ATT: PRINCETON BUS CANCELLED!
Mixer not cancelled. Can take bus from Port Authority from day to month to year—the same walk to school, same classes, same faces, same buildings, same cups of dishpan coffee at the same unstable tables.

a year, two, three, four between morningside and riverside—walking on cobblestones, running across blacktop, scuffing cement, grass, wood. in and out, out and in—doors, trains, windows. up and down, down and up —stairs, elevators, fire escapes.

a pigeon, a dog, a friend. leaning against ivy walls, brick walls. beer washed down. money paid out. involvement. apathy. bad jokes. schedules.

smelly stale butts. empty foam-caked mugs.

only we grow. we change.

they don't teach classes, have office hours or supervise clubs, but working behind the scenes, the administration keeps barnard running smoothly. we remember . . .

red tape and love . . . why don't you take a year off . . . tissues in mrs. stabenau's bottom desk drawer . . . no smoking beyond this point . . . ring bell for service . . .

fines and fees—early, late, for missing graduation, for attending registration . . . cards—blue, yellow, white, chartreuse, mauve, puce . . . forms—reference, profiles, transcript requests, course permissions, course petitions, course substitutions . . .

scholarship grants needed for the scholarship office . . . when the mice are away the cat will play . . . where are you living, why, and with whom . . .
why not columbia housing registry?
why not columbia courses?
why not columbia professors?
why not columbia?

rosemary park
president of barnard college dean in the university

A great historian once said that more men know how to win a victory than know how to make good use of it. Your graduation from Barnard College is a kind of personal victory which we believe you will use in the years ahead, not only to secure your own continuing satisfaction and happiness but generously to contribute to the integrity and compassion of your society.

