President Spar

Dear Members of the Class of 2012,

It has been a thrill to be part of your Barnard lives, and to witness how your grace, intelligence, passion, and hard work have brought you to where you are today. You have every reason to be proud.

No doubt, this is a fascinating and dynamic time to be going out into the world, with the rules around you changing in complicated and profound ways. As you try to figure out how it all works and what role you want to play, you have the chance not only to experience this sense of change but to live it and affect it – to alter the course of your own lives and of the community that surrounds you. This is an unprecedented moment for each of you, and I have no doubt that you will seize it. As President Obama said when he addressed you at Commencement: “...reach high and hope deeply... fight for your seat at the table.”

At Barnard, you have made friends that will last a lifetime, discovered your academic passions, and explored the endless wonders of life in New York City. And, of course, you have been a vital part of what makes Barnard great. I hope you will continue to come back often because, physical changes aside, the Barnard you so recently left behind is the Barnard that you will return to; a campus and a college that will remain yours long after you walk through those gates on Broadway and head off to your next great adventure.

Your memories of Barnard and the ways in which you reflect upon your years on campus are open to interpretation and will almost certainly shift over time. That is why the Mortarboard is such a treasure. It is a wonderful snapshot of your Barnard experience – a collection of faces, candid encounters, and thoughtful writing to remind you of all you did here. I hope will enjoy looking through it for many years to come.

And I hope you will stay in touch.

Debora Spar

Dean Hinkson

Dear Class of 2012,

While we only shared a few months together, I have enjoyed getting to know you! It has been an absolute honor for me to be welcomed back to the College by you as you were preparing to walk through the Barnard Gates for the last time as students. I am sure you are amazed by how your time at Barnard has flown by. It seems as if you just arrived and now you have joined the grand ranks of the Alumnae Association! Congratulations!

As you begin to find your way in life beyond Barnard, please know that I wish you much success. It is my hope that your dreams will come true and if they don't, it will only be because a better opportunity is awaiting you. May all that you learned at Barnard serve you well as you encounter new people, experiences, challenges, and parts of the world! May you always thirst for more knowledge and never settle for less than you deserve. You are the very best and may the best of everything be yours!

I offer you my most heartfelt congratulations and look forward to hearing of your many accomplishments in the years to come.

Yours truly,

Avis E. Hinkson '84

You did it Sami! The road was long. JCC, Central Park, Megs, French Woods, Pine Crest, Michigan, Harvard, Tufts, Barnard, Equador, Spain and more. You have become more than the sum of all these experiences. The great friends that you made on your journey are a testament to the person that you are. You are a beautiful young woman in every way and have so much to look forward to. I know I echo the sentiments of your many friends and family when I say how proud I am of you and wish you luck and happiness in what I know will be a very exciting future.
I Love You,

Lauren Michelle Perrine

Dearest Daughter,

The world changed on December 12, 1990. Giggles developed into baby questions, which transformed into adolescent inquisitions. Your desire to learn manifested into a passion for knowledge. Your strong opinions as a girl became the core beliefs and morals of the young woman you have become. Your early perseverance manifested into your determination and drive. We have been blessed to have you present in our lives. The time for the rest of the world to benefit from your grace, beauty and intelligence has arrived. It's time to spread your wings, live, love and always laugh. I respect, admire, and am inspired by you! My daughter, my friend, I will miss you while you explore the world. I love you!

Forever and Always,
Mom

Kathryn McCaskey

Dear Kathryn,

Congratulations! We are so proud of you! May your future be filled with all of life's greatest blessings!

Love,
Mom, Dad and John

Stephanie Marchena

It seems like yesterday you were a little girl exploring your world and the next you were all grown-up making your own choices and decisions. I've watched you grow and navigate through some pretty tough times.

Now you're walking proud and tall in a cap and gown that suit you perfectly. I am so very proud of you and the young woman you've become.

Today marks a very special day in your life...

CONGRATULATIONS

Despite all your concerns, both you and Lazlo made it to the finish line. You did it with grace, perseverance, and hard work. Lazlo's path is another story. You maintained your steady moral compass which has informed you since kindergarten and will continue to guide you throughout your life. Lazlo, of course has no moral compass and is only guided by the foods.

We feel so blessed and shep nachas not only from all you have accomplished, but also from the person you are at your core - the very essence of Millie. We will continue to watch with pride and joy as your story unfolds, and we know that there are no boundaries to what lies ahead for you. As always we will be here to cheer for you, to support you, and to love you.

Congratulations. With all our love,
Mom, Dad, and Amanda

Congratulations Sara Probbber!
