss." Professor Durkhim Around, Chair of the Sociology Department, scorned, "He's a loose cannon. We must not let him get away with this. I, for one, suggest castration. If he wants so desperately to enter into a different social class, then let him experience it head on, no pun intended." Professor Parah Noid, another one of McCrevice's professors, commented, "I had a bad feeling about Philip all along. Something was different about him. He wasn't like all the others. Hey, what are you doing with that tape recorder? How do I know that you're not going to splice my words and frame me for some heinous crime? Hey, look, everyone cheats a little bit on their taxes!"

Eym Tu Smart, a security guard at the front of Wollman library, commented, "He had a CUID card, so I must not have thought about it, and let him through." In reality, McCrevice admitted that "I have a really good friend in the Village who forges ID cards. They look amazingly real. In all fairness to the guards, though, I didn't use my ID card as much as most students do. I commuted to school, so I didn't have to go into the dorms a lot. Also, I wasn't on any meal plan, and I didn't use

Barnard's Top Role Model to Teach Series of Mini Courses On Campus

Do the names Kim Alexis and Kelly Emberg mean anything to you? Well, YOU could be the next to follow in their footsteps. In an age in which women are still making only a fraction of what men make, there are still ways in which we can rise above. Your chance to learn some of these ways is coming soon. In the fall of 1991, a new workshop will be added to MacAcs list of mini-courses, Making Your Face and Body Work for You. The course will be taught by World renowned model agent and founder of the Ford Modeling Agency, Eileen Ford, (BC'43)

Week 1: Unlearning the New York Walk

Being a tough walker may be appropriate when strolling down 8th between A and B. However, according to Ford's personal attache, "that's no place for a lady anyhow." So, as Eileen always says, "we'll start with the basics." Taking very short steps is a must for feminine walking. Long strides are a no-no.

Required materials: One pair 2 inch heels (Gucci basic black, recommended) and one hard cover book (for balance practice!).

Week 2: Protecting your Complexion from the Harsh New York Air

Confused about which foundations, powder, moisturizer, cover-up is for you? Learn the best formulas for you and your skin tone.

Week 3: Interviewing Tips for the Big Job

Have you always wondered which leg to cross over which? How to soften your deep manly voice into a pleasant melodious tone? What fragrance suits the occasion, Tresor by

Eileen Ford

Lancome or Cotton Candy by Bonnie Bell? Or how much cleavage is the perfect balance between prim Catholic school teacher and "disgraceful to womankind" tramp? You can count on Eileen to answer every query.

Week 4: Packaging Yourself - Enhancing your Portfolio

Learn which positions you photograph best in. Learn how to achieve a winning smile for the camera even when you're down in the dumps. Practice writing the cover letter that will ensure your future as a cover girl. Eileen will prove that in the 90s image is everything. If you can't beat them, join them!

Registration, The Deanery, 9-10pm, April 1, 1991. Hurry, spaces are limited.

By cover-girls Paulna Porosopa and Christie Bonkley.

LOSE WEIGHT THE PLEASURABLE WAY

It's April already. Spring has arrived, or is about to. You see the signs; the robin red-breast, folks eating out on Barnard lawn, sitting on the steps. And despite your conscience telling you that women's body images are constructed by a capitalist patriarchal plot, you are worrying about your thighs. And your flabby arms. And the folds of your stomach. Never fear girls, the feminist answer for serious slimming has arrived.

That's right! No more useless diets! No more tasteless slim-fast shakes! No more trips to the weight room! There is a painless, even pleasurable solution to your problems—SEX. Lots of sex. The more the better. Your dear friend, the clitoris, is here to save the day.

I know what you're thinking. You used to exercise. In fact you ran marathons bi-weekly, but then your knees began to weaken and your ankles kept getting twisted. "The problem with exercise is those awful side effects." Well, no longer! Sexercise has effects you'll love! Maybe your excuse has been the lack of fashion sportswear in your wardrobe - have no fear, for sexercise you don't have to wear a thing. And if you were one of those girls too shy to go to the gym, or too lazy to get up for the morning pool hours, we've answered your problem as well. You don't even have to leave your bed!

So, shake away those puritan ethics, rip off those clothes and you will find the deep hidden world of toning your body the feminist way. The sexual revolution is only a pair of underwear away.

Studies have shown that by engaging in sexual activity a woman between the ages of 16 and 24 can burn between 200-8000 calories per sexual experience. These figures have been broken down: heterosexual sex-200 calories, masturbation - 500 calories, and lesbian sex-8000 calories. Therefore, the all conclusive evidence points to the undeniable fact that the most effective way to lose weight is to engage in lesbian sex.

Now girls, some of you may be feeling a little bit squeamish by this new approach to weight loss. But grab a good friend and you will soon see that your fears will slip away with the first few minutes of wet, wild womanly passion. What could be a more feminist way to work out your body than reaching out to touch a sister?! It's politically correct! Its woman-bonding! Its your greatest fantasies come true (yes, we all have them). The time has come to sing out loud, "Sisters are doing it for themselves."

Now let's begin our workout.

All athletes know the importance of warming up. This is especially true for the great art of sexual exercise. To get the blood flowing begin slowly, with gentle kissing and touching. Fondle her breasts, her buttocks, her thighs...

Studies show the importance of maintaining an aerobic heart rate for at least twenty minutes, so you should plan to spend at least this amount if not more time before climax. Multiple orgasms keep your heart working at a pace that provides for maximum cardiovascular workout. Throughout your workout be sure to keep in mind the words of the great feminist exerciser herself, "Don't forget to breathe!"

