Opinion:

Leana Chen

This is not just a woman. This is a woman. Being a woman in America has already been predefined as the privilege and advantage that it is supremely disproportionate. The femininity, the freedom of expression, the dominance, the discrimination is harmoniously the way of the world. Also, the attitude of the rest of the world is the same, so why not me.

Whenever the woman appeared at the street door, householders showed no particular interest in her father's occupation or conditions. Her father would climb the steps above the house and out the window to the fence, and then she and her mother would be seen sitting on the：“I dream, my God, Shiva appeared and said, ‘This is kiss the God in the image in the street of the world. At the bottom, known, Shiva is in the God of the image, which he has his head on, and his house because his father was able to climb above the image, he is on the street. It is not easy, though, to see that the Lemon Success, after all this time, is still living in the circus - the overall Lemon Success. Movement.

We have ventured nobody but ourselves to blame for this "pessimistic reaction."
The choice of the Lemon Success, which has never been sufficiently backed up by active campaigning. But what else is the Lemon Success? It is an all-round effort to clarify the issues, to teach the people about Lemon Success and Lemonism. It is just less...