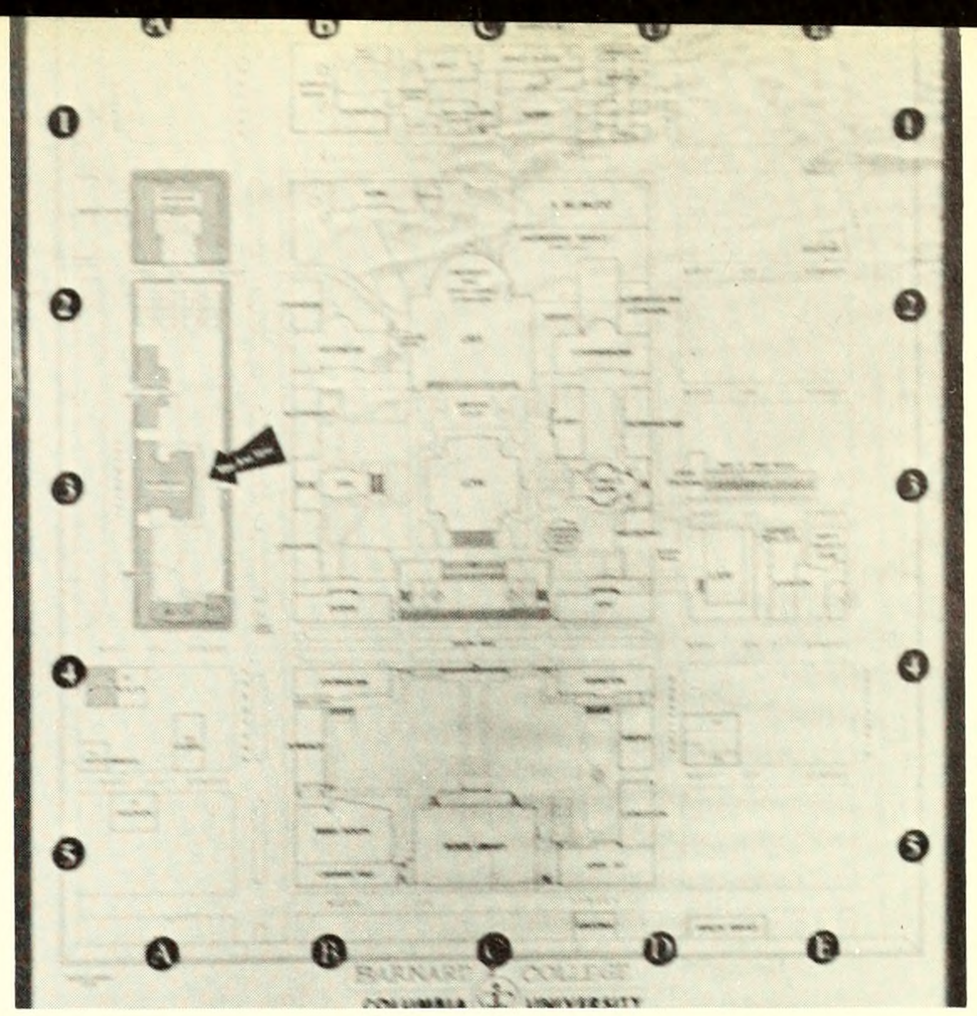
campus life



you are here—barnard college in 66-67. viet nam remains the issue: pickets, letters, petitions, referenda. it was the london year: boots, mini-skirts, fishnet, vinyl. classes as usual: four course system and the hole in the ground.

in the world. floods in florence . . . chaos in china . . . president podgorny meets pope paul . . . rhodesia rebuked . . . middle east mishugass.

in the u.s. reagan elected —kerr rejected . . . black power . . . when the prices go up up up—food boycott . . . manchester suits . . . apollo tragedy.

in manhattan. hoving's happenings . . . norman mailer and truman capote parties . . . i. s. 201 . . . civilian review board—no! macbird—yes! . . . marat/sade reopened . . . shakespeare in the park . . . air pollution.

on campus. warmth . . . centrex . . . student reps meet rusk . . . pres park departing . . . bugaloo . . . jungle junked . . . kiosk condemned . . . martyrboard maintained . . . button sew . . . what reading period . . . matching the million.

seniors & faculty

freshman year: we came in with the beatles—radios played their first song that october. but we had to grow up more suddenly than freshmen of other years. for at the end of that first long balmy autumn in college, president kennedy was assassinated. we had loved him neither because we are patriotic americans who love every president nor for himself alone, but because he gave us hope and confidence. jfk was our president, we responded to the youth, stamina, humour and intelligence he represented. he told us this is our nation, our time. when he was gone, responsibility for these ideals was ours alone.

time does not stop when history is made. we had to adjust to our new roles, ignore the empty space, the futile feeling. sophomore and junior years meant more school, new friends, new ideas and problems.

senior year: deadlines . . . diamond rings in the annex . . . gre, miller, comps . . . panic . . . $15 applications . . . you don't know me, but would you write me a reference . . . deadlines . . . intellectual interests in 25 words or less . . . nervous collapse . . . senior medicals—our cups runneth over . . . can i still change my major . . . office hours for bookmen only . . . we're losing our faculties . . . and next year? grad school, job, vista, katie gibbs, suicide . . .

Over fourteen thousand members of the Association Alumnae of Barnard College

welcome 1967, the newest class to join the Association

All students of Barnard College become members of the AABC on graduation. There are no dues and many privileges in being a member of the Association. To mention a few—the Alumnae Magazine will be sent to each member four times during a year. Many Barnard classes are open to you for auditing. The services of the Placement Office are available. In the fall watch the mails for more information on what the Alumnae Association can mean to you.

FOR THE BEST TEMPORARY JOBS
WE ARE DELIGHTED . . .

to salute the Barnard girls who have handled our temporary job assignments so well over the years.
Students, teachers, and school clerks find it pleasant and profitable to work through our Service during long or short vacations, and we look forward to seeing many new applicants this summer. Mothers and older sisters, too, can use their spare time to advantage doing temporary work. There are no fees to applicants.