Remember this is a workout, so you must keep your body in rapid motion. Thrusting the pelvic area is especially good for tightening the buttocks, while sucking is an excellent activity to burn away that double chin. Oral sex, or muff diving, as it is called in the ancient tradition, is a particularly effective exercise because it works on tongue muscles, jaw flexibility and can be done simultaneously with your partner's thrusting repetitions. Don't forget your dams! (remember - vaginal secretions, otherwise known as pussy juice, is highly caloric). Experiment with different positions to see what works best for you.

To focus on those problematic areas of unsightly flesh, you and your partner might like to try tying each other up. Securing the arms way over the head, or the legs wide apart, provides a wonderful stretch. Oooh, go for the burn! To build up your triceps, choose a partner who is well-endowed and try breast-lifting. This is a wonderful way to build up your muscles while temporarily easing the load for a friend. To work the upper biceps and shoulders you may decide to try some fisting.

Throughout your whole workout you should be concentrating on your breathing and building up your heart rate. Laughing, moaning, panting and spontaneous cries of ecstasy are highly recommended.

So girls, that concludes our workout. Don't forget your cool-down! Repeat this routine two to three times a week to keep your body in divine shape. You'll have that secret smile on your face and that lively glow in your eyes. For more details, watch for our video soon to be available at all fine stores.

points. I rarely needed to take out books from the libraries-my courses didn't require it much, and when they did, I just did the reading in the library. And I got the necessary stickers each semester from one of my RA friends. It was no big deal to pull off."

Even McCrevice's closest friends had no idea about his real enrollment status. McCrevice commented, "I had to keep them all in the dark if I wanted this to work. You can't trust anyone with a secret like this-well, except for Cindi, my girlfriend. We've been dating for five years now and I tell her everything. I made some good friends here, though, and I was honest to them about everything else."

Jay Blatt, one of McCrevice's best friends on campus said, "I can't believe that he never told me about this! But I really can't say that I'm surprised that he was able to pull something like this. He is a really talented actor, and very competent and thorough in everything he undertakes."

The administration is trying to downplay the incident. One dean who wished to remain anonymous claimed, "No institution is completely immune to such occurrences. A somewhat similar story just happened at Princeton. At least Mr. McCrevice wasn't wanted by the FBI or the police. The situation may actually turn out to be beneficial-perhaps we'll get more free coverage which will help our fundraising. I'm almost glad that someone as talented as Mr. McCrevice chose our college in which to matriculate."

When asked what consequences McCrevice will face, the administration stated that "the disciplinary board will thoroughly review the situation, and will act accordingly."

McCrevice, however, hopes to remain in the College for the remainder of his last semester. "Look, no real harm was done. Right? But if I get thrown out, I'll appeal. Hey, I just got a great idea. What if I sneak onto the disciplinary board?" He smirked.

Most administrators are calling for McCrevice's immediate expulsion, and want to pursue legal action against him. The hearing will be held in Altschul Auditorium on April 1 at 4:00pm. All students are encouraged to attend. Lots and lots of refreshments will be served.

This Summer, Make Your Move to a Rewarding Career ...in Teaching at Johns Hopkins University

If you major in the liberal arts, sciences, or engineering and are thinking about your career after graduation, think about attending Johns Hopkins University this summer.

Our Accelerated Master of Arts in Teaching (AMAT) offers qualified undergraduates the opportunity to begin a graduate education program during the summer after the junior year. The program meets teacher certification requirements in Maryland and offers theoretical instruction and practical experience. Accommodations will be made for students wishing to be certified in other states.

Application deadline is May 1. For more information on the AMAT program, call 1-800-GO-TO-JHU, or write Johns Hopkins University, School of Continuing Studies, Division of Education, 105 Whitehead Hall, Baltimore, MD 21218.

An equal opportunity/affirmative action institution.

Our quest for quality entertainment led us to Video Access (2821 Broadway), where we selected a few choice films from the back corner bin. Despite our sophisticated appearances, we were asked for proof of age as we browsed leisurely and took notes. Here are the results of our search:

THANKS FOR THE MAMMARIES This adapted film version of Grey's Anatomy is highly recommended by Prof. Chase. It's educational, but perhaps too weighty a subject. Patty Plenty's acting was a bit too top-heavy for our tastes.

AFRODISIAC An in-depth exploration of interracial relationships. This film will be the subject of an upcoming Tea and Topics, as led by Prof. Delli-Carpini. We feel that the subject matter of this movie complements Barnard's push for diversity.

LEAVE IT TO CLEAVAGE After the domesticity of the 1950's, June Cleaver has hearkened to the call of feminism and has entered the working world. A must-see for graduating Barnard seniors as they contemplate their futures.

THE WHORE OF THE WORLDS (Starring Jessica Longue as Clitemnestra) This movie follows in the style of David Rabe's "The Orphan" as a retelling of the classic story Orestia

FOR YOUR THIGHS ONLY Imagine our surprise when James Bond never appeared. Still, the suspense was titilating.

DEBBIE DOES 'EM ALL The theme was a little cliched. Still, it's the perfect video for first-time porno watchers. You could call it the easy-entry approach.

THE BIG GULP SERIES A convenience store adventure. A documentary on the rise of 7-11's in America. We saw this one in Seminar In American Popular Culture (History, BC 3456).

ERECTOR SEX A fresh view of the favorite children's toy—come on, you've played with it, too. Better Parenting magazine recommends showing this one to daughters in order to eliminate sex based stereotypes in child rearing.

E-ee and Bean are Bulletin editors who are too embarrassed to reveal their true identities